COUNTY COUNCIL.

The June session of the County Council met in the Court House at 10 o'clock on Tuesday June 15.

Rev. Smith Dow, pastor Reformed Baptist church has extended an invitation to the members of the Sons of Temperance to attend service at his church on Sunday evening June 20th. He will give a temperance address at that time. The order will attend in a body.

The music pupils of Benton, Debec, and Woodstock, who belong to Mrs. S. J. Parsons classes had a most successful Recital at the teacher's residence last Saturday afternoon. Some young ladies beautifully decorated the rooms with ferns and apple blossoms, and the large living room was seated for the occasion with room for over sixty. The little people seemed to enjoy the gathering greatly and played with enthusiasm, and were greeted by hearty applause. The exercises began early in the afternoon, and had to be closed before the 5.45 mail train went down. But the playing was fine, and the work promptly done, so ample time was had to go through with the program. Of those who came from Benton to take part were Miss Lulu Moxon, Misses Fay Vera and Nellie Clark, Gladys Veness, Vera Olts and Winnifred Blair. From Debec the Misses Elva and Dorothy Kirkpatrick, Effie Nason, Mariam Craig, Charlotte Flemming and Vera Pickel. From Woodstock Miss Mary Dickinson, Mary Everitt, Lilitia Mooers, Gladys McBride, Nita Little, Susie Sharpe, Helen Jones, Helen Steeves, Kathline Sutherland, and Ida Saunders. The parents and friends of the players were greatly interested, and warmly congratulated the teacher in her successful teaching and training. Besides the piano playing the opening song by the five little girls from Benton, Vera Olts, Nina Veness, Winnifred Blair, Pauline Clark and Emma Mills. Three vocal solos by Gladys Veness, Nita Little and Kathline Turney and a violin solo by Grace Everitt added greatly to the interest of the recital. Mrs. M. C. McLean and Mrs. J. L. Ross attended to the distribution of the cake and ice cream which after the work of the afternoon was greatly enjoyed by the children, and the grown ups too.

Mrs. Robert G. Larsen

A letter was received here this week by Miss Jean Sprague, announcing the death at her home in Boston, of Mrs. Robert G. Larsen. The late Mrs. Larsen was well known here, her maiden name being Miss Elsie Phelan. She was an accomplished pianist and entertainer previous to her marriage, and was heard in Woodstock on several occasions. She was also a composer of some ability. Her husband is press agent for Keith's circuits, and is a native of St. John.

The last dinner given by the girls of Grade 10 to the Trustees of the town was held in the Vocational School on Tuesday evening. The hostess was Miss Helen Smith and her assistants were the Misses Helen Slipp, Freda Seely, Faye Stokoe, Marion Mitchell and Susie Sharpe. The invited guests were, Mr. and Mrs. P. Bradley, Col. and Mrs. F. H. J. Dibblee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Comben, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Atherton and Miss Marvin.

Mrs. J. A. Sylvester, and son Robert, of Malden, Mass., is visiting her father, C. R. Watson.

M. J. Poupore, of Meductic, was in town on Saturday.

CENTREVILLE

The yearly District Meeting was held in the Centreville Baptist Church, according to announcement, beginning on Friday evening. After the usual opening ceremonies representatives of the Grand Leigue, and Foreign Missions gave very interesting addresses. Nearly all of Saturday was taken up with the business matters of the District. The speakers for the evening were Revd's Mr. De Wolfe and Nowlan, of Wolfville, N. S., and Mr. Wilson, of St. John. Rev. Mr. Barton was elected President for the coming year and Rev. Mr. Fenwick was chosen Secretary. Rev. Mr. Orchard, of Woodstock, preached the morning sermon on Sunday and words of appreciation were heard on every side.

The afternoon was mainly taken up by the Women's Missionary Society; and in the evening a crowded house listened to Rev. Mr. Fletcher; and Mr. Kincaid of Hartland both of whom are very impressive speakers. It is thought that the Baptists of Centreville will make an effort to secure the services of Rev. Mr. Jenkins to take the place of Rev. Mr. Williams, retiring from this field. Representatives were here from most of the churches and the sessions were largely attended considering the fact that the First District Meeting was being held at the same time in Knoxford, only four miles away.

Crop prospects are not the brightest on account of the cold dry weather.

The farmers are cleaning up their stock of potatoes and prices are still low.

Mrs. John McIntosh and two daughters, of Bath, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Fraser Dalling of Richmond.
