

THE DISPATCH

VOL XXIII

WOODSTOCK, N. B., WEDNESDAY, June 21, 1916.

No. 3

The JOHN McLAUCHLAN Co. Ltd

UP-TO-DATE

Clothiers

Hatters

Furnishers

Woodstock and Hartland

When YOU are in need of Printing
Try
The Dispatch Job Printing Dept.

First-Class Work
Prompt Delivery
Reasonable Rates

Private Clare Kirkpatrick

A telegram was received Saturday telling of the death in battle of Clare Kirkpatrick. The young hero was 17 years of age, born in Woodstock, the second son of Dr. E. S. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, formerly of this town and now living in Creelman, Sask., where Clarence enlisted and went to England about a year ago.

John McLellan

The death of John McLellan occurred at his home, Richmond Corner N. B. on the morning of May 28, after a lengthy illness. Mr. McLellan, who was in his sixty ninth year, was an esteemed and well known resident of Richmond, where he had resided all his life. He is survived by a sorrowing widow, two sons, Earle J. and Guy J. both residing in Richmond and two daughters, Mrs. F. G. Purrington of Richmond and Mrs. Lee McLellan of Oakville. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, from his residence. The service was conducted by Rev. R. J. Miller and interment took place in the Presbyterian cemetery at McKenzie Corner.

BORN

LEIGHTON—Born on Sunday, June 4th, to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leighton, of Inches Ridge, a daughter.
KENNEDY—At Centreville June 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Kennedy, a daughter, Mary Agnes.

MARRIED

TOMPKINS-BRAGDON—At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Woodstock, June 7th, by Rev. H. S. Dow, Osborne Tompkins, of Southampton, to Gertrude Bragdon of Hartfield, York County.
SPRAGUE—At the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday afternoon June 21st at 4 o'clock, by the Rev. Samuel Howard, Ernest Ross, of Cabano, Que., and Miss Mary Sprague, third daughter of Dr. T. F. Sprague and Mrs. Sprague.

FLORENCEVILLE

Rev. E. C. Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins spent Sunday in St. John.

Miss Jennie Alward spent the week-end at Bath the guest of her sister Mrs. Stanley Barker.

Mrs. R. L. Hetherington, left on Thursday for Regina, to attend a convention of the W. C. T. U.

Mr. Chas. Boyer Sr., who has been in the Fisher Memorial Hospital for several weeks, has returned to his home much improved in health.

A Missionary Concert was held in the Baptist Church Sunday p. m. a good attendance for a rainy day. An interesting program was rendered. The offering amounted to $5.12.

NO MEDICINE AS GOOD FOR LITTLE ONES

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else. The first few doses make her realize there is nothing to equal them in making baby well and keeping him well. Concerning Mrs. C. E. Stilwell, Winthrop, Sask., writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past ten years and have found them so good for my little ones that I always keep a box in the house." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Master Orville Dalling of Orono, Me. is visiting his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Dalling.
Mr. Walter Hay is visiting his son, Wm S. Hay at Griswold, Me.

Brown Perrigo

A quiet wedding took place at the Church of St James the Apostle at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon June 10th when Miss Ethel Perrigo, youngest daughter of Dr. James Perrigo and Mrs. Perrigo was married to Lieut E. Carleton Brown younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson Brown. The Right Rev. J. C. Farthing performed the ceremony assisted by the Rev. F. Elliot Baker, and Miss Dorothy Lucas played a violin solo. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a navy blue cloth travelling costume with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Mable Perrigo who was her sister's only bridesmaid, wore a gray taffeta suit with hat of black tulle, and carried pink roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. Tom Drummond was best man. Lieut John Perrigo, brother of the bride, arrived from the Stanley Barracks, Toronto, to attend the wedding. Immediately after the ceremony Lieut Brown and his bride left to spend a few days in Ottawa before going to Woodstock, N. B.—Montreal Star, June 10th.

Tye-Jonah.

St. Luke's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday evening, when Miss Imogene Jonah, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Jonah of Sussex, became the bride of Sgt. Major John Tye of "D" Company, 104th Battalion. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. Hazel. The bride who looked very lovely, was gowned in white, silk and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses, was brought in and given in marriage by her father, Judge Jonah. Miss Grace Jones who acted as bridesmaid, wore a gown of blue satin with blue hat. Lieut. Carleton Brown officer of transport and supplies, officiated as groomsmen. The men of the 65th Battery acted as guard of honor. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Hon. W. P. Jones and Mrs. Jones. The honeymoon will be spent at Skiff Lake.

Adams Tracey

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, Glassville, Carleton Co. on Wednesday afternoon, 7th June, the marriage of Mr. John Edmond Adams, fifth son of Mr. Adams and Miss Annie Tracey, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Tracey, took place in the presence of a large circle of relatives and friends. Miss Viola Greer played the wedding march, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Colhoun, Glassville. Thereafter the newly married pair received the congratulations of their friends. The bridegroom was supported by his youngest brother Albert R. Adams who is a private in the 104th Canadian Light Infantry, and the bridesmaid was Miss Florence P. Tracey, younger sister of the bride. Before separating the guests enjoyed the lavish hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. G. Adams. Amongst the many useful and beautiful presents was an organ presented by the bride's father, while to the bridegroom his parents gave a substantial cheque. The bride was becomingly gowned in white silk with shadow lace over and was adorned with bridal veil and apple blossoms.

Flewelling-Flewelling

A very interesting event took place this (Tuesday) morning at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo Flewelling, when their youngest daughter, Robena Merrilla, was united in marriage to Frederic Roy, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Flewelling of Lower Southampton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Samuel Howard, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride was attired in her travelling suit of navy blue serge. After the wedding breakfast was served Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling left by the Valley train for a three weeks trip to Fredricton, St. John, Oak Point and Chipman. On their return they will reside at Lower Southampton. Both bride and groom have hosts of friends in this town and vicinity who join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

CENTREVILLE,

The Parish of Wilmot Sunday School Convention will be held at Avondale on Thursday the 29th (inst). It is expected that delegates from each school in the parish will be present. Speakers are engaged who have made the work a study and a very interesting time is anticipated.

Rev. Mr. Johnston, of Centreville is holding special services at Bloomfield with prospects of a good work being done.

After making a number of tests it has been decided to move the Lime rock Crusher to the farm of Leonard Margison, where the rock tests carry something over eighty per cent in pure Lime.

The season at present seems very favorable for the growth of all kinds of crops and the grass crop seems to be much better than in ordinary seasons.

Road making machines are at work along the Highways and in some places the roads are being made narrower which by the Autoist is considered a fault.

Kennedy & McDonald are moving their road building machines and carts to the line of their contract below Gagetown.

Lewis Baldwin who was operated on a few days ago at the Mars Hill Hospital is at home again and is rapidly improving in health and will likely accept the Principalship of the Centreville Superior School.

Mr. William Kirk has taken a contract to finish the buildings owned by Mr. John Cormier.

Customs officials paid a visit to this place last week but were well satisfied that the people here were Law abiding in their way.

KIRKLAND

June 16, 1916.

We are having pleasant weather at present, the roads are in a very good condition since the new Commissioner is in office.

Mrs. Albert Dickinson and her children, Ronald and Dorothy, also her little sister, Ella are on a few days visit to Monticello Me.

Mrs. Ziba Gray, from Pembroke has been visiting her brother, Albert Dickson and other relatives in this place.

Mr. James McKinley from Woodstock visited his daughter, Mrs. Edgar Carter.

Mrs. Leslie Graham was on a business trip to Woodstock, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bustard have gone for an auto ride to Forest City.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyer passed through this place in an auto on their way to Danforth Me.

Christie the youngest daughter of Mrs. Margaret Mushroo was married to John Moore of Amity on June 15 they were serenaded in the evening at the bride's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Con. Mack made a trip to DeBec, also to Canterbury Station. Frank Mills organizer for the C. O. F. was in this place recently, a meeting was held at Elmwood where several members were taken into the Court.

Miss Myrtle Carter a former resident of this place was married to Fred Ford of Lawrence Mass., on June 5.

Mrs. John Murphy and two children, Elmer and Wilbur from Canterbury Station visited friends in this place a few days since.

Mrs. Janet Graham of Maxwell is on a visit to Portland Me.

Mrs. C. T. Phillips

(Hartland Observer.)

The death occurred on Tuesday morning, June 20, of Georgia Doucett, widow of the Rev. Dr. C. T. Phillips who died five years ago. Mrs. Phillips was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Margison, at Presque Isle, when a week before her death she was stricken with paralysis from which she never rallied. She leaves four daughters: Misses Kate, Mabel and Maude of Fort Fairfield, and Mrs. Margison of Presque Isle.

The body will be brought to Woodstock on Wednesday and the funeral will be held there Thursday at 2.30 from the United Baptist church. The remains will be laid beside those of her husband at Upper Woodstock.

Mrs. Phillips was born at Deer Island about 70 years ago, the daughter of a Free Baptist minister, Rev. Cyrille Doucett. She leaves three brothers, Henry N. and J. Walter Doucett of Knowlesville and Leonard Doucett in Saskatchewan. Mrs. C. A. Lawin of Benton is a sister and the first Mrs. D. McLeod Vince was also a sister.

The deceased had many friends, particularly in Woodstock, Hartland, Jacksonville, St. John and Sussex, in each of which places her husband served long pastorates.

BATH, N. B.

June 17th, 1916.

There are considerable activity in the building business here at the present time.

Messrs Bohan Bros. are building a large new two story warehouse on the site of the old turning table near the C. P. R. upper crossing.

Arthur Drost has his new dwelling house well underway with the outside about completed.

T. H. Frauley of New Port Rhode Island has purchased a lot for a warehouse from the north end of Chas. McLaughlan lot and has begun building operations on same for his business.

Dr. H. W. Peppers of Centreville and A. R. Foster of Middle Simonds were here to-day.

Mrs. J. R. H. Simms of this place received for the first time since her marriage on Wednesday afternoon last at her home and had a large number of callers.

She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. C. W. Parlee while Mrs. John Ryan and Mrs. Wm. Martin poured tea and coffee. The young ladies assisting were Miss Grace Stapleford, Ella Kearney and Miss Ella Giberson and Miss Mary Parlee attended the door.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Simms entertained the children of this place on their lawn when cake and ice cream were served, when a very enjoyable evening was spent by the children.

Rev. Mr. Henderson is still conducting his special services in the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Carleton Brown received for the first time since her marriage on Tuesday afternoon. She wore Belgian blue silk with blue chiffon overdress. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. A. B. Cornell who wore a gown of blue silk. Mrs. C. H. F. Perkins, poured tea and Mrs. T. C. L. Ketchum coffee. Mrs. Perkins wore a dress of Grey silk poplin and Mrs. Ketchum wore white.

The young ladies who served were Misses Elizabeth Ketchum, Gladys Smith and Lucy Jarvis, Miss Ketchum wore pale pink Crepe de Chine, Miss Smith Blue silk and Miss Jarvis White net. The dining table was decorated with pink roses.