Elizabeth M. Tompkins

Elizabeth M. (nee) Philips, widow of the late Robert W. Tompkins, died of pneumonia, after a short illness, at her late residence, 66 Maple avenue, Cambridge, Mass., Fab. 11th. aged 68 years. Funeral was held Sunday Feb. 14th, at 2 p. m. Service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Simpson. The body was placed in the receiving tomb. Interment will be made in Cambridge ceme tery:

The many floral tributes showed the very high esteem in which the deceased was held. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Herbert Lindsay of Woodstock, N. B, Minnie E., Bertha L., and Ella M., all ct Cambridge, Mass.

John B Grart

The many friends of John B. Grant. well known in York and Carleton corn ties, will regret to hear of his death at the home of Robert Hallett, Mil'ville, on Sunday night, aged 78 years. Of late years he has been badly crippled with rleumatism and spent the winters as a rule in California or at the hot springs in Arkansas. He was a noted woodsman and teamster and when a boy drove one of the teams that conveyed the Btitish troops up to the Aroostook border during the troublous days of the Trent affair.

The body was brought to Wood. stock Tuesday morning and the baria' at McKenzie Corner.

News

A very highly respected resident of Wicklow passed away on Fe'. 11 in the person of Mrs. Sprah Gallop. She died at her home. The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church Feb. 14 by Rev. G. A. Ross. Mrs. Gallop was greatly beloved by all who knew her; and in her long life of eightysix years proved herself a devoted Christian and willing helper in her younger years to all in sickness and times of trouble. Her kindness won her the title of "Aunt Sarah" for years to young and old. An adopted niece, Mrs. Fred White, survives, and other nieces and nephews and many relatives to mourn. She leaves no brothers nor sisters, she is the last of a large family. On Friday evening Feb. 19 a vasket social was held at H. L. Olmstead's for the "Belgian Relief Work." The sum of fifty dollars was raised and will be forwarded to the committee in St. John. A very pleasant evening was spent.
