KEEP CHILDREN WELL DURING HOT WEATHER

Every mother knows how fatal the hot summer months are to small children. Cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and stomach troubles are rife at this time and often a precious little life is lost after only a few hours illness. The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets in the house feels safe. The occasional use of the Tablets prevents stomach and bowel troubles, or if trouble comes suddenly—as it generally does—the Tablets will bring the baby safely through. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs. Karl Daman left on Saturday for Butte, Montana, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Paul J. Shaw for several weeks, after which she will visit her sister Mrs. Alwin Sailer in Rexburg, Idaho, till the end of September.

The deceased was born at Kingsclear, York Co., Nov. 28 1824 came to Carleton County with his parents and brothers at the age of thirteen and spent the remainder of his boyhood days in Jacksonville. From the latter place he followed a spotted trail to Good Corner where he and his brothers John and Arch soon cleared fine farms, erected good farm-buildings and laid the corner stone of a thriving settlement which today bears their name.

Mr. Good was always a healthy man, with wonderful powers of endurance and prided himself on his being able to keep up his "dogtrot" (as he called it) while others dropped by the way exhausted, and is credited with walking from Good Corner to Grand Falls in a day, and many other pedestrian feats hard to duplicate.

In the autumn of 1852 he was united in marriage to Bathsheba Parks, of White Settlement, Me., and raised a family of five children, Elbridge, of Saco Me., Pelissier, of Good Corner; Henry, of Jacksonville, Zephaniah, Presque Isle, Maine, and Mrs. C. E. Stephenson of Florenceville all of whom survive him. The funeral was held from his son's home in Jacksonville, Thursday afternoon, 13th inst., Rev. Fenwick officiating, funeral services being held at the Carvell church and interment being made in the cemetery of that place beside his wife who has predeceased him nearly fourteen years. Official word was received here on Thursday that Harry Allan Jackson, son of D. W. Jackson, bridge inspector for the provincial government, had given his life in the interests of his country and home.

Harry was born at Upper Woodstock 20 years ago, and was one year old when his mother died. When the war broke out, his eldest brother, Myles, enlisted in Digby, N. S., and Harry was anxious to go with his brother. Upon arriving at Digby he learned from his brother that he would not be accepted without his father's consent as he was under age. He wrote to his father asking for his consent, which if not obtained, would necessitate him telling an untruth as to his correct age, which he did not like to do. His father seeing the lad's anxiety to go, willingly gave his consent, and said he was proud of the action he (Harry) was taking.

Harry then enlisted with his brother's regiment on April 15th, 1915, in Digby, N. S., in the 4th Batt. He was in a draft to reinforce the First Contingent, and went overseas in June, 1915. On the 28th August, 1915 he went to France and was attached to the 13th Royal Canadian Highlanders, and was killed in action on June 27th, 1916.
