Edwin Lorne McKay and John Wilmot McKay

The home of Mr. Andrew McKay of Florenceville, N. B., has been doubly saddened in the past few days by death claiming his two oldest sons. About two weeks ago his eldest son Edwin Lorne, who lived on a farm a short distance from his father's home, was taken ill, his condition was not considered serious until Thursday morning June 14th. He was then taken to the Fisher Hospital at Woodstock where an operation was performed, but he passed away a short time after the operation. His body was brought by train to Florenceville on Friday, and taken to his father's home from which place the funeral was held on Saturday afternoon. He was thirty-five years of age and leaves a wife, formerly Miss Kelley of Kingston, York County, and four small children.

A few days previous to this John Wilmot, the second son who had been suffering for several weeks from internal cancer, went to Montreal for treatment, and on Friday the 19th inst., a telegram brought the sad news that he had passed away early that morning. His body arrived at Florenceville on Wednesday and was taken to his father's home. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon. He was thirty-three years of age and unmarried.

Both funerals were very largely attended and were conducted by Rev. M. H. Manuel. The bodies were taken to the family lot near the home, and laid to rest beside that of their mother who died less than two years ago.

Both were energetic and popular young men and great sympathy is felt for the bereaved families.

In addition to his father, nine members of the family survive, they are Harry of Foxfield Me., Barry of Knoxford N. B., and Charles and Andrew of Florenceville, N. B., and Misses Elizabeth and Mary at home.

Charles G. Wilson

On Sunday morning June 17th, Mr. Charles George Wilson passed away at his home in Argyle, N. B. Deceased was one of Glassville's pioneers. He was born in Aberdeen, Scotland on Sept. 3rd 1846. He came to Woodstock N. B. when thirteen years of age, and a year later moved to Glassville. A short time after that he went west where he spent a number of years. About forty years ago he married Miss Janet Thompson of Glassville, and settled in Argyle where he lived until his death. He had been in ill health for about two years, but until a few days before his death he was able to attend to his duties about the farm.

Mr. Wilson was well known throughout Carleton County, and was highly esteemed for his christian virtues of integrity, cheerfulness and hospitality. He was a member of the Presbyterian church in Glassville. He is survived by a widow, five sons James of Windsor N. B., Leslie of Divide N. B., John of British Columbia, Frank of Williston, N. Dakota, and Charles at home; six daughters Mrs. Wesley Bennett of Burn Me., Mrs. John Scott, East Knowlesville N. B., Mrs. Hughine Hills, Williston N. Dakota, Mrs. Wm. Hovey of Argyle, and Misses Katherine and Isabel at home; and one sister Mrs. James Anderson of East Glassville.

The funeral conducted by Rev. M. H. Manuel of Florenceville was held on Wednesday afternoon. After a brief service at the house a large cortege accompanied the remains to Glassville Presbyterian church, and after service there burial took place in the Presbyterian cemetery. Rev. Mr. Anthony of the Methodist Church assisted at the services.

Rev. W. E. and Mrs. Wiggins left on Monday morning's early train for Beulah camp grounds, to attend the yearly meeting of the Reformed Baptist denomination and convention. Mr. Wiggins will be absent until July 14th, and will supply his pulpit on Sunday July 15.

Mrs. John Glass, of Windsor, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Simms, has returned home.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

The semi-annual meeting of the Carleton County Council convened Tuesday, June 19th, at the court house. Warden Tracey presided.

Those present were:
Aberdeen—D. Lamont, Samuel Hemp-hill,
Brighton—Ed Morgan, Fred Smith,
Northampton—H. A. Phillips, Arthur Gibson,
Peel—E. W. Melville, Frank Tompkins,
Richmond—Alex Ball, Ezra Fleming,
Simonds—Odbur Stew,
Wicklow—Carey Estey, Rennie Tracey,
Wilmot—Harry Carvell, Wilford Anderson,
Kent—John Kinney, W. J. Gallagher,
Woodstock Parish—Robert Moxon,
Chas. Clark,
Wakefield—Wm. G. Kearney, Albert G. Bell,
Woodstock Town—Jas. W. Gallagher.

The session opened with singing of God Save The King. In a brief address, the warden said it was a pleasure to meet again with an unbroken circle. All eyes are turned on the great conflict now going on. Since our January meeting, many of our boys from Carleton County have been killed and wounded and he was sure the council extended sympathy to all their sorrowing relatives.

He would like to see party politics abandoned and all make an effort to win the war. It was time for everyone to realize the seriousness of the situation. Owing to not being well, the warden was obliged to curtail his remarks.

The minutes of the last session were read and with slight alterations, approved. Council adjourned till 1.30.

Council assembled at 2 o'clock, W. H. Jones, special auditor, submitted his report which was adopted.

Minutes being read from the special auditor's report.

Memorial Service For Charles Henry Bull

A beautiful and impressive memorial service was held Sunday evening in St. Luke's church to honor the memory of Charles Henry Bull, one of the finest types of Woodstock's young manhood who gave his life for the cause of humanity at Vimy Ridge April 9th. Appropriate music was rendered by the choir and the pastor, Rev. A. S. Hazel, paid a warm tribute to the bravery and self-sacrifice of the young hero, who is the fourth member of St. Luke's congregation to die on the field of honor. Mr. Hazel preaching from 2 Tim. II 12. "If we suffer we shall also reign with him." 1 Cor. XII 26. "And whether one member suffer all the members suffer with it," said in part:

"I have no doubt that at the last service of this nature held in this church many of you, like myself, thought of Charlie Bull about whom relatives were experiencing untold anxiety. You wondered if he was to be the next whose memory we would hallow and how after all those weeks of awful anxiety not un-mixed with hope we come to pay honour to him and to show our sympathy with his family and relatives. Perhaps we can think of few sadder cases than this, where they to whom he was so dear, have been kept in such awful uncertainty.

Again it is one of the well known families that has been stricken. His name carries us back to the time when our forefathers came into the wilderness to make for themselves a home where they might retain loyalty to their cause, while his mother's name reminds you of one who gave many years of loyal service to you and whose memory you gratefully cherish.

The spirit of self sacrifice descended in two streams upon Charlie Bull.

Again we think of one who regularly worshipped amongst us and was regular in his attendance at Holy Communion. He like those others had been baptized and confirmed in our church in this parish. He made his first communion here and his last when with the other members of his Battalion he knelt to receive it on last Easter morn knowing that something momentous would transpire on the morrow and that as the sacrifice commemorated the greatest sacrifice of all so too would they be called upon to render their lives in complete sacrifice for "The Cause."

Four branches of the service have been represented in these four memorials: The Mounted Rifles, The Flying Corps, The Artillery and now The Infantry and though Charlie Bull enlisted in one of our N. B. Battalions he died in the ranks of one of the historic Canadian Regiments, "The Royal Canadian." All four met a glorious death in different ways: James Allison Bull died in performance of his duty in trench warfare, Franklin Rankin died fighting in the air with that branch of the service which has performed so magnificently. James Ketchum received his mortal wound doing heroic work during one of German counter attacks, while Charles Bull was killed breasting the slopes of Vimy where the Canadians won impregnable renown, mounting the parapets to front the tempest of shot and shell, and his spirit going to meet the God of heroic men with others, likened in a lifetime, dying by the same shell.
