COUNTY COUNCIL

Continued from page 11... to Fredericton and told me that they had arranged with other counties to finance the seed project and felt that they could make no exception in case of Carleton Co. They agreed to ship the grain to me on my becoming personally responsible. 5000 bushels oats and 3000 bushels grain were distributed as best... Coun. Keith—We could have sold more oats at Hartland but local concerns sold for 25c a bushel less. The red life was a good quality, some complaints were made of first lot being inferior quality. Local concerns sold a lot... Coun. Carvell wanted to know about the expense. If we appoint a committee we should pay their expenses... Coun. Tracy—So far as the seed wheat committee is concerned, it fell to me to distribute the seed without any charge. I kept a bill of expenses I had no authority to spend the money and if the council sees fit to pay it, well and good, if not I will stand it myself. I was away from my home in a very busy season and feel that $4 a day for 37 days' services is not unreasonable... Coun. Moxon thought the price the government charged they should pay, the expenses.

Coun. Tracy—I am well aware that oats could be bought for 23 cents less but they were not the quality of oats the government distributed. The government did not make a cent on the grain sold.

Coun. Moxon—They should have charged enough to cover the expense.

Coun. Melville—We voted against this but the committee did the right thing in financing it, or we would have had a shortage. The government should have paid the expenses, as other governments have done.

Coun. Anderson was in favor of paying the bill incurred by Coun. Tracy, $219.65, and he would move that this bill be paid.

Coun. Benn and Coun. Keith had each small bills.

Coun. Tracy would pay Coun. Keith's bill as it was for freight. I may say I was assured by the government that if our proposition had come in first it would have been adopted. I am satisfied that the government did not have a man to send out on this business. My bill represents actual money paid out.

Coun. Lamont did not approve of this way of doing the business, but wanted the committee paid. This council could have bought the seed and handled it cheaper.

Coun. Tracy—A lot of this grain was bought and sowed from a patriotic standpoint.

Coun. Watson—The committee deserves a lot of credit for their work. The grain was needed and there would have been a shortage if it had not come. If Coun. Tracy had not financed it we would have been without grain.

Coun. Gallagher and Anderson thought the bill should be paid by the government.

Coun. Perry (Kent) had the impression that at freight had been paid by parties receiving the grain.

Coun. Tracy—If Coun. Perry paid way freight on grain he is entitled to be paid back. If he can produce the freight bill I will pay it.

Coun. Moxon—We need the grain badly and I think the committee did remarkably well and should be paid.

Coun. Perry (Simonds) I had no idea we would have anything to pay as our agreement with Dr. Keirstead was well understood. I am not at all satisfied with the way the thing turned out. We wanted white wheat and got red.

Coun Tracy—We were told white life was hard to get. They could only get one car for the province and it was sent here to Mr. Fripp. How far could one car go in Carleton county? We'd the best we could under the circumstances. It was impossible to put it over the whole county. I don't think we should pay the bill. I assumed the responsibility and I leave it in the hands of the council. (To Coun. Smith)—The car that came to Mr. Fripp was the first car shipped and came quicker than was expected, and he could handle it and had sold some before we took it over.

Coun. Tompkins—Mr. Keirstead promised that a competent man would be sent to handle it. He was not sent and the only thing to do was to have Coun. Tracy do the work. We should pay Coun. Tracy and bill the government.

Coun. Carvell—It was not a promise from Mr. Keirstead it was a resolution of this council and was not accepted by the government.

Coun. Smith—No one opposes Coun. Tracy being paid it is only a criticism of the manner in which the government handled it.

Coun. Tracy—Coun. Tompkins was right. Dr. Keirstead did agree to send a man, but he asked me to do it in case they could not send a man. I did not agree to do it.

Coun. Lamont thought it should stand over till January session.

The report of the committee was adopted with the sum of $219.65 to be paid Coun. Tracy.

The Warden thought that the urgency of the matter and general conditions that Carleton County was getting out well. From a patriotic standpoint we should pay the bill even if open to some criticism.

Coun. Carvell said if this county was going to appoint committees to do its work any expense incurred should be paid. We have a report from Coun. Perry (Kent) who went to King's county and no doubt had expenses.

Coun. Perry (Kent)—If you will build a municipal home I will not charge any expense for my labors.

Coun. Melville—Moved that the dog tax question be laid over till January session. Nothing can be done now as assessment has already been made.

Coun. Carvell—It's no use of this council carrying this over from one session to another—we should settle it now. If the sheep industry of this country is suffering from dogs we should act.

Coun. Melville—We can't do anything now that assessment is made. It seems a desire to go into another day's session of the council. I am in favor of a dog tax.

Let the government send a man here and explain the law.

Coun. Smith was in favor of a dog tax.

Coun. Anderson—If we can't get the tax collected we can't get rid of the dogs.

Coun. Phillips favored a dog tax but it can't be put in force this session as the petitions have been sent back by the Secty-Treas. on request of the Agriculture Dept. who said
