Franchette-Smith

St. Luke's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding early Saturday morning Oct. 2nd when Miss Luinda E. Smith daughter of the late Mr. Geo. F. Smith of Woodstock, was united in marriage to the Rev. Nicola Franchette of Hartland. The ceremony was performed by His Lordship Bishop Richardson, assisted by the rector, Rev. A. S. Hazel. The bride wore her travelling dress of navy blue cloth trimmed with old lace and with hat to match. She was given away by her brother-in-law Mr. Percy Graham, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Hartland. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white asters, phlox and chrysanthemums. As the bridal party entered the church the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" and on leaving the church, the organist, Miss Myrtle Gabel played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Rev. Mr. Franchette and Mrs. Franchette left on the morning express for a tour through parts of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. On their return they will reside in Hartland. The bride received many beautiful presents, among them being a large copper percolator from the ladies of the church at Hartland.

Women's Institute

The regular monthly meeting of the Woodstock branch of the Women's Institute was held on Wednesday last. A keen interest is being taken, the ladies finding the meetings both interesting and profitable.

Mr. C. O. MacDonald, of the Royal Bank, gave a splendid talk on "What women should know about banking," the close of which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker.

It was decided a month ago that the branch would take up some work for the soldiers and a good beginning was made at this meeting by donations of bedding, old linen, etc. the parcel to be forwarded through our local Red Cross Society.

Presbyterian Synod Tonight

St. John, N. B., Oct. 5.—The Presbyterian Synod of the Maritime Provinces opens this evening in Saint Andrew's Church, and the delegates, who will number more than 300, are assembling today. Members of the Synod committees arrived in advance and were busy this morning and this afternoon preparing their reports for presentation to the Synod. Considerable interest centres in the election of the Moderator which takes place this evening. Those already nominated are Rev. Thomas Stewart, D. D., Church Agent at Halifax; Rev. Professor J. W. Falconer, D. D., Halifax; Rev. H. R. Grant, Secretary N. S. Temperance Alliance, and Rev. J. A. McLellan, Mahone Bay, N. S. The latter was formerly located in this province and will receive considerable New Brunswick support, but well informed churchmen believe that Mr. Grant will be the new Moderator.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tabor, of Aroostook Junction, Mrs. Charles Dow and daughter Maude and Miss Amy Tompkins, of Florenceville, Mr. Founs and Mr. Ammon Tabor attended the funeral of Miss Sara S. Morrison on Tuesday.

Miss Sara S. Morrison

She is survived by her father and mother, four brothers, John H. T. of St. John, Ont. Kenneth N. with the 60th Batt., at Valcartier, Jesse H. of Montreal and Gordon at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Grover Hull of Gace Bay C. B., and Miss Muriel at home.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, services being conducted by the Rev. Frank Orchard assisted by the Rev. Frank Baird. The choir of the United Baptist church sang her favorite hymns—"Sometime We'll Understand" "God Will Take Care Of You" and "Will There Be Any Stars In My Crown."

Miss Morrison had sung the last hymn to her father on Sunday morning and had repeated the second one singing the chorus in the afternoon a few hours before her death. The pall bearers were two brothers, John and Kenneth Morrison and two cousins Claude and Arthur Tabor. Interment was in the family lot in the Methodist cemetery.

Jeremiah G. Sullivan

The death took place at Portage, Maine, Wednesday evening, of Mr. Jeremiah G. Sullivan, at the age of 60 years. The deceased was in the usual good health until a few minutes before his death from heart disease, and his demise was tragically sudden. His family resided in this town, but his wife, daughter and one son have been spending the summer in Portage.

Deceased was possessed of many virtues, being kind and charitable to everybody, and was a general favorite. For his family he was willing to make every sacrifice. Before he went to Portage he was boom master and foreman of Moore's mill, but his wife and children remained here so that the latter could complete their education. He leaves to mourn their great loss, the widow, three boys, Currie, a medical student at McGill, Jerry, a Dominion Express Company messenger, and Frank, at home, and one daughter, Maria, a teacher in the public schools; there are two sisters of deceased surviving: Mrs. Charles Dickinson of Richmond and Miss Kate Sullivan, Auburn, Me.

The remains were brought to his home here on Friday night and the funeral took place at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning from his home to St. Gertrude's church where a requiem high mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. F. J. McMurray, after which he was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery to await the final resurrection. The pall bearers were Messrs. M. McManus, Jas. S. McManus, J. H. Thompson and John P. Malaney.

Mrs. Charles P. Bull received a letter today from her son Major J. J. Bull, A. Company, 55th Batt., Valcartier. He writes that Sunday Sept. 26th was the wildest he ever spent under canvas. The wind roared, the canvas flapped and the rain fell in torrents: A little snow also fell. The soldiers had to dig large pits to drain the water from the tents. In some of the officers, tents the water was 4 inches deep, but his tent remained dry. Every day they have hard drill and musketry on the ranges.

The Rev. Frank Baird went to St. John on Monday to attend a meeting of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces.
