CENTREVILLE, N. B.

The Annual Meeting of the United Baptist Church at this village was held on Tuesday evening of last week, and the reports submitted to the Meeting were very satisfactory. The year ended with an indebtedness of only twelve dollars against the church. Seventeen have been added to the Church during the year and two have died. The Sunday School is in a flourishing condition.

Lewis Baldwin who was taken to the Mars Hill Hospital a week ago last Sunday to be operated upon for Appendicitis is reported to be improving beyond the hope of even the Physicians who had charge of his case.

Among the visitors to the village who remained for the Church Services were Mr. J. B. Daggett, of the Agricultural Dept. Fredericton, Mr. David Alexander, Jacksontown, Mrs. Maggie Payson Boundary Line.

The farmers of this vicinity have decided to test the merits of the much talked of pulverized lime stone and the crusher will be in operation on the farm of Howard Stewart sometime during the present week. There is an abundance of the rock, easy to get, and of the best quality.

The heavy winds of a few days ago overturned a number of the sheds on the Agricultural grounds.

The spring seeding is now principally done a small amount of that work yet remaining.
