Leslie Moreland Morse.

Leslie Moreland Morse the nine year old son of Edward and Lettie Fowler Morse died in the Presque Isle Maine hospital Sat. morning Sept. 18th 1915 from concussion of the brain, caused by a sudden blow it is thought dealt by some pupil, shortly, after dismissal Friday night.

The funeral was held from the home on Chapman Street Monday, Rev. Mr. Tripp in attendance; Grade IV was marched by their teacher and stood in two ranks during the service, afterwards they marched by the remains of their comrade, a silent warning against rash deeds of childhood.

B., Telephone, School Teachers of Presque Isle and many others: Interment was made at Williamstown Cemetery, Car Co, N. B., in J. R. Fowler's lot the funeral going by Auto. The grief stricken parents have the deepest sympathy of all.

Miss Hazel Britton

On Tuesday evening Miss Hazel Britton died at the home of her father George O Britton, Hillcrest avenue. She had been ill for some time of tuberculosis and was 22 years of age. When the fatal malady first made its appearance she was sent to the Jordan Sanitarium, but with little good result. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at Windsor.

This is the fourth daughter, beside the wife of Mr. Britton to die of Tuberculosis in a little over two years. Such a fearful scourge does not frequently visit one family. While those nearest and dearest have been taken away from him, Mr. Britton still has left a larger circle of friends than most men and these are sorrowing with him in his overwhelming affliction.—Carleton Observer.
