Getting Ready For The Soldiers

The Armoury is being quickly placed in readiness for the reception and housing of the men of the company of soldiers from the 104th Regiment, Sussex, who are expected here next week. The sleeping rooms are in the front of the building, will be fitted with bunks, and are all heated by steam, except the large room in the basement, which will be heated with stoves. The wash and bath room is in the east wing and will contain fifteen closets, two shower baths and several wash basins. The dining room and kitchen will be in the large room in the rear of the building down stairs, and will be heated by hot water supplemented by the heat from two large cooking ranges. The large room directly above the dining room will be used as a club room for the men.

The quarters so established will probably be unsurpassed by any in the Maritime Provinces, and friends of the soldiers may be satisfied that they will be comfortable.

ance of $800 on the Maxon building, while the Churchill building was also insured.

Richmond Leigh Turney.

The death of Richmond L. Turney, a retired business man of the town, occurred on Friday, November 12. Although Mr Turney had been ill for several weeks his death came as a severe shock to the community where he has lived for many years.

Mr. Turney was at Florenceville, N. B., on Oct. 15, 1848, a son of the late Charlotte Upton Turney (sister of late Col. Upton, of Florenceville) and Nelson Turney. Early in life he went to Richmond Corner, N. B., at that time a bustling country center. Here he was associated with John S. Dennett & Co. and John Leighton.

After spending a short time in Wisconsin he came to Houlton, clerking for the late E. Woodbury and later for local hardware concerns. In the early eighties Mr. Turney opened a hardware business of his own, retiring a few years ago, the business being taken over by the Putnam Hardware Company. Possessed of great enterprise, ability and incessant industry, Mr. Turney built up a large and prosperous business.

It was his kindness of heart, social, and genial way that "Dick" Turney—as he was familiarly known by his scores of friends—will be best remembered. His sympathetic nature, generous and helpful thoughtfulness were ever ready to lend a helping hand. And it will be in recollection of these many traits that his memory will long be held in loving remembrance by many.

He was married twice. His first wife was Miss Isabelle Millar who died in February 1906, and his second wife who survives him and who ministered most faithfully to him in his long and tedious illness, was Miss Helen Haley of Houlton. There survives besides a widow, one sister, Mrs Mary E Goss of Fitchburg, Mass., and several nieces.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon, under the auspices of Houlton, Lodge, No. 835, B. P. O. E., of which the deceased had been a prominent member, a delegation of 75 Elks attended the funeral. The solemn and impressive burial services were carried out at the home and at the grave.
