Rev. F. L. Orchard preached his farewell sermon in the United Baptist church on Sunday. He will spend this week in Fredericton where he will preach on Sunday, thence he will go to Montréal to assume the pastorate of Mt. Olivet Baptist church. Mrs. Orchard will spend some months with relatives in York county and join her husband in Montreal on May 1st.

Mrs James A. Mooers

Mrs. James A. Mooers of this town, died Tuesday night at her home on Broadway, aged 80 years. She leaves three sons, Hedley and Alfred of this town, and F. L. in Fredericton with the 236th Battalion. Six daughters, Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Deber; Mrs. Douglas Lawson, Portland, Oregon; Misses Edith and Ethel of Lowell, Mass; Mrs. Murray Appleby of this town, and Miss Georgie at home. The funeral service was held at her home on Wednesday night, conducted by Rev. F. L. Orchard. The body was taken to the Barony by the Valley train for interment Thursday morning.

Mrs. Mooers has five grandsons in the service of the Empire.

Mrs. Thos. Hagerman

Mrs. Thomas Hagerman died at her home, Broadway, on Sunday night, after a few days illness with erysipelas, aged 69 years. She leaves a husband, one son Guy of St. John, two sisters Mrs. Andrew Jameson of Stillwater, Minn., Mrs. Benjamin Suxton of this town; three brothers, Charles M. Dow, conductor on C. P. R. Florenceville, William Dow of Temple, York county, and Luther Dow driver on the C. P. R. of this town. The services were conducted by Rev. F. L. Orchard on Monday evening, and the burial was in the Dow cemetery. Interment on Tuesday.

Mrs Wm McCormac

At Upper Woodstock on the 5th inst. Mary, widow of the late William McCormac, was called to enter into the Home Sweet Home beyond the skies. For some time past Mrs. McCormac had been more or less an invalid and for her it was "sweet release." Our deceased friend lived in the affection of those who were nearest and dearest, and in the good will and love of her neighbors to many of whom she had proved herself a true sympathizing friend, ever ready to do her share wherever she could.

Mrs. McCormac leaves to mourn their loss two daughters, Mrs. Clark, of St. John, and Mrs. George Chapman of Upper Woodstock, with whom she made her home, one son William of Upper Woodstock, a number of grandchildren and one great grand child.

George Anderson

One of our oldest residents, in the person of George Anderson of Lakeville, passed away on Feb. 10th, after a week's illness of heart trouble, aged 86 years.

He is survived by seven children, Milton of Boston and Herbert of Lakeville, Mrs. Chas. Oliver of Easton, Maine, Mrs. Hanford Tracy and Mrs. Marshall Tracy of Lakeville, Mrs. Benj. Bell and Mrs. Robert Bell of Deerville.

The funeral was held at the Baptist church, Lakeville, on Feb. 12th, the pall bearers being Sam Suxton, Charles Tracy, Merrill Tracy and Alfred Bell.

Colin Campbell

Much regret will be felt at the announcement of the death of Mr. Colin Campbell, aged 76 years, which took place on Friday morning after several months illness. He was well known to the general public, having been proprietor of the Newburg Junction house, and Riverside hotel for many years. He is survived by Mrs. Campbell of Woodstock and two children, both of whom are living in other countries.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon and interment made in the Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were J. E. Cogger, James S. McManus, James Brown, J. P. Maloney.

Charles F. Nugent

Charles F. Nugent, a former Woodstock boy, who left here some 17 years ago to make his home in Denver, Col., died in that city on Feb. 8th, of pneumonia. He leaves one brother, Patrick Nugent of Denver, and three sisters Mrs. V. C. Kelly, Mrs. J. W. Gallagher, both of this town and Mrs. E. A. Jordan of Berlin, N. B.

WICKLOW

Feb. 19, 1917.

Rev. E. B. McLatchey occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church on Sunday morning. Three candidates were taken in the church at the close of the service.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. Gideon Estabrooke on Thursday last. The ladies took this opportunity of bidding farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Estabrooke who have been valued members of the community for over fifty years. Mr. Estabrooke has sold his farm here and expects to remove to Greenfield with their daughter Mrs. Wm. Tweedie.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pearson of Upper Brighton spent Sunday with Mrs. Pearson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Estey.

Miss Margison and Mr. Wheeler of Knoxford were guests at One Shaw on Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Grant of Upper Kent is visiting her daughter Mrs. George MacDox.

Mrs. Johnston Smith, of Clearview returned home last week after visiting her sons, Addington and Wley Smith.

Mrs. H. L. Olmstead visited relatives and friends in Upper Kent last week.

Miss Helen Estabrooke returned home on Saturday from Woodstock where she had been taking one of the Short Courses in Domestic Science.

Miss Hazel Fulton of the Consolidated Telephone Co's office spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Hutchinson and family were guests of Mr and Mrs C. F. Wheeler on Sunday.

CENTREVILLE.

Revival Meetings are in progress at Brookvale, and up to this time thirteen have expressed a desire to be baptized and unite with the Church and seven have made the same request at Centreville.

Rev. Mr. Johnston has proved to be one of the most earnest workers ever engaged on the Centreville circuit.

The rite of Baptism will be administered to as many as have been accepted in the Baptist church, on the evening of the 25th inst.

The Opposition Candidates had a Meeting in the Opera House here last week. The audience was not large for Centreville.

The price of Potatoes has reached higher this year than ever before. One Centreville farmer is reported to have cleaned up from his farm this year the snug sum of five thousand dollars.

The citizens of this village are planning on securing coal for heating purposes as the wood question has almost got to be a thing of the past. Wood is getting to be scarce and coal is much cheaper if easily secured.

Amos Downey has bought a building for a shop which in a short time will be placed on the lot where his old shop stands.

Mrs. Leland Clark is recovering from an attack of Pneumonia. Dr. Brown is the physician.

Dr. Field is able to resume the practice of his profession.

Mrs. F. A. Good of Fredericton rendered a delightful solo in the United Baptist church on Sunday evening.

The Baptist pulpit will be supplied next Sunday by Rev. Mr. Wetmore of Victoria, N. B.

George Moore of Griswold, Me. spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Fred Moore, Broadway.
