HOUSEHOLD

RICE LOAF.

A very delicious loaf is made from a cupful of chopped hickory nuts and two of boiled rice, mixed with a beaten egg, rolled into a loaf, then rolled in egg and crumbs and baked for twenty five minutes. This is delicious served with tomato sauce.
A very good and easy way to make tomato sauce is to simmer a can of tomatoes until it measures only about half the original quantity. Then season with butter, pepper and salt, strain, add a very little cornstarch—not more than a quarter of a teaspoonful—boil up and serve.
Another way to make a quick tomato sauce is to heat the contents of a can of concentrated tomato soup without adding any water.

APPLE COBBLER.

Pare and quarter enough tart apples to fill a baking dish two-thirds full. Make a rich baking powder biscuit dough soft enough to stir. Spread it over the apples. Make several cuts in the centre to allow the steam to escape and bake in a slow oven. Serve with sugar and cream.

RICE RAREBIT.

Two tablespoonfuls butter, 1 cup milk, 1 pound American cheese, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon mustard, dash of paprika, 3 cups hot boiled rice, 1 1/2 tablespoons of flour.Melt the butter, add flour and then milk gradually. When smooth add the cheese and seasoning and cook thoroughly. In the meantime boil your rice in plenty of boiling salted water; drain and dry in colander; add 1 tablespoon of butter. Shape into hollow rings on individual plates and cover with rarebit.

JELLIED APPLES.

This is a favorite dessert and particularly good when the meat course is heavy. 6 good sized apples, 4 cups boiling water, 2 cups sugar, juice one lemon, 2 tablespoons gelatine.Make a syrup of the water, sugar and lemon juice. Peel, core and quarter the apples and cook in the syrup until tender, but not broken. Remove from the fire and stir in the gelatine, which has been soaking in cold water. Pour into a mould, and when set turn out and surround with whipped cream. Dot the top with red jelly. The amount of sugar required depends on the tartness of the apples.

BAKED APPLE DUMPLINGS.

4 cups flour, 8 level teaspoons baking powder, 1 cup butter, apples, 1 1/2 cups milk, nutmeg.

SYRUP FOR DUMPLINGS

3 cups of water, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cup sugar.Pare and quarter the apples; sift baking powder and flour.
Mix in the butter. Add sufficient milk to make a stiff paste.
Roll out quarter inch thick, cut in round pieces. Place several pieces of apples in each, form into a ball and bake in the following syrup:German Consul At San FranciscoSan Francisco, Cal., Dec. 1.— Subpoenaing of witnesses for the trial of Franz Bopp, German consul general at Francisco, and four members of his official family, charged with breaches of neutrality in connection with an alleged bomb conspiracy, was begun to-day.
United States District Attorney Preston said about 250 men and women would be summoned by the government in the case which is set for next Monday. The names of witnesses were not announced, but Mr. Preston said some of them would come from as far east as New York."Our case," he declared, "is complete."Immunity, he added, would not be given Johannes von Koolberger, the so-called "double spy.""If van Koolbergen appears," he said, "it will be as a defendant and not as a witness."Louis J. Smith, alleged to have been in the employ of the German officials, had been granted immunity, although he is named in the indictment. Preston said the gov-ernment would ask for dismissal of the charges against him and that he would be the government's star witness.In addition to Bopp, those to be tried are E. H. von Shack, German vice-consul; Wm. von Brincken, attache; Charles C. Crowley, detective for the German consulate, and Mrs. Margaret W. Cornell, Crowley's secretary.It is alleged by the government that van Koolberger was employed by German officials to dynamite bridges, tunnels and stations in Canada. The German officials deny this allegation, holding that the man was a spy. Van Koolbergen recently was released from a prison in Alberta, Canada, where he served a sentence for forgery.
The government cannot force him to come to this country, as the charge against him is not extradi-table.Anxiety Grows in Greek CapitalLondon, Dec. 1.—Special despatches from Athens, dated Thursday, say there is a growing state of anxiety in the city. The Greek garrison seems to have withdrawn inland, taking arms, munitions and stores. Two regiments left during the night with artillery.The despatches add that there was alarm in the streets on Thursday morning due to the appearance of bands of reservists, but that later it was ascertained they had been called for service. The authorities seemed to be doing their utmost to preserve order.The Bourse Thursday was very firm indicating optimism.London, Dec. 1.—An Athens despatch to the Daily Chronicle under date of November 30, ascribes

London, Dec. 1.—An Athens de-
the following statement to vice-Admiral du Fournet, in command of the allied fleet in Greek waters."I insist absolutely upon the execution of my demands, and will see that they are realized in spite of all obstacles. French, British and Italian detachments will be landed at all points necessary. I will endeavor to avoid bloodshed, but will fulfil my mission thoroughly."The Athens correspondent of the Daily Mail interviewed vice-Admiral du Fournet aboard his flagship and quotes him similarly to the correspondent of the Chronicle. The Admiral said that he did not intend either to seize the arms or fire upon the Greek troops, but declared that unless the guns were surrendered he would land large detachments which would not disembark until his demands were complied with.
Other coercive measures would be taken at the same time.

"As I have most ample forces at my disposal," the Admiral said, "and some of the heaviest and most powerful artillery in existence, I can see no reason why the arms will not quietly be given up."Germany Cuts Rail Traffic To Meet
Army NeedsBerlin, Nov. 27.—A general curtailment of railroad traffic, due to the requirements of the army in the matter of rolling stock for the transportation of troops and a desire to save coal, is scheduled for Dec. 1. Train schedules are now being revised to eliminate all trains that can be readily dispensed with.
Sleeping and dining cars are being dropped from most of the trains.The same desire to save fuel will, it is reported, find expression in an earlier closing law, midnight being fixed, instead of 1 o'clock in the morning as at present.FOR SALE
