Very Sudden Death.

WOODSTOCK, July 11.—Edward Sloat, miller of Traery's Mills, and one of the most enterprising and popular men of the county, died very suddenly last Saturday night. He had come home from his work a little late and sat on the verandah talking with his wife and family. Shortly after he retired he remarked to his wife that he felt well to get to bed after his hard day's work. Almost instantly he turned over and fell out of bed, dying at once. The shock to his wife and family is awful. Mr. Sloat was about sixty years old; and leaves quite a large family. His sudden death is generally deplored. Mr. Sloat's mill was recently burned down.—Globe.

Doctors Testify.

There's strong testimony by eminent physicians of wonderful cures made by Dr. Chase's Family Remedies—particularly Dr. Chase's Ointment.

'Agnes won't speak to any of us.'
'What's the trouble?'
'We gave her a surprise party on her birthday.'
'That ought to have pleased her.'
'Well, it didn't. We gave her a beautiful birthday cake with 40 candles around it.'
