AND OTHER MATTERS

Don't forget the meeting of the Plebiscite workers on Monday next in the Baptist church, Hartland.

Please remember Shaw & Dibblee are head quarters for building material of all kinds including shingles and boards.

Howard McLean, a lad of sixteen, lost his life on Wednesday last by being run over by a train at McAdam. He hailed from Halifax.

The "Y" planned a picnic for Thursday, which no doubt would have been most enjoyable, but on account of the weather had to be postponed.

On Monday the preferential tariff scheme came into force. British goods can now be imported in Canada twenty-five per cent cheaper than the products of other nations.

Mrs. A. Aiton has a beautiful display of garden flowers in front of their residence. One day this week the ADVERTISER was presented with a lovely bouquet plucked from them.

Spain accepted with slight changes the terms of peace which the United States offered on Sunday and it is now evident that hostilities will be very soon drawn to a close, and peace restored.

Look out for "shooting stars" on the evening of August 10th—next Wednesday. Watch the northeastern sky, in the constellation Perseus; and the annual August shower of meteors will be witnessed.

Married—at the residence of the bride's parents, Windsor, August 3rd, by Rev. A. H. Hayward, R. B. Wasson Bridges of Gordonsville, N. B. to Miss Viola L., eldest daughter of Alfred Tedford, Esq., Windsor.

A typographical error in our issue of last week said that Miss Louise Blaklee's marks for proficiency in the literary department at the Halifax school for the blind was 691, when it should have read 991, which is truly excellent.

At the meeting of the St. John Presbytery at Woodstock Tuesday, Rev. Mr. Mullin of Stanley and Nashwaak was prohibited from preaching in any of the churches pending a decision on his case in the Synod, which meets at Halifax in October.

On Tuesday the "Roses" of St. John and the "Browns" of Woodstock played a lively game of ball at the latter town. The score stood 14 to 7 in favor of the "Roses." On Wednesday a second game was played and the score was 11 to 1 in favor of the "Roses."

On Monday evening the day of the Plebiscite Convention in the Baptist church, the W. C. T. U. will hold a public temperance meeting at which the leading workers in Carleton Co. are expected to speak. There will be good music, and all are invited to attend.

C. L. Smith, M. P. P., president of the local agricultural society, and Robert Brown, one of the directors, went to Fredericton last week to interview the government for aid toward holding an exhibition here this fall. They succeeded in getting the promise of the executive of $500 towards the exhibition, says the Press.

At Stanley, York County, on July 5th, there took place the marriage of Mr. Arthur C. Cowles, of Paterson, N. J. and Miss May Gertrude, daughter of Rev. J. N. Barnes, of the Free Baptist denomination, who performed the ceremony. Prof. Keen of New Jersey acted as best man and Miss Ethel Samson as bride's maid. A large number of friends were present. The bride looked charming in a travelling costume of light blue and was the recipient of numerous handsome presents. After luncheon the happy couple left on their honeymoon trip, after which they will reside at Paterson, N. Y.

Joseph Hallet, son of Moses Hallet, who has a farm a short distance above the village, died at 5.30 o'clock on Wednesday, after a short illness of inflammation of the bowels. He was about 30 years of age and leaves wife. The funeral took place on Thursday, Rev. M. P. Orser officiating.

On Wednesday three horses and some farm utensils belonging to Stephen Hanning of Carlisle, were sold by the Sheriff at Auction in front of the post office. The horses brought $3.25, $9.25, and $21.50. The property was seized on an execution taken out by Balmain Bros. of Woodstock.

The Band boys' concert and picnic next Tuesday will be one of the best affairs ever gotten up for the entertainment of the people of Hartland and vicinity. The most interesting feature will be a ball game, Benton vs. Hartland. There will be lots of music and sport all day; and the concert in the evening promises to be something fine.

Mr and Mrs. Scott of Lower Brighton entertained about twenty-five of their friends at the residence of their uncle, J. Nixon, on Monday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent, and an abundance of ice cream was served, to which the guests did ample justice. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left on Tuesday morning for their home in Boston. They will be much missed by their many friends.

Last Saturday during the heavy storm lightning struck and set fire to a barn belonging to S. N. Estabrooks of Rockland. The straw was on fire and destruction of the building would have been certain if not for the pluck and quick thought of Chesly, Mr. Estabrooks son, who gathered in his arms the flaming straw and carried it out into the yard.

Rev. W. Benson Belliss, curate of Woodstock for the past two years, and who once a month held Church of England service in Hartland, is about to leave Woodstock. On Tuesday evening he was presented with an address from the town and one from the parishioners expressing regret at his departure. The latter was accompanied by a purse and some silverware.

Ab. Orser was wheeling to the Newburgh Picnic when about two or three miles below the village he was thrown from his bike and suffered a very severe fracture of the collar bone. Alex Dunham, of Sawyers mill crew, soon happened along with a horse and buggy and brought the injured man to Dr. Estey's office where necessary medical aid was rendered. Afterward he was removed to his father's house on the hill.

News was received here of the death of Thos. Bedell of Haynesville. He met death in a most horrible way. While passing through a pasture he was fiercely attacked by a bull which at the first blow drove one horn into the body near the spinal column. It afterwards attacked him in the front, gouging the organs of the abdomen most frightfully. One peculiar thing about the affair is that the bull was driven off by two steers which were in the pasture. Mr. Bedell died in two hours after the accident.—Aroostook Times.

The Hartland Baseball team is at Benton today engaged with the team of that town. Last season our boys beat the Bentons in a game here and today are giving them a chance to get satisfaction. Another game between these two teams will be played in Hartland on Tuesday, being one of the leading features of the Band Picnic. The Hartland team is made up as follows: Geo. Campbell, p.; Bart Nesbit, c.; Sam Miller, 1st b.; Harry Tompkins, 2nd b.; Geo. McGoldrick, 3rd b.; Willie Thistle, r. f.; Frank Leighton, c. f.; Rex Cormier, l. f.

This Sign tells the whole Story.

ON these grounds we ask for trade. We believe value is the basis of all sound business.

We aim to give more value for a dollar in Paint than can be had from anybody in Hartland. We believe our success is dependent upon our ability to do this.

With our experience and facilities, we are in a position to take advantage of everything that can in any way make our business better. We never miss a chance if we know it.
