What Will Canada's Answer Be?

OVER in the sodden trenches amid the bursting shells and the roar of artillery where Canada's boys are fighting and dying.

—they are waiting for Canada's answer when the sale of Victory Bonds begins.

CANADA'S soldiers expect that we at home will put up the millions they need to keep on fighting,

—the millions they must have to win Victory for freedom, home and Canada.

What answer will Canada make?

What answer will you make?

Shall it be said that Canada spares not her sons from the sacrifice of battle, yet withholds her dollars to give them victory?

Rather will it be said that Canada once more, for the fourth time in three years, cheerfully puts up her millions upon millions for the cause of freedom, righteousness and justice.

Canada's answer must be,

—that the Canadian hand to the plow of Victory holds steadfast and firm.

—that Canada is in deadly earnest when she says the "last man and the last dollar."

That is the answer Canada will give to our boys in the trenches, our kinsmen in Britain, and our Allies everywhere.

That is the answer we will give to the Huns who thought and said that Canada would desert the Empire before she would fight or pay.

Every bond you buy is an answer. Let the millions of answers from Canada's loyal men and women make a chorus of Victory to ring around the world.

Mrs. Freeloove Gardiner

Mrs. Freeloove Gardiner (wife of Thes Gardiner deceased) of 830 East 4th St. Prince Albert Sask., died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Wm. McEwen East Knowlesville N. B., Oct. 26th, at the age of sixty nine years and nine months. She has been in poor health for several years and one year ago she came East to spend her last days with her only daughter. Her home was in Knowlesville before going to Prince Albert eighteen years ago. She is survived by four children and five grand children, Mrs. McEwen of Knowlesville, John and James of Oldbury Sask., and Ernest who went to France with the 53 Batt., also Mrs. Gilbert Nelson of Oldbury (an adopted daughter) the funeral was held at the Knowlesville Baptist Church conducted by the Rev. Wm. Crowell.

There is a Soft, a downy bed;
'Tis fair as breath of even;
A couch for weary mortals spread;
Where they may rest the aching head,
And find repose—in Heaven.

Past masters night was held by Woodstock Lodge F. & A. M., on Thursday last. All the offices were filled by the Past masters of the Lodge. Four candidates were given the M. M. degree. After the Lodge closed refreshments were served. There was an unusually large attendance of the brethren.

Rev. Francis Bradley of Florenceville, Carleton county, left recently for Montreal where he will consult a specialist. For the past six weeks Father Bradley has been a patient at the St. John infirmary.

Brown-Jones

On Monday morning, Nov. 5th, a pretty wedding was solemnized in the United Baptist Church, at 6 a. m. by the Rev. J. E. Wilson, when Irma Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jones, Albert street, was united in marriage to J. F. Leigh Brown, M. D. C. M., L. M., C. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown of Middle Southampton.

The bridal party entered the church as the choir sang, "O Perfect Love." The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was becomingly attired in a suit of Russian green broadcloth, with wolf furs and black picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

Mr. Fred M. Grant acted as usher for the guests, while, during the ceremony, Miss Eva C. Brewer, of Fredericton, rendered the solo, "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" in a very pleasing manner. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party left the church and repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where breakfast was served. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, showing the high esteem in which she was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the 7.10 train for Montreal, where the Doctor will resume his practice. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown, Misses Calia and Flora Brown of Southampton, Mr. and Mrs. T. Murchie, St. Stephen, and Miss Eva C. Brewer, Fredericton.

RITCHIE-WETMORE

A wedding of much interest was solemnized at the residence of Hon. W. P. Jones and Mrs. Jones, on Saturday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, Nov. 3rd when their eldest daughter, Mrs. Gertrude R. Wetmore was united in marriage to Lieut. Harold H. Ritchie, of the 65th Battery C. F. A., formerly of Newcastle. The ceremony took place in the drawing room, which was decorated with cut flowers, ferns and palms, Rev. A. S. Hazel, rector of St. Luke's church, officiated. The bride, who looked lovely in a gown of taupe broad cloth, with black fox furs, a purple velvet hat, and carried a shower bouquet of roses, was brought in and given in marriage by her father. Only the immediate relatives of the family and Major Evans, Major B. M. Hay, Lieut. George Lutz, Lieut. Wm A. Ross, Lieut. McKenzie, Lieut. Coll, Lieut. Tingley were present. Lieut. Ritchie and Mrs. Ritchie left on the evening express for a short trip. Lieut. Ritchie is leaving for overseas very shortly. The best wishes a host of friends are extended the bride and groom.
