Rally Day.

The rally day for the Methodist Sunday School was held in the church on Sunday evening under the direction of A. W. Hay, superintendent of the school, assisted by the teachers. The school assembled in full force and rendered a well arranged program of choruses and readings, etc. The choir gave very acceptable service under the able leadership of Mrs. R. E. Holyoke. The Sunday School is flourishing and the teachers and scholars take great interest in the work.

Beatrice Aintworth

Some three weeks ago Miss Beatrice Aintworth came to Centreville the guest of her aunt Mrs. E. L. West. While here she contracted whooping cough which developed into bronchial trouble. She was attended professionally by Dr. F. M. Brown. On Saturday Sept. 30th she passed away. Service at house conducted by Rev. Messrs Hurlow and Johnson. Interment was at Greenfield where service at grave was conducted by Rev. H. H. Hopkins of Andover. Many floral offerings showed the esteem in which the young lady was held. Much sympathy is extended to the father and brothers who survive the departed one.

Red Cross Work

The Lindsay Red Cross Society sent 50 Christmas stockings, 1 doz. bandages, 1 doz. pair socks, 5 bed shirts, 1 pair towels, 9 cakes toilet soap, to the wounded Canadian soldiers. MRS. D. L. GRAY, Pres. MISS PEARLE CHENEY, Sec.

Inspector F. B. Meagher is in town this week.

Mr. J. Hollis Lindsay, of Houlton, is in town, visiting his parents.

Miss Gertrude Courtney trained nurse of Hartford Conn., is the guest of her sister Mrs. Owen Kelly.

Dr. T. F. Sprague and Miss Jean Sprague spent the week-end in Cabano the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day it is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Emery-Mills

Married at Tracy's Mills, N. B. Oct. 2nd, 1916, Clarence Lee Emery of Centreville, N. B. and Daisy Leola Mills of Houlton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. J. Hurlow, and Mrs. Hurlow played the wedding march. The bride was prettily gowned in cream silk. They will reside at Centreville, N. B. where Mr. Emery owns a fine farm. The best wishes of their many friends are extended for a long and happy wedded life.—Houlton Pioneer.

Report of the District Convention of the W. M. S.

The Annual Convention for the Woodstock District of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met on Wednesday October 11th in the Methodist Church, Woodstock.

The morning session opened at ten o'clock with Mrs. Corbett, District Organizer, in charge; it was devoted chiefly to the reports from the different societies. At the close of the session the Quiet Half Hour was conducted by Mrs. Smith, Williamstown.

The afternoon session opened with the Quiet Half Hour led by Mrs. Gough, Jacksonville. Mrs. Billings, Elmwood, read a paper on "The Use and Abuse of Mite-Boxes". Another paper "How to Arouse a Sleeping Auxiliary" was also read and discussed, Mrs. Corbett then gave a few hints gathered at Branch.

A public meeting was held in the evening. The Address of Welcome was given by Mrs. London and replied to by Miss Strong, Lindsay. Mrs. Gough gave a very interesting talk on the Mission Fields. A paper "By-Products of Missions" was read. During the meeting two solos and two readings were given. The choir also rendered a selection after which the young ladies of the Woodstock Mission Circle introduced us to the "Palm Branch" in the form of an exercise. The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. S. Howard.

BORN

STOKES—Montreal, at 278 Pine Avenue, Sept. 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Stokes, a son.

Mrs. A. W. Phillips of Bristol and Mrs. E. A. Roberts of Belfast Maine, are guests of their brother H. G. Noble.

BATH, N. B.

Oct. 16th, 1916.

The farmers are all busy hauling in to the Ry. Station, their crops of turnips, never before in the History of New Brunswick, have that farm product brought the price paid to do and this is only a sample of many things the farmers have to offer for sale, such as eggs, butter and meat the prices were never higher.

Rev. Dr. R. Heine the Bible Missionary of St. John delivered a very interesting discourse here on Sabbath afternoon, Dr. Heine is always a welcome visitor here.

Mrs. Gideon Tracey, formerly of Hartland, but who has been spending some time late years at California and Boston has been visiting relative here during the past week.

Wm. Martin is at home for a few days, from his work at Cape Britain.

Mr. John Hayes and Mr. Vanderstein, of this place are visiting Prince Edward Island at the present.

Miss M. Ethel Simms of this place is spending a few days with relatives at Houlton Me.

C. B. Furlong the accommodating manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here for the past two years has been removed to the management of the same Bank at East Florenceville, his place here is being temporarily filled by Mr. Hunter of Florenceville.

Maxwell-Newham

C. Herbert Maxwell of the Canadian immigration service, and Miss Florence Muriel Newham, youngest daughter of Archdeacon and Mrs. O. S. Newham, were united in marriage at Christ church, at 6 o'clock, Wednesday morning, Oct. 4, the bride's father, who is rector of the church, performing the ceremony. The bride was very attractive and winsome in a handsome costume of white velour. She wore a hat of dark gray velvet with an ostrich feather rosette of navy blue. There were no attendants. The bride was given away by her brother, Godfrey P. Newham of Woodstock. The church was tastefully adorned with flowers by friends of the bride and the ceremony was witnessed by the immediate friends of the contracting parties. After partaking of a wedding breakfast at the Rectory the bride changed her wedding gown for a traveling costume a navy blue broadcloth and the happy couple motored to the C. P. R. station and left on a honeymoon trip without disclosing their destination. There were many handsome wedding gifts of silver and cut glass, and several checks for substantial sums. Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell returned home Monday and are residing on Armstrong Street. Congratulations are extended by a host of border friends.

Mrs. Chester O. MacDonald entertained very delightfully on Wednesday afternoon. The guests were, Mrs. T. S. Duncan, Miss Hume, Mrs. R. B. Jones, Mrs. C. L. S. Raymond, Mrs. E. L. Day, Mrs. W. Jack Dibblee, Mrs. Donald Munro, Mrs. Thane M. Jones, Mrs. F. H. J. Dibblee, Mrs. W. W. Hay, Mrs. James A. Gibson, Mrs. T. A. Lindsay, Mrs. I. B. Merriman. Mrs. MacDonald was assisted in serving by Mrs. G. W. Gibson and Mrs. George Mitchell.

Mrs. A. E. Matthewson, of The Daily Gleaner, Fredericton, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wiley Jacksonville, for the past few days. She is spending this week in town in the interests of her paper.
