Hoyt-Ray

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon Feb. 14th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Ray parents of the bride.

The contracting parties were Miss Susie M. Ray, Richmond, and Mr. Gordon Neal Hoyt, Debec, who were united together in Holy Matrimony by the Rev. John Rees-Jones, rector of the parish. The bride wearing a white dress of crepe-de-chene, entered the room where the ceremony was performed to the strains of the well known bridal chorus.

Mr. Kenneth Neal supported the bridegroom while Miss Margaret Folkins who was daintily dressed in blue crepe-de-chene acted in the capacity of bridesmaid. At the conclusion of the ceremony the assembled guests sat down to a sumptuous repast which was in full accord with the splendour of the event.

The bride was the recipient of a number of presents and on the previous day was honoured by a shower when more than fifty persons met at the residence of Mrs. Kilburn Currie.

The happy couple left for Debec later in the evening amid the congratulations and felicitations of those present.

Presentation

The members of the Elizabeth Chapman Mission Circle of the Methodist church, met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Kerrigan on Tuesday evening and presented Mrs. Frank Plummer with an address and a beautiful cut glass bowl. The presentation was made by Miss Carter. A very pleasant evening was spent with games and music. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Plummer left on Wednesday for their new home in Hartland.

Mrs. James C. Doak, of Fredericton has received official notification that her son, Kenneth Doak, had been wounded in the left shoulder. Private Doak enlisted at Fort William, Ont., with the 94th Batt, and, before going to Fort William, he was employed in the Fredericton Gleaner and Woodstock Sentinel offices. His father, James C. Doak, is also overseas, being a member of the 52nd Batt. Before enlisting he was employed in the Fredericton Gleaner and Woodstock Sentinel and Press offices.

Mrs. Donald Munro

The death occurred on Sunday evening, after a brief illness of pneumonia, of Mrs. Donald Munro, wife of Donald Munro, ex M.L.A., Registrar of Deeds. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. Annanias McFarlane, and was held in the highest esteem by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. She was an active member of St. Paul's Church, in which she was an indefatigable worker, and will be greatly missed. Besides her husband, she is survived by four sons, Archie, Gordon and Malcolm, who are serving the Empire at the front, and Kenneth of Boston; one daughter, Miss Caroline, a nurse in the Victoria Hospital, Montreal, who was with her during her illness.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the services at the house and grave being conducted by the Rev. Frank Baird. The choir of St. Paul's church sang the hymns "Lead Kindly Light", "The Sands of Time Are Sinking" and "For All The Saints Who From Their Labors Rest." Interment was in the family lot at Upper Woodstock. The pall bearers were, W. M. McCunn, W. S. Sutton, J. R. Brown and J. K. Flemming. Among the beautiful flowers were a wreath from the trustees and a beautiful sheaf of Easter Lilies from the Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's church.

General sympathy will be extended to Mr. Munro and the members of his family in their great loss.

Mrs. Frank R. Slipp

The death of Mrs. Frank R. Slipp, who has been in poor health for several months, occurred Monday morning, April 16th, at her home, Lower Woodstock. She was a daughter of the late Mr. Ezra Brundage, of King's county, and is survived by a husband and four sons, Hedley, Walter, Leonard and Brundage, and two daughters, Misses Helen and Emma.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, services at the house and grave being conducted by the Rev. Gideon Swim, of St. John. Mrs. Harry McIlroy and Miss Cora Mooers, from the choir of the United Baptist church sang the hymns "Asleep in Jesus," "Lord I'm Coming Home," and "Happy Day." The pall bearers were J. W. Slipp, of Bedell, G. W. Slipp, town, I. E. Slipp, of Plymouth and John Brundage, of St. John. Interment in the Methodist cemetery. Beautiful flowers were sent by relatives and friends.

Samuel A. Rogers

The death occurred on Thursday morning, April 12, of Mr. Samuel A. Rogers, aged 80 years. The late Mr. Rogers was one of the best known residents of Carleton County and although he had been ill for two years, his death came as a surprise to his friends. The funeral took place from the residence of his son, Charles F. Rogers, at 2.30 o'clock, on Saturday afternoon. Services at the house and grave being conducted by the Rev. Samuel Howard. The pall bearers were two sons of deceased Charles F. Rogers of Woodstock, James Rogers of Hartland and two nephews, Lincoln Tompkins, of Houlton and Herbert Tompkins of Northampton.

Frank Plummer, who has been a member of the A. Henderson Furniture Co., for some years has retired from the Company and moved to Hartland, where he is opening a general store in the building formerly occupied by Arthur Baird.

Ernest Burt, who was operated on for appendicitis in the Fisher hospital, is recovering.

J. F. McLean, Scott Act Inspector, wishes to state that Thomas Graham, whose name appears in last year's Scott Act Accounts, is Thomas Graham, Provincial Constable, of Royalton, and not Thomas Graham, County Constable, of South Richmond.

Mrs. Robert Welsh has returned from St. John, where she has been the guest for several weeks, of her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Fearman.

Mrs. R. E. Guy Smith, of Montreal, is visiting her mother, Mrs. B. H. Smith.

Baby's Own Tablets Used Ten Years

Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Carp Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the last ten years and can highly recommend them for babyhood and childhood ailments. My baby boy was very delicate; in fact we never thought he would live but thanks to the Tablets he is now a fine healthy boy." Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in every home where there are small children. They regulate the bowels and stomach and never fail to cure the minor ills of little ones. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
