AN EXCELLENT REMEDY FOR THE CHILDREN

Mrs. Laura Jackson, Brantford, Ont., writes: "I have found Baby's Own Tablets such an excellent remedy for children that I have no hesitation in recommending them to all mothers." Thousands of mothers say the same thing concerning the Tablets. Once a mother has used them she would use nothing else. They are for sale at all druggists or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Charles B. Snow

The many friends of Mr. Charles B. Snow will regret to hear of his death which took place on Wednesday afternoon, February 23rd, after a short illness of pneumonia. The late Mr. Snow was a life long resident of Woodstock, except for a short time, when he conducted a general store at Rockland. He afterwards opened a grocery store in town and continued in business until about five years ago. He was possessed of a kindly nature and pleasing personality and held the esteem of a large circle of friends. His whole career was singularly honorable, and he had in exceptional degree the regard of those who knew him best. His loss will be keenly felt by his widow who has been in poor health for several years, and the members of his family, by whom he was greatly beloved. He was in his 71st year, and is survived by a widow, four daughters, Mrs. H. G. Noble, Mrs. F. E. Smith, Miss Florence of Woodstock; Mrs. Wm. Duncan of Victoria, B. C. and one son, Roy, of the 4th Battery, 1st Brigade, 1st contingent, now in France. The funeral was held from his late residence on Friday afternoon, the Rev. F. L. Orchard officiating, assisted by Revs. W. B. Wiggins and H. J. Archer. The choir sang the hymns, "Asleep in Jesus," "Lead Kindly Light" and "Sun of My Soul". The pall bearers were John McLauchlan, W. B. Belyea, C. R. Watson and Theodore McKinney.

Mr Edward True

The funeral of Mr. Edward True was held on Wednesday, Feb. 23rd at 2.30 o'clock, and was largely attended. The service was conducted at the home by the Rev. F. L. Orchard. The choir of the United Baptist Church sang the hymns, "Asleep in Jesus", "Sun of My Soul" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus". Interment was in the Methodist Cemetery. The pall bearers were H. E. Burt, C. R. Watson, F. L. Atherton and Byron Robinson.

Mrs. Alexander Carson

The friends of Mrs. Alexander Carson, will regret to learn of her death, which took place at her home on Monday afternoon Feb. 28 after a long illness. Mrs. Carson would have been 72 years old on Sunday, March 5th. She leaves to mourn their loss, one son Frederick and two daughters, Misses Euphemia and Clara all of Woodstock; also three brothers, Alexander Kirkpatrick, of Elmwood, James of Union Corner and Thomas of Minnesota. Mrs. Carson was a member of the Methodist church for many years. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, service being conducted at the home by the Rev. Samuel Howard. The choir of the Methodist church sang the hymns, "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The remains were taken to McKenzie Corner for interment in the family lot, the service being conducted by the Rev. H. G. Smith. The pall bearers were C. L. Smith, Henry Blackmore, W. V. Benn and A. S. Benn.

Mrs John Ferguson

Mrs. John Ferguson formerly of Fredericton died suddenly at St. John on Monday evening as the result of an attack of heart trouble. For several years past she had been residing with her daughter, Mrs. Harry E. Curry, of Woodstock, but had lately been visiting an other daughter, Mrs. Murray Baily, at St. John, and it was while with her that she was stricken with her sudden and fatal illness. The late Mrs. Ferguson, who was 72 years old was formerly a Miss Simmons and besides her two daughters is survived by one son, Mr. George H. Ferguson, of Vancouver B. C., formerly a representative in the West of the Hartt Boot and Shoe Company and now with Clark Brothers, St. Stephen. Mr. Fred H. Ferguson, of this city, and Mr. S. Dew Simmons, of Gibson, are nephews of the deceased. The remains were taken to Woodstock Tuesday and the funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Harry E. Curry, Woodstock on Wednesday afternoon.—Gleaner.

Mrs. Saunders

Mrs. Saunders, widow of Mr. Owen Saunders, Grand Falls, whose death took place three weeks ago, died Sunday night, Feb. 27th.

WICKLOW

The many friends of T. H. Estey are very sorry to hear of his serious illness. His health has been poor for some time and he is now compelled to keep his bed.

Marion, the little daughter of C. R. Estey, is ill also.

Report says Frank W. Tweedie has purchased the farm of James McIsaac and will move there before long, Mr. McIsaac will return to Florcerceville it is understood.

Mrs. Armstrong, while visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Fulton, was stricken with paralysis and is in a critical condition.

Miss Helen Estabrooks was confined to the house with a cold last week.

Much sickness prevails notwithstanding the comparatively mild winter.

James McCain is in Mat-tawamkeag, having been called there by the recent death of his brother, John McCain.

Woodburn McIsaac and Donald Wheeler are in Woodstock, privates in D company, 104th battalion.

W. E. Kilpatrick's family was gladdened in January by the arrival of a baby girl.

A. A. Olmstead recently passed his ninetieth birthday and is very active for this advanced age.

CENTREVILLE, N. B.

Rev. Mr. Johnston administered the rite of Baptism to six young Ladies at the Centreville Baptist church last Sunday evening. Mr. Johnston will commence a series of meetings at Goods' Corner on Thursday evening March 2nd. It is expected he will be assisted by Mr. Grant of the Chicago Bible School.

Report says that Mr. Vail, who sold out and went West last spring has tired of the Western Country and is now on his way to his home land again.

There is nothing doing in the potatoe business here now and the probabilities are not strong that will reach the $3.00 mark again this spring.

There is not much hay moving, but oats are in good demand. John Gilland is improving a little but complete rest is necessary to any permanent improvement.

The Centreville Dramatic Club are strongly urged to put their play on again in the near future.

Memorial Window

A beautiful Memorial Window has been given to St. Paul's church by Dr. W. D. Rankin and Miss Rankin in memory of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rankin and their sister Miss Catherine Rankin. It is a representation of Holman Hunt's "Light of the World."

Mrs. H. S. Burt and son Paul spent last Wednesday in Centreville with Mrs. Burt's mother, Mrs. C. A. West.
