Buttermaking on The Farm

In Bulletin No. 63 of the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa Mr. George H. Barr, Chief of the Dairy Division, in descriptive form deals with the process of buttermaking from the raw milk until it is ready for the market. He points out the defects sometimes found in dairy butter and explains how they are caused. He tells of the conditions that are necessary to produce fine-flavoured cream, of advisable methods in creaming and of the use of the separator. He gives statistical tables of results of separating at different temperatures and at variations of speed. He describes what is necessary to get rich cream and the manner in which it should be prepared for churning. He advises as to salting and working the butter and counsels as to the wisdom of care in packing and of using parchment paper of good quality. After passing reference to the regulations regarding the branding of butter, he concludes with some suggestions as to utensils and their care and the way to get the best results in farm dairy work. Blue prints of the plans given can be had from the Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner, Ottawa, and the bulletin itself can be had free, either in English or French, from the Commissioner or from the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Gone Before Me

My kind companion has gone on before me,
She was too good longer in this world to stay,
She is now singing her sweet songs in glory
And beckons me onward—how can I delay?

She kindly watched me in sickness and danger,
She persuaded me with her to pray,
She called up Heaven and said in the message,
Jesus forgive him and he will obey.

I told her then my soul was happy,
I would continue with her to pray,
One year later without any warning,
Her soul to Heaven was called away.

Deal gently dear Saviour, with my kind Ada,
Give her all Blessings heaven can bestow,
She is pleading with Jesus, my Soul is redeeming,
The feeling has truly a home loving glow.

Great God of Heaven, of earth and forever,
I thank thee for long happy life now passed,
And a few days to linger for my soul's redemption,
My prayer is to meet her in heaven at last.
