Rev. J. H. Tupper and Mr. Whinant Cliff got over one hundred weight of honey out of a tree on Mr. Slipp's farm Queensborough last week. The comb was about ten feet long and from six inches to a foot in diameter and was found in a white maple tree. Mr. Tupper who is a notable man, says part of the honey was three years old. The Reform Club Band are planning a series of concerts to be given during the winter months, the first probably about the 19th inst. The Band deserves an honorable recognition of its services rendered during the summer, and if its concerts are as worthy of patronage as the one given under its auspices last winter the City Hall should be crowded on each occasion.
