

The Doctors Puzzled.

The Peculiar Case of a Nova Scotian Lady.

The Trouble Began in the Swelling of The Big Toe Which Spread to All Parts Of the Body—Doctors Could Not Account for the Trouble, and Their Treatment Did Her No Good.

From the New Glasgow Enterprise.

Loch Broom is a picturesque farming hamlet situated about three miles from the town of Pictou, N. S. In this hamlet, in a cosy farmhouse live Mr. and Mrs. Hector McKinnon. A few years ago Mrs. McKinnon was taken with a disease that puzzled several doctors who attended her. It was generally known that Mrs. McKinnon owed her ultimate recovery to good health to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and a reporter of the Enterprise being in the neighborhood called upon the lady and asked her if she had any objections to relating the particulars of her illness and cure.

"Indeed I have not," replied Mrs. McKinnon, "I think that those who are cured owe it to the medicine that brings them back to health, always to say a good word for it. My trouble had apparently an insignificant starting point. It came on with a swelling in the big toe, accompanied by intense pain. Gradually the swelling extended to my limbs and then to my whole body, accompanied by pain which made my life a burden. A doctor was called in but he did not help me. Then another and another until I had four different medical men to see me, one of them the most skillful physicians in the province. Yet my case seemed to puzzle every one of them, and none of them gave me more than the merest temporary relief. One doctor said the trouble was inflammation of the bone. Another said it was aggravated sciatica and gout. The other two called it by other names, but whatever it was none of them helped me. By this time I had got so low and weak that I could not lift hand or foot if it would save my life, and no one expected to see me get better. In fact the doctor said if I sank any lower I could not live. And yet here I am today as well as ever I was in my life. While I was at the lowest a minister called to see me and asked why I did not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had tried so many remedies and had spent so many dollars in medicine that I hardly thought it worth while to experiment any more. However, I was persuaded to try them and after using a few boxes there was some improvement. By the time I had used a dozen boxes I had left my bed and was able to move around, and after a few more boxes I was again perfectly well, and able to do all the work that falls to the lot of a farmer's wife. All this I owe to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I think that after what they have done for me I am justified in recommending them to others."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give new life and richness to the blood and rebuild shattered nerves, thus driving out disease due to either of these two causes, and this means that they effect a cure in a large percentage of the troubles which afflict mankind. Some unscrupulous dealers impose on the public imitations of this great medicine. The genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk or by the hundred or ounce, or in any form except in the company's boxes, the wrapper around which bears the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." No matter what the color of any pill offered in any other shape, it is bogus. These pills cure when other medicines fail.

A Popular Tea.

Over one hundred Grocers in St. John and Fairville sell "RED ROSE TEA" which is blended and packed by T. H. Estabrooks the well known St. John Importer and blender. This speaks well for the popularity of RED ROSE, but it is not confined to St. John. The sales through the Provinces are very large and steadily growing.

Mr Estabrooks devotes his whole attention to the Tea trade and has three travellers on the road.

The most popular of all Mr Estabrooks Teas is RED ROSE, a blend of China, Indian, and Ceylon Teas, the result of most careful experiments. It leads all other medium priced Teas in value. Its strength and flavour are unequalled by any other Tea at the same price. It sells at 35c. per lb. in bulk or in one and one half pound lead packets. Are you drinking "RED ROSE"?

New Grocery Store.

D. D. Porter & Son, lately connected with the firm of Richardson, Porter & Co., have rented one of the stores in G. W. Boyer's new building and have put in a varied stock of all kinds of groceries. They have bought carefully from best wholesalers and their stock is all new and fresh. The public have only to call and see for themselves that it will be to their advantage to trade with the new firm, as the quality of the goods is away up and the prices are away down.

Her Turn.

Guests were expected to dinner at little Flossie's home the other evening and she was in consequence hustled off to bed and milk and bread an hour earlier than usual.

"Here you grown up folks," she sighed as she was laid away, "are going to sit up in your best clothes all evening and eat all those nice things, while I've got to go up stairs with nothing to eat but old bread and milk and go to bed early. Never mind," after a reflective pause, "after a while I'll grow up, and then I'll have all the nice things, and you'll be dead."—Kansas City Star.

On The Railway

The Railway News says:

One of the conductors on Northern Division of the C. P. R. is planning a fishing trip on the head waters of the Tobique River this season. He will have in company his fly, rod, rifle and a peck of lemons.

Bert Dow baggage master on the St. Stephen and Presque Isle Express says he would be satisfied with a good straw hat and call the bet of with Tinker.
