ROD and GUN

"The Condition of the Fur Seals Today" by Bonycastle Dale; "His First Duck" by F. V. Williams; "The Civilization of Split Rock" by M. A. Sawyer; "The Devil" by H. A. Sturtzel; "A Toilet Set for the Camper" by E. G. Brewer; "The Old Time River Brigade" by R. J. Fraser; "Wandering Trails" by H. G. Haddon; "A Hunt with New Brunswick Guides"; these are some of the stories and articles that go to make up the mid winter number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor Limited. In addition to the above their February number contains under the heading of "Guns and Ammunition" two fine articles by expert gunmen, namely Thomas K. Lee and Major Townsend Whelen. Mr. Lee is described by the editor of this department as "undoubtedly the finest target shot with the .22 rifle that has ever lived" and his article on Repeating and Single Shot Rifles will be read with great interest by gunmen.

Meanless days in the United States have saved 140,000,000 pounds of beef in four months, the food administration announced today. During this period 165,000,000 pounds of beef were exported to the Allies together with 400,000,000 pounds of pork products.
