ROD and GUN

In the February issue of Rod and Gun, now on the news-stands Bonnycastle Dale, the naturalist writer, describes in "Hunting with the Modern Camera" the methods by which he gets near enough to the forest birds and beasts to take some of the remarkable photographs with which his stories are illustrated. "The only danger is from falls and falling trees, he says. "There is not anything in the woods of North America that will attack you if unmoles ed." "The Wood-dack," by F. V. Williams, supplements the cover picture for this month which reproduces in colors that are true to life this rarely beautiful and comparatively scarce species of duck. "Old Frying Pan," a bear story by H. C. Hadden, "Hawks and Other Game Destroyers' by Reginald Gourlay, "With a Watch and Compass," "With the Timber Wol ves in Northern Canada," etc., etc. along with the regular depart. ments which are well maintained, make up a particularly interesting number of this premier Canadian magazine of outdoor life. W. J. Taylor, Ltd., Woodstock, Oat. is the publisher.
