Miss Maude Smith was given a miscellaneous shower at the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. B. H. Smith on Saturday evening. The presents some of which were very beautiful and all of them very useful were put in a pretty decorated basket and were brought into the drawing room in a little express wagon also very tastefully decorated. After the contents had been duly examined the rest of the evening was spent with music and conversation, knitting was much in evidence. Dainty refreshments were served.

Capt. Karl Damon, C. O. D. C., went to St. John Monday morning on military business.
