

THE DISPATCH

VOL XXII

WOODSTOCK, N. B. WEDNESDAY, Feb 2, 1916

No 33

The JOHN McLAUGHLAN Co. Ltd

UP-TO-DATE

Clothiers

Hatters

Furnishers

Woodstock and Hartland

When YOU are in need of Printing
Try
The Dispatch Job Printing Dept.

First-Class Work
Prompt Delivery
Reasonable Rates

UPPER KINTORE

Jan. 27th, 1916.

The celebration of Robert Burn's birthday was held at the Upper Kintore hall on Monday evening of this week.

Only a few of the old Scots were in attendance, as time has been gradually thinning out their ranks, so that they are not so numerous in this colony as they were forty odd years ago. A very mixed gathering was in attendance. A very mixed programme was served out to them.

There were some very pretty musical selections given by the children under the leadership of Miss Barclay.

The entertainment was interrupted to some little extent by the workings of the "Barley Bree."

John Barleycorn is a very convivial fellow whither he is at a Christmas tree or a Burns night, sometimes he does not consider that at least some of the audience would like to hear the children sing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon and families, also Alex Milne, (all of whom left this place some years ago to raise wheat etc, in the wild and woolly northwest) have been very pleasant visitors among their relatives and friends in the settlement.

Wm Christie has been suffering from a severe attack of La Grippe.

Uncle Bill Philip has been laid up for some time with broken ribs.

Nearly all of the men are busy getting lumber, while the women are busy all their spare time at Red Cross work.

Some fourteen dollars, which was collected at the Hall door Burn's night less expenses, will be given to the Red Cross.

WINTER HARD ON BABY

The winter season is a hard one on the baby. He is more or less confined to stuffy, badly ventilated rooms. It is so often stormy that the mother does not get him out in the fresh air as often as she should. He catches colds which racks his little system; his stomach and bowels get out of order and he becomes peevish and cross. To guard against this the mother should keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house. They regulate the stomach and bowels and break up colds. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The D. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Paul Jones Shaw

Died at Butte, Montana on Jan 25th Paul Jones Shaw, a native of Victoria Corner, N. B., leaving a wife (nee Helen F. Jordan) and three children—Edith, Jordan, Leslie, to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father. Burial took place in Butte Jan 28th.

Mr Benjamin F Clarke

On Monday, Jan. 24th at his home 94 Kenwood Street, Dorchester Mass., Mr. Benjamin F. Clarke, a former resident of Woodstock, passed away after a month's illness. Mr. Clarke was born in Jerusalem, Queens Co., and prior to the removal of the family to Dorchester, they resided for about twenty five years in Woodstock.

He was a prominent member of the Free Baptist church and always stood for the best life of the community.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. A. Rideout assisted by Rev's de Pierce and Vallas. The Schubert Male Quartette rendered appropriate selections. Many floral tributes evidenced the esteem in which he was held. Interment was made at Forest Hills. The deceased is survived by his widow, two sons Ernest and Eldon, and two daughters Miss Elva and Lulu all of whom reside in Dorchester.

Mrs Miles Clark

(The Hartland Observer)

On January 15, early in the day, Mrs Miles Clark was suddenly stricken with paralysis and through medical assistance was immediately available, nothing effective could be done and as a consequence during the evening of the same day death came to the sufferer. The community at large stunned by the news of the sudden sickness so closely followed by death and many sympathizing friends hastened to the stricken with proffered help and sympathy.

The deceased who was Miss Victoria M. Shaw, a daughter of the late Amos and Matilda Shaw, was a native of Wakefield and for the fifty six years of her life she lived in the district where she was born.

She married Miles A. Clark, the son of a neighbor, and to this union was born a son and daughter, both now married, Guy A. living on the homestead and Mrs Ray Ebbett living in Boston.

Mrs. Clark was widely and well known for the many motherly virtues and Christian principles that characterized her journey through the fifty odd years here.

In addition to the husband, Miles Clark, a son Guy Clark and daughter Mrs Ray Ebbett, there are left of immediate relatives one sister Mrs Marvin Shaw, Simonds, and three brothers: Tony of Spokane, Wash, and Emmerson of Lynn, Mass., and Murray of Simonds. The funeral services under the efficient conduct of C. M. Shaw, were held on Tuesday afternoon interment being made in the P. B. cemetery. Rev. Charles Orser conducted the services throughout and spoke from words found in 1 Cor. 15:49. Others who were present to add respectful tributes to the good woman who had gone were Rev's J. D. Wetmore, J. M. Mallory and Lie. A McLeans.

Beautiful and appropriate music was rendered by a sympathetic choir and the large attendance assisted strongly of the favorable sentiment of a wide community towards the subject of this sketch.

German Albatross Aeroplane Exhibition.

Parts of the German Albatross Aeroplane, including one of the propellers, which was brought in by the 1st Fd. Coy., Can. Engineers on Oct. 26th, 1915, will be on exhibition at the Y. M. C. A. Soldiers' Club room, Main St. Woodstock, N. B. All Saturday Feb. 19th. There will also be many other trophies which were picked up on the battle field in Belgium. In connection with the exhibit, there will be a sale of useful articles by the W. G. Circle of The King's Daughters.

Admission 25 cts, Children 10 cts. Proceeds for the Disabled Soldiers' Fund.

BATH, N. B.

January 31st, 1916.

We regret to report that Master Chipman Tompkins, eldest son of S. W. Tompkins, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Several of the young people of this place attended the Robert Burns celebration held at Lower Kintore last week.

Rev. Mr. Henderson of Mars Hill, Maine, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday evening.

The meeting of the Red Cross Society was held last week at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips.

The search for the Brown Tail Moth is being carried on here by the men appointed for the purpose.

The boys of the Senior Grades of the School have organized a Basket Ball Team and have played with the Florenceville School Team, and expect to have still more practise in the future.

CENTREVILLE, N. B.

Mrs. John Gulland

Mrs. John Gulland of this village passed away last Saturday night about nine o'clock.

Mrs. Gulland had been a great sufferer for a long time which she bore with the greatest Christian fortitude.

On Saturday evening, just one week before her death a number of her friends assembled at her home and held a cottage prayer and testimony service in which she heartily engaged, and knowing that her end was near she committed the keeping of the loved ones she was leaving to Him who had directed her way through life.

Rev. Mr. Johnston conducted funeral services at the home and in the Baptist Church.

Mr. Amos Gregg still continues in very poor health and is not likely to improve much as his lungs are so seriously affected.

The revival interest in the Baptist church still continues and a number have expressed their intention to be baptized in the near future.

Mrs. Katherine Bourne

Mrs. Katherine Bourne died Wednesday night in St. John after a long illness which she bore with Christian fortitude. She leaves her husband, T. Percy, with R. W. W. Frink, three sons, C. Chester of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Charles P. of the 55th Battalion, and Norman L. of the 125th here. Two brothers, D. L. Hutchinson of the meteorological bureau, and Norman Hutchinson of this city. Mr. Bourne is organist of St. Paul's church, St. John.—St. John Globe.

Percy Bourne is a brother of H. W. Bourne, town treasurer, Woodstock.

John Stewart Leighton

Though the death of John S. Leighton had been expected for the past few days by friends who knew that he was critically ill, still the announcement of his passing Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, created universal expressions of sorrow and regret. His death removes from the community a man who for years was prominent in the business life and development of the town and a citizen always keenly interested in the welfare of the people, a man highly esteemed and respected.

In his many years as registrar he was conscientious in the performance of his duties and faithful to the obligations that devolved upon him.

John Stewart Leighton was a native of Charlotte county, and Rolling Dam was his birthplace. He was born Nov. 8, 1835. His father, Jas. Leighton, was born in this province, his grandfather came from England.

Mr. Leighton received his education in a country school and for years was engaged in farming and lumbering. He spent some years in the parish of Richmond, this county, and was county councillor for four years. He settled in Woodstock in 1873 and was elected to the local legislature for Carleton in 1874 and re-elected in 1878 and again in 1882. He was an active and aggressive member and independent in his views. In politics he was a Liberal. In April, 1886, he was appointed Registrar, which office he held until his death. Mr. Leighton was a Blue Lodge Mason, an attendant of the Baptist church. In 1864 he was married to Amanda M. Collins of Charlotte county, who died in 1875 leaving six children: Sarah, wife of J. C. Bartley, K. C., Lucy C., Clara A., John S., jr. all of Woodstock; Wheeler L., of Boston, and Spurgeon, of New York. He also leaves one brother, Mr. James Leighton, of Boston.

Mr. Leighton was married again in 1889 to Rachael M. Mowatt, of Bayside Charlotte county, who survives him. One of the admirable characteristics of deceased was his devotion to the happiness and comfort of his family. He was a good neighbor and all who knew him respected him for his rugged honesty.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Service at the home was conducted by the Rev. F. L. Orchard, of the United Baptist church, of which deceased was a member, assisted by the Rev. Frank Bard, of St. Paul's church. A quartette composed of Mrs H. H. Lockwood, Mrs. R. E. Holyoke, Messrs H. H. Lockwood and Geo. Mitchell sang the hymns, "Lead Kindly Light"; "Asleep in Jesus"; and "Crossing the Bar." The members of Woodstock Lodge F. and A. M. attended the funeral and the Masonic Burial Service was read at the grave by Mr. John McLaughlan. Interment was in the family lot in the Methodist cemetery.

The pall bearers were Mr. John McLaughlan, Mr. W. B. Belyea, Col. F. H. J. Dibbee, Dr. P. T. Kierstead, Mr. A. B. Connell and Mr. Donald Munro. There were many beautiful floral offerings from members of the family and friends.

Mrs William S. Saunders

(Calgary Herald, Jan. 18.)

The death occurred to-day of Mrs. W. S. Saunders of 725 First street north-west, following an operation. Deceased was 53 years old and had resided in Calgary for the past 10 years. A very wide circle of friends of herself and the family will learn of her death with deep regret. She leaves a husband and five sons and two daughters. Three sons—H. B. Saunders, L. L. B., F. S. Saunders and M. S. Saunders reside in Calgary; Dr. W. E. Saunders of Blackia and E. G. Saunders now at the front. Both daughters are married. Mrs. A. D. Baker and Mrs. A. G. Neiman of Calgary.

Dr. I. F. Sprague attended a meeting of the Provincial Board of Health in Fredericton on Saturday.

Miss Mary Sprague returned from Fredericton last week where she was visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Richards.