By request of many of his old patients Dr. Manzer has decided to open a Dental office for a short time at his residence Chapel street opposite the Armoury. Dr. Manzer has one of the best equipped and most modern offices to be found in the Maritime Provinces. Office on the ground floor so you will have no stairs to climb which many patients object to.

Dr. Manzer specializes in all diseases of the mouth and jaws.

Patients desirous of having any Dental work done should make an appointment at once. Painless extracting, Artificial Teeth, Gold and all kinds of fillings, Crown and Bridge work. Gas and Ether administered.

It has always been my aim, to give my patients the best of everything. The best materials in their work and the most modern appliances to operate with. It hurts more to have good work done than poor, but it is better to have your fillings put in so they will not fall out and then it is done for good. Be merciful where you can but just always When work is poorly done a Dentist is neither merciful nor just as the patient has to go all through the trial of having it done over again.

Make appointments by phone 19-11 by mail or at my office.

Mayor's Banquet

His department spent more money than any other branch with the exception of the waterworks department. The streets in this town were at least as good if not better than any town of its size in the Maritime Provinces; the sidewalks were not as good as they might be. He went over his appropriation slightly, but the work done was necessary, and much more work could be done profitably if the money had been available. Every bill had been paid and the chairman who takes his department will commence without owing one dollar.

Coun. Noddin said that he had been a candidate last year because he did not like the way things had been run. He was certainly pleased with the way the retiring Council had conducted business during the year, and with the good work of the different officials. He had charge of the Poor Farm and had given much attention to his duties, coming through under his appropriation, although he had paid a large number of old bills coming from other Councils. He was surprised that the County Council had not established a poor farm many years ago. They would save money by doing so, and the poor people would be better fed and better clothed. He knew of cases in different parishes where the commissioners were paying weekly $5 each for the care of poor people and the common charge is $3 a week. He had clothed and fed the poor people at the farm at a good deal less than $3 a week; in fact it cost $1.57 for each inmate a week.

J. C. Hartley, the town clerk and solicitor, in responding to the toast to the officials of the town, said that he had attended many banquets given by the different mayors, but none of the former Councils presented a better showing than the present one. Referring to the question of an assessment by the town for Patriotic purposes he said he was not in sympathy with such assessment this year. The people of the town were already paying the sum agreed upon to pay for the Patriotic Fund, and there were some $3000 of that amount yet unpaid. Have a special collector wait upon the people of the town and collect that amount; make an effort to collect more money from the country districts, where over one half of the Patriotic Fund is being distributed; and with a great of one or two thousands from the County Council, of which amount Woodstock will pay one-seventh, the total would be sufficient to carry on the grants for the coming year, without any direct grant from the Town Council. It must be remembered that although over half of the money paid by the local Patriotic Fund went to the families outside of town, the only monies coming in to the fund from points outside the town were the County Council grant of $600 and $136 from other sections of the county. Some of this burden should be removed from the people of the town during the present year.

MONDAY NIGHT.

The Council met on Monday evening, January 3, present Mayor Sutton and all the members of the board.

The Town Treasurer's report showed a credit balance at the Bank of Montreal of $5501.84. Referred.

Magistrate Holyoke presented his report for the last three months. Referred.

Inspector Colpitts rendered his report for the year 1915. Referred.

Adjourned until Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Council met at 8 p. m. Present Mayor Sutton and a full board.

On motion the bills were considered and orders were drawn on Treasurer for respective amounts.

Douglas Stevens was heard before the board. He said that in June, 1911 when he was in the drug business but a short time, he was served with papers for violating the Scott Act. On the advice of his counsel, to save publicity, he admitted the offense and was fined. On the 9th December he was served with two first papers and later in the day he was served with second offence papers. His brother and partner was served with a warrant to appear as witness against him. It is well known that his firm supplies the Hospital with alcohol, wines, etc., besides he supplies several doctors throughout the county, and it would be impossible for his brother to go on the stand and swear that he did not supply such liquor, without a doctor's certificate. There was nothing to do but to plead guilty. The prosecution brought forward no witnesses, only the threat to make his brother give evidence. This is the only case on record where a partner has been called to convict his firm for a violation of the Scott Act.

Inspector Colpitts, who was heard before the board, said that he had not collected any Scott Act monies which duty was being performed by Magistrate Holyoke. He gave a full account of Scott Act matters during the year. He suggested that it would have been better to have had a committee wait upon him and things could have been explained better.

Magistrate Holyoke was present and while he suggested that the Council had no power to ask for his presence, he was perfectly willing to answer any questions that might be asked him. He had with him the necessary papers and he gave such information as was required—The number of the Scott Act convictions, the total fines paid and unpaid, who paid and who did not pay, etc. There was a discrepancy of $50 in the fines reported paid and which really had been paid, but which would be found correct on the proper book. He explained why all Scott Act fines were now being paid to the magistrate instead of the inspector, and showed that that was the method in vogue in other counties.

Mayor Sutton explained that although the bank showed a credit balance of $5500 at the end of December, this Council had decided to pay all bills for thirteen months. Counting all checks that had been issued and not called for, all salaries, and the bills going through this evening, there would be an overdraft of $38.65.

Voted that an order be drawn on treasurer in favor of C. H. Jackson, night watch, for $30, the amount that gentleman had paid for his uniform.
