

1807
Index of Works

PEABODYS OVERALLS

PUT THEM TO THE TEST SHOWN HERE

THEY WILL STAND IT BECAUSE THEY ARE MADE TO WEAR

NOBODY BUYS OVERALLS TO PLAY TRICKS WITH THEM SUCH AS IS SHOWN IN THE PICTURE ABOVE, IN WHICH FOUR MEN EXERTED ALL THEIR STRENGTH IN THE EFFORT TO RIP A PAIR OF PEABODYS' OVERALLS;

BUT IF THEY WILL STAND THIS THEY WONT RIP UNDER THE HARDEST KIND OF LEGITIMATE WEAR.

WE ARE THE AGENTS OF PEABODYS'
GUARANTEED OVERALLS.

The John McLauchlan Co. Ltd

When YOU are in need of Printing
Try
The Dispatch Job Printing Dept.

First-Class Work
Prompt Delivery
Reasonable Rates

Mrs John Johnston

The death occurred, at Grafton on Wednesday morning, Sept. 26, of Mrs. John Johnston, aged 64 years. She is survived by one son Charles Johnston, of Pembroke and two daughters, Mrs. Ralph H. Sharp, of Campbellton and Miss Kate, of Pembroke, also one brother Mr. Zopher Phillips, of Upper Woodstock and one sister, Mrs. Charles Smith, of California. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon from the residence of Mr. F. S. Sharp, service being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kincaid, of Hartland. The pall bearers were four nephews, Messrs. Nathan Phillips, Henry Phillips, Bruce Phillips and Wendall Phillips, of Pembroke. The remains were taken to Pembroke for burial.

Jonas F. Kearney

Jonas F. Kearney, one of the few pioneers who helped to build up the district known as Beechwood, after a very brief illness, entered into rest on Sept. 17. Mr. Kearney was 85 years of age, and was the head of a numerous family. One sister and four brothers remain to mourn. He was the father of nine children. His children's children number 28. He also had twenty great grand children. Four grand-sons acted as pall-bearers.

The funeral was from the residence of his son, Eber Kearney, of Bath, with whom Mr. Kearney lived for the last seven years. Interment was in the family lot at Upper Kent, N. B.

The coffin was covered with flowers, and wreath, contributed by relations and friends of the deceased, as a token of their deep respect and regret for the loss of one who consistently endeavored to "follow the Light."

Rev. G. A. Giberson was the preacher, assisted by Rev. Mr. Howlett, pastor of the Bath United Baptist Church.

A PERFECT MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

Baby's Own Tablets are a perfect medicine for little ones. They regulate the bowels; sweeten the stomach thus drive out constipation, indigestion, break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. Concerning them Mrs. John Babineau, Brest, N. B., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets and have found them a perfect medicine for little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs. James Dugan

The death occurred in Boston on Sunday September 16, of Mrs. James Dugan, aged 82 years. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Irvine of Boston and one son, Coles W. Dugan of this town. The body was brought here on Saturday of last week, accompanied by her two grandsons George and James Irvine. The funeral was held on Saturday, conducted by Rev. Mr. J. E. Wilson. The pallbearers were Messrs. C. R. Watson, Cook Hall, F. L. Atherton and H. E. Burt.

Mr. W. M. Connell who spent the Summer in Washington D. C. has returned home.

Tapley-Dibblee

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Luke's Church on Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock, when Miss Ruth duVernet Dibblee, daughter of the late Mr. J. T. A. Dibblee and Mrs. Dibblee, was united in marriage with Lieut. John A. Tapley of St. John. The ceremony was performed by the Rector, Rev. A. S. Hazel. The church was very tastefully decorated for the occasion. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given in marriage by her brother Mr. W. Jack Dibblee, and wore a gown of brown cloth with brown hat and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Immediately after the ceremony Lieut. and Mrs. Tapley drove to the C. P. R. station and left for Halifax. Miss Dibblee was a social favorite and the good wishes of a host of friends follow her.

Loughrey-Harper

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chipman Tilley, Jacksonville, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Sept. 19th when their niece, Grace E. Harper of Woodstock was united in marriage to Lieut. Theodore A. Loughrey of London, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Tilley of Hillsboro. The bride was married in her travelling suit of African brown with satin hat to match and wore a corsage bouquet of yellow roses and maidenhair fern. The happy couple left on the evening train for Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and other places of interest.

The bride who is a trained nurse has served as a Red Cross nurse in England. The groom is an officer of the 3rd Ontario Regiment, C. E. F. He was wounded in the battle of Vimy Ridge and received a Military Cross. They will reside in London, Ont.

Grant-Kilpatrick

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Martha Kilpatrick, Greenfield, N. B., on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 19th, when her youngest daughter, Lulu Beatrice, was united in marriage to Wiley Grant, of Kilburn. Rev. Mr. Rigby officiated. At 4 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Jennie Kilpatrick, the bridal party entered the parlor by an aisle made with white ribbon and held by the Misses Nellie Kilpatrick and Mildred Baird. The bride, who was gowned in white crepe de chene trimmed with Georgette crepe and crystal beads, wore a veil and carried a bouquet of white asters and maiden hair fern. She was given away by her brother, Mr. Roy Kilpatrick, and was attended by her cousins, Miss Lottie Kilpatrick, as maid of honor, and Miss Wynna Golding, as bridesmaid, both being dressed in rose silk with bead trimmings. Little Martha Armstrong, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl and carried a basket of pink sweet peas. The groom was supported by his cousin, Murray Grant. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to about 80 guests. The bride and groom left for their home in Kilburn amid the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends. The bride was the recipient of many useful and costly presents.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church expect to give a concert in the church in the near future.

London-Raymond

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Raymond, Middle Simonds, on Tuesday afternoon when their only daughter, Mabel, was united in marriage with El Roy London, of Nanton, Alberta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Wetmore and the happy couple departed on the afternoon express for a honeymoon trip. They will return here before going to Alberta. The bride is a popular young lady and the groom is well known here, being a Woodstock boy.

Willard Hayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Hayden, returned on Wednesday from overseas, suffering from trench fever. He went over with the 9th Siege Battery, St. John.

Dr. David St. John

Dr. David St. John died on Friday morning, Sept. 14, in his boyhood home at West Berne, New York, to which place he was taken on the 27th July, following a prolonged illness at his Hackensack home, preceding which he was for a period under treatment at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, where he had the best medical and surgical skill of the country.

Dr. St. John was born in Berne, Albany county, N. Y., in 1850. His forefathers came from England in 1635; his mother was of Scotch descent. He studied for his profession in Albany and Buffalo Medical Colleges, and Bellevue Hospital Medical College, New York City, from which he graduated in 1875, after which he located in Hackensack, and remained there until his death.

In 1888 he interested a few leading citizens in the establishment of the Hackensack Hospital, which has become the most important institution in the town. For many years he was recognized as an authority on medical subjects. On March 26, 1915, he was the subject of a cordial tribute paid to him by the County Medical Society and officers of the State Medical Society. His life was a credit to the medical profession, which he adorned, and an honor to the community of which he was so important and valuable a member.

An admirer have said of him, "No Road was too long no night too dark for Dr. St. John to fail in answering a call. Dr. St. John was twice married. His first union was blessed with three children—Dr. Fordyce, now with the American service in France; Misses Alice and Florence. He is also survived by his second wife, who was Miss Vera, the eldest daughter of Wm. M. Connell of Woodstock, N. B. The funeral services were held on Sunday evening in the Second Reformed church, Chester E. Searle, organist of the church played a solemn chant preceding the ministers address. Rev. Arthur Johnson, D. D., pastor of the church, paid a brief but fitting tribute to his dead parishioner. The hymns sung were "America" and "Abide with me."

Interment was in Hackensack cemetery.

J. Fred Dickinson

J. Fred Dickinson died at his home, Broadway, on Sunday afternoon, after a lingering illness, aged 66 years. He leaves a widow, one son Frank in Ocean Park, Cal., two brothers, Charles and John of this town, one half-sister, Mrs. Woodbury Raymond of Tustan, California.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30, conducted by Elder Arthur Woodworth of Croaseville, Me.

The pall bearers were, Frederick Webber, Frederick Everett, Charles Hand and Herbert Holmes.

William J. Hamilton

Wm. J. Hamilton of Rosedale, this county, died on Thursday of heart trouble, after a lingering illness, aged 76 years.

He is survived by the widow, four sons, Charles, Claud and Harley at home, and Frank at a home of his own in Rosedale, three daughters, Helen, at home, Mrs. Allan Palmer of Rosedale and Mrs. Roy Melville of Lower Wakefield. Hugh Hamilton of this town is a brother.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. P. J. Quigg, and burial at the Waterville cemetery. The pall bearers were, Daniel Melville, Miles Clark, Frank Shaw and John Forne.

Word has been received that Robt. E. Mooers, Douglas Tompkins and Kenneth Morrison have each earned a lieutenancy. They have been in France almost since the beginning of the war and will make sterling young officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peters and son motored to Houlton on Saturday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Jackson. They went to Centreville on Sunday where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Hara. Mrs. Peters expects to visit friends in Royal on before returning home.

Kilpatrick-Ritchie

A very pleasant event took place at the parish Church of St. Barnabas, Greenfield, Carleton Co., on Wednesday, Sept. 19th, when Miss Edna J. Ritchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Ritchie, was united in marriage to J. Harry Kilpatrick, of Lower Greenfield. The ceremony was performed by the brother-in-law of the bride, the Rev. Thomas Parker, rector of Norton, N. B., in the presence of one hundred guests.

The bride, who entered the church leaning upon the arm of her father, looked charming in a white satin gown, and bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a white prayer book.

Miss Jennie Kilpatrick sister of the groom acted as bridesmaid, and was prettily gowned in navy blue silk, with georgette crepe trimmings, with hat to match.

Charles Caldwell supported the groom.

The wedding march was rendered by Miss Helen Ritchie.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's father.

The happy couple left by the C. P. R. express on a tour of the Maritime Provinces, after which they will reside at Lower Greenfield. The bride was the recipient of numerous costly presents, which show the esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends, all of whom wish her and her husband many happy years of married life.

WASHBURN, MAINE.

Farmers are pretty well along digging their potatoes and are getting a very light crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dow and son Jasper from Presque Isle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Tompkins on Sunday and Mr. Dow preached a very interesting sermon in the A. C. church in the afternoon.

Jerry Brewer, Washburn's policeman, died very suddenly Tuesday night.

Stuart Tompkins from East Hampton, Mass., is visiting his brother Nehemiah Tompkins and other relatives and friends.

Elder John Fox is home on his vacation from Aurora College and is holding meeting in different churches.

Mrs. James McMullin

Mrs. James McMullin passed away at Skiff Lake on Thursday, September 26th, 1917, in the 75th year of her age. Her husband had predeceased her nearly two years earlier. She was born in Bellville, N. B., her maiden name being Frances Cunningham. She is survived by two sons and four daughters. The sons are Fred, on the homestead and Thomas, a lieutenant in the Forestry Battalion now overseas. The daughters are the Misses Ella, Kate and Evelyn, and Mrs. Harry Dunbar of Woodstock, N. B. These sons and daughters fondly cherish the memory of a wise and loving mother.

The funeral services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. S. Howard, pastor of the Woodstock Methodist church. The large concourse of people present showed how highly she and her family were esteemed by the friends and neighbors. Her body was laid to rest beside that of her husband in the burial ground at Skiff Lake. "The memory of the just is blessed."