GUARD THE BABY AGAINST COLDS

To guard the baby against colds nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are a mild laxative that will keep the little ones stomach and bowels working regularly. It is a recognized fact that where the stomach and bowels are in good order that colds will not exist; that the health of the little one will be good and that he will thrive and be happy and good-natured. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mr. H. W. Bourne

The town lost another old and highly esteemed resident Thursday afternoon when H. W. Bourne, town treasurer, entered into rest.

Mr. Bourne, who was 77 years of age on September 15th last, was born in England. He came here with his father when he was eight years of age. He conducted a woodworking factory for many years and at the same time took a great interest in military matters being promoted to the rank of Captain in the 67th Regiment. After retiring from the factory business he was assistant postmaster of Woodstock for 20 years. Since leaving the post office he has been the efficient town treasurer. He was organist of St. Luke's Anglican church for 51 years, retiring only a few years ago. In all walks of life the deceased was a true and up right citizen—the kind that is an honor for any town to possess.

Among those who mourn are a widow and three children, Bert K. a soldier at the front, Percy W. and H. Kathleen Bourne of Woodstock, and a brother Percy Bourne of St. John who was present at the funeral which took place at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon and was attended by a large number of friends, including the members of the Town Council. A short service was held at the house, and the usual services at St. Luke's church by the rector, Rev. A. S. Hazel. The burial took place in the parish church cemetery, the pall bearers being Mayor Sutton, Couns. Nodden and Fisher and Town Clerk J. C. Hartley.

Another Hero Gone

On Wednesday morning, the sad news came to Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lynott that their only son James E. previously reported dangerously wounded, had died of his wounds on the nineteenth.

James was only nineteen years old and a very highly respected young fellow, a favorite among the young folk. He never from a child showed any disposition for war or military matters. His was the pure and simple call of duty which he heeded.

He went overseas with the 55th Battalion but was later transferred to the 24th and had been on the firing line about nine months taking part in the general advance last Summer, where he distinguished himself by conspicuous bravery. The last letters received by his parents indicated that he was performing very daring and dangerous tasks.

He leaves his parents, three sisters and a host of friends to mourn him. The unqualified sympathy of the citizens goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Lynott in this hour of their trial especially to the mother who is just recovering from a serious illness largely due to the grief of her soldier boy's departure.

"They pass O God and all our grief and tears

Achieve not their recall nor reach their ears

Our lamentations leave but one thing sure

They perish and we grieve but we endure."

Andrew Myles

A large circle of friends heard with sincere regret of the death Friday morning of Mr. Andrew Myles, following an illness of some three months. Born in Enniskillen, Ireland, 67 years ago, Mr. Myles has been a resident of this province for upwards of 60 years, a large part of the time a resident of St. John. For a time he ran a large grocery store in this city and managed a woolen mill at Woodstock. In recent years he has been a commercial traveller. Mr. Myles married Miss Young of this city. She died thirty years ago, and he has since made his home in St. John with his only sister, Mrs. M. Craig, High street. My Myles was an active member and enthusiastic worker in the Portland Methodist church and Sabbath school and gave support to many worthy philanthropic and social efforts. His funeral took place Sunday afternoon.—St. John Globe.

Mrs. N. Franchette of Hartland, has been visiting friends in town this week. Miss Peters, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Evans, returned to her home in Moncton on Tuesday.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

County Council met in annual session Tuesday, Jan. 16th, Warden Tracey in the chair. The session opened with singing God Save the King. Those present were:

Aberdeen—D. Lamont, Samuel Hamphill.

Brighton—Ed. Morgan, Fred Smith.

Northampton—H. A. Phillips, Arthur Gibson.

Peel—E. W. Melville, Frank Tompkins.

Richmond—Alex. Bell, Ezra Fleming.

Simonds—John Perry, Odbur Shaw.

Wicklow—Carey Estey, Rennie Tracey.

Wilmot—Harry Carvell, Wilmot Anderson.

Kent—John Kinney, W. J. Gallagher.

Woodstock Parish—Robert Moxon, Chas. Clark.

Wakefield—Wm. G. Kearney, Albert G. Bell.

Woodstock Town—Jas. W. Gallagher.

The Warden welcomed the members to whom he wished a Happy and Prosperous New Year. Conditions so far as the war was concerned he was sorry to say had not changed very much. He regretted the illness of Coun. Stevens and hoped he would soon be restored to good health and strength. While not agreeing with the apportionment of Patriotic Fund, he felt sure the people of the County would rise to the occasion and do their full duty. The amount to be raised would mean a large increase but we must meet it and do all we can in the cause that affects us all.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following communication from Coun. H. D. Stevens was read by the Warden:

Fisher Memorial Hospital,

Woodstock, N. B.,

Jan. 16, 1917.

To the Warden and Members of the Municipality of Carleton.

Gentlemen:—
On account of illness I regret that I will be unable to take my seat at the Board this session. I trust you may have a profitable and pleasant meeting. Wishing you all a prosperous and Happy New Year. I am,

Yours truly,

H. D. Stevens.

Moved that the communication be accepted and that the Warden be a committee to visit Coun. Stevens, and express our regrets.

Carried.
Adjourned till 2 o'clock.

Council met at 2 o'clock.

Coun. Tompkins reported for committee on ferries. Investigated and gathered that people are much in favor of retaining the old ferry. Mr. Hallet was willing to operate his boat at all open seasons. I was told the other ferry could scarcely give a crossing at night at all. What is known as the Hatheway ferry should be continued in operation and Mr. Hallet granted a license.

Coun. Perry said he could never succeed in getting a committee together, in order to adjust this ferry matter. He has talked with a few who wanted the upper ferry continued in operation.

Coun. Clark—I have never heard anything about it until today.

Coun. Melville moved report be accepted and a license granted Mr. Hallet. He presented a petition in favor of this ferry and at request of Coun. Kinney read the names.

Coun. Morgan seconded the motion.

Coun. Estey—I'm in favor of part of motion. Bye law states that Councilors should act in their own parishes. This last part of this motion is infringing on the rights of the councillors. This petition does not ask for a license.

The Warden read section 14 of the bye laws in re ferries.

On motion Mr. Stapleford was heard in favor of Hallet. Not financially interested—only with fair play for people of Carleton. I have lived in Bath for some 13 years—am conversant with facts. As a free ferry it was not successful. It was bought because not run

Dr Kierstead Leaves Woodstock

On Tuesday morning the 23rd inst., Dr. Kierstead, Mrs. Kierstead, and their daughter, Miss Effie, left Woodstock for the Doctor's new field of labor at Sheffield. Dr. Kierstead came to Woodstock twenty-six years ago and has since practised his profession here. As a practitioner Dr. Kierstead was conscientious, self-sacrificing and successful. He devoted himself with zeal and diligence to the study, as well as to the practice of medicine. A man of natural ability, and of studious habits, he kept well abreast of all new developments in his profession. He was also highly gifted with the qualities of sympathy, modesty, and kindness. By these virtues, as well as by his skill and ability, he won and held the regard and affection of a large circle both in the town and surrounding country. He never forgot, or neglected a patient, no matter how poor. He is held in the highest regard as he leaves Woodstock, and the best of wishes follow him. Mrs. Kierstead and Miss Effie, as they go to the fine old and beautifully situated parish of Sheffield.

The Doctor had a flattering offer to take up practice at Marysville when it was learned he was likely to leave here, but for the present, at any rate, he goes to Sheffield, where he was located prior to coming to Woodstock.

Pearson-Estey

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Estey, Wicklow, on Thursday afternoon Dec. 21st at 6 o'clock when their eldest daughter, Gladys H. was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph S. Pearson, of Upper Brighton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. A. Fenwick, of Jacksonville, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

The house was decorated for the occasion, the bride and groom standing under an arch of evergreen. The bride, who was unattended, entered the parlor, with her father, who gave her away. She wore a handsome gown of white Georgette crepe over white silk with veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. The wedding march was played by Miss Helen Estabrooks.

Supper was served after the ceremony. Her going away gown was navy blue poplin, and black velvet hat with rose trimmings. She received beautiful gifts, including cut glass, silver, linen, and furniture.
