A largely attended meeting of the Board of Trade was held in Council Chamber on Wednesday evening. President E. W. Jarvis in the chair. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

President Jarvis referred to the pocket pedling prevalent in town, by which some of the soldiers secured liquor and thereby became intoxicated. H. E. Burt, A. D. Burt and others spoke on the subject. The latter stated that the Chief of Police was most energetic in his efforts to abolish pocket pedling, but although information was laid the evidence was not sufficient to warrant a conviction.

The following resolution was carried unanimously:—

Whereas it has come to the attention of the members of this Board of Trade residents and visitors of the Town have been annoyed by the solicitations of pocket pedlers of intoxicating liquor, on the public streets and elsewhere within the Town limits.

And whereas the work of these pocket pedlers has resulted in some drunkenness and disorder.

And whereas pocket pedling, unless stopped, is sure to bring discredit on the Town.

Therefore resolved that in the opinion of this Board of Trade most energetic measures should be adopted to bring the offenders to justice and put a stop to the practice, even to the employment of special officers if necessary.

And further resolved that the Town Council be urged to instruct the police department to put forth extra efforts to obtain information as to pocket pedling wherever possible. And further resolved that every citizen of Woodstock be requested to do all he can to aid the officials in this difficult matter and as a means to this end to promptly report all suspicious cases that may come under his notice to the Scott Act Inspector.

Mr. H. C. Nelson was elected a member of the Board. Mr. Howard Burt was made a member of the Council of the Board of Trade.

It was decided to hold meetings during the summer at the call of the chair

Thomas McGinley

Johnville lost another old and highly esteemed resident at noon on Wednesday, when Thomas McGinley entered into rest. Deceased, who was 74 years of age, was one of the first settlers of Johnville, although born in Woodstock. He has always been a good neighbor, bright and intelligent and always ready to help along any deserving cause. His death followed a brief illness during which time he underwent medical treatment in this town.

Among those who mourn his passing are a widow, eight children: Chas. Ambrose, Edwin, and Miss Alice of Johnville, John of Irish Settlement and three daughters in Melrose, Mass. Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. McGrath and Miss Margaret McGinley.

The older residents of the town will remember that Mr. McGinley was born and spent his boyhood days in this town.

When Bishop Sweeney called for settlers for Johnville, Mr. McGinley moved to that place, and became one of the pioneers of that now flourishing Catholic settlement. The early days of Johnville were filled with struggle and self sacrifice; but together with his fellow settlers the deceased stuck manfully to the task of making Johnville a place to be proud of.

In 1869 Mr. McGinley was united in marriage with Miss Mary Gelding of St. John, and the union was blessed with much happiness.

The funeral which was one of the largest in the history of the parish, took place at 9.30 on Friday morning. The requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Coughlin, and the responses were sung by Miss Estella O'Brien who also rendered in a touching manner, the sweet Catholic Hymn "Pray for our dead"
