J. S. Merrithew

In the death of J. S. Merrithew, which occurred on Thursday, Richmond lost one of her most prominent citizens. He was noted as a man of firm opinions, with a vigorous method of expressing them, but the same time brusqueness of his manner did not conceal the kindness of his disposition and generosity and by those who knew him best he was held in the highest esteem.

Mr. Merrithew has been in failing health for the last year, and suffered a slight stroke a few months ago. He was born in Keswick, York County. As a young man came to Richmond with his parents. He was a most zealous and industrious worker, and the marked success which he attained making it possible for him to retire twenty years ago, and live a retired life, won for him the name of a careful and successful manager.

During his months of waiting, he was tenderly nursed by his faithful wife, and everything was done for his comfort.

Besides his wife he is survived by one step-son, W. Robin Goss, of France, and a large number of relatives and friends.

The funeral held on Sunday afternoon was largely attended, services being conducted by Rev's. R. S. Millar and C. A. Currie in the Baptist church.

The pall bearers were S. H. Carr, R. Fleming, F. M. McLean, A. H. Henderson.

A quartette from Houlton rendered beautiful singing.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS KILL LITTLE ONES

At the first sign of illness during the hot weather give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets, or in a few hours he may be beyond cure. These Tablets will prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to the well child and will promptly cure these troubles if they come on suddenly. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in every home where there are young children. There is no other medicine as good and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they are absolutely safe. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Letters received in Fredericton on Monday from England contained the information that the 104th Battalion was to leave England the first of August for France. As there are many Woodstock boys in this unit this news will be of interest.
