Church Union Under Discussion

Montreal, June 12.—An effort to fuse the factions in the Presbyterian church on the subject of organic union with the Methodist and Congregational churches, was made at this morning's meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly at Arakine church. The assembly had before it a motion and two amendments regarding union which represented the opinions of the various conflicting elements in the church. The motion sought to have action put off till the end of the war, when union could be ratified with the consent of the assembly. This was the recommendation of the union committee and was sponsored by Sir Robert Falconer, Toronto, and Rev. Dr. Herridge, of Ottawa. The first amendment, fathered by Rev. Dr. Clay, Victoria, and Judge Farrell, Moosemin, Sask., asked for a referendum to whole church before union was introduced and also the disbanding of the union committee and anti-union propagandist associations. The second amendment, for which Rev. Dr. Dickie, Montreal, and Professor Jordan, Kingston, were responsible, demanded that nothing should be done till 1922.

On a motion by Rev. Dr. Fraser, Owen Sound, the assembly unanimously instructed the movers and seconders of the motions and amendments to meet as a committee and attempt to bring in a joint resolution, the idea being that if these parties can agree upon a policy it will be acceptable to the whole church.

After several speakers had discussed the union proposal the members of the committee appointed under Mr. Fraser's resolution met to try and frame a unanimous report.

The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mr Robert Johnston

Mr. Robert Johnston died at his home in DeBec on Thursday May 31, after a long illness aged 88 years and 11 months. They moved to Richmond, in 1845 where they were among the first settlers and where Mr. Johnston spent the remainder of his life. He was one of the prominent men of Richmond and a life long Presbyterian.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning June 2, at 10 o'clock. A prayer service was held at the home conducted by the Rev. R. J. Millar. The hymn "One By One" was sung; after which the remains were taken to the church at McKenzie Corner, where Mr. Millar preached from the text, "We all do fade as the leaf." The choir of the church sang the hymns "Asleep in Jesus," "It Is Not Death to Die," "Take Comfort Christians When Your Friend in Jesus Fall Asleep." Quantities of beautiful flowers were sent by relatives and friends. The pall bearers were Messrs Samuel Hemphill, Charles Blue, James Griffin and Jesse Knowlton. FRIDAY EVENING.

Council met at 8 p. m. Present, Mayor Burt and all the councillors, with the exception of Coun. Smith, who has been confined to the house with sickness during the past week.

Moved by Coun. Fewer, seconded by Coun. Fleming, that the sewer committee be instructed to repair the sewer near Mr. Bradley's store at once.

Carried.

The fact that the board of health had instructed that connections be made by a house on Main street to the sewers brought out some discussion. While the Council was anxious that all houses be connected with the sewers, some objection was made to this particular case as it meant that the permanent street would have to be torn up to do the work. The question was held over to allow the matter to be discussed with the board of health.

The bills coming from the audit committee and the salaries now due were ordered paid.

Some of the bills from the street committee met with hearty opposition. The superintendent of streets had agreed to pay the workmen $2.50 a day, but the chairman before he signed the bills cut the pay down to $2.25. The council felt like restoring the pay, but the matter was held over until the chairman was heard on the matter.

The inspector of the board of health will be notified that parties are making a dump of the town property near Bull's spring, and the chief of police was instructed to lay information against them if the inspector can secure the necessary evidence. It developed in the discussion that some Paris green was thrown in a dump which made its way into an adjoining field and was eaten by a cow owned by Wm. Oldham which caused her death.

Moved by Couns. Leighton and Stevens that the assessors be paid as follows: R. L. Allingham $200 and Geo. W. Jackson and P. Bradley $25 each.
