of the bow. The effective range of the weapon is about seventy five yards while the extreme range may be put a hundred yards. At fifty or even seventy five yards the bow is an effective weapon. An arrow will in many cases fly a considerable distance on the other side after going through the chest of a wild caribou or even a polar or grizzly bear.

No permanent dwellings of any kind are erected by any of the Copper Eskimo—I call them so because every geographical descriptive term is either too large or too small and copper furnishes such a characteristic and important part of their material equipment. In winter they live in snow houses of the ordinary dome type, in villages of from three to thirty three dwellings. Thirty three is the largest number of houses I have ever found occupied by people who consider themselves members of one group, although at a trading rendezvous such as Cape Bexley larger numbers of houses are sometimes simultaneously occupied. A large house will accommodate two families of a total of nine or ten individuals, while five is perhaps the average number. In some cases adjoining houses have an interior connection between them and in still others the outer door opens into a common hallway on either side of which is a door to the private houses. The exigencies of seal hunting are such that a house is seldom occupied more than three weeks at a time, so that it is always vacated before it has a chance to become filthy. Apart from that, these Eskimo are really fairly good housekeepers. The net result, as to health, from living in these well ventilated and comparatively clean temporary dwellings (and tents in summer) is that the general health of the people is good, and pulmonary diseases

The Door To Health

Is Through the Rich Red Blood
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills
 Actually Make

The blood is responsible for the health of the body. If it is good, disease can not exist. If it is bad, the door is shut against good health, disease is bound to appear in one form or another. One person may be seized with rheumatism or sciatica, another with anaemia, indigestion, heart palpitation, headaches or backaches, unstrung nerves, or any of the many other forms of ailment that comes when the blood is weak and watery. There is just one certain, speedy cure—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They make new, rich, red blood, and this good blood strengthens the whole system and brings good health and happiness. Thousand owe their present good health, some, life itself, to the pills. Mrs. Charles Goddard, Chatham, Ont., says: "Four years ago my nervous system was so run down that life seemed nothing but a burden. I doctored for two years with little or no benefit. I could neither work, eat or sleep well. While in this condition a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Before doing so I thought I would consult my doctor and he told me he knew of no better medicine for building up the nervous system. I started to take the pills and after a short while found they were helping me. I took the pills for nearly three months and am thankful to say that they completely cured me. Ever since I have kept a box of the pills in the house but have not found it necessary to take them."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or they will be sent by mail postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

particular seem to be nearly or quite absent. This, of course, will all change very soon, when white men commence to live among them, for the tribes who at present are migratory will then become sedentary and will occupy the same dwellings the year round, as they do now where ever civilization has been planted.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore McKinney, Chapel Street, on Wednesday evening, February 14, when their daughter, Iva Louise, was united in marriage to Mr. Roy Gordon-Smith of the Smith Lumber Co., of this town. Miss Emma Miller

These passed peacefully away at her home in Nictesau, N. B., on Aug. 18th, 1916, Miss Emma Miller, in the 24th year of her age. She had been in poor health for some time, consequently her death came not as a surprise to her many friends and relatives. She passed away trusting in a risen Christ. By faith she discerned the blessed world where there is no night and with hope and patience waited for the morning. The night of ignorance and error and sin and conflict and weariness and sorrow and suffering and death is past never to return—the day is ushered in—the day of deliverance from sin, and the day of complete triumph of grace, the day of glorious realization, of hope and blessedness and life in the kingdom of God.

Through the gateway of death her spirit has ascended to God, who gave it. She is now a full sharer in the glorified bliss of heaven. She dwells where Jesus is, and in full possession of eternal life. If those who mourn could only see more clearly the place she occupies now, the grand capacities and possibilities of life open to her, her early removal from them would have in it less anguish and more consolation.

The funeral of Miss Miller was largely attended. Pastor Cullingford assisted by Rev. Mr. Young had charge of the services at the house and grave.

She leaves to mourn their loss a mother, two sisters and two brothers. Interment took place at Riey Brook.
