students of the University held a very successful Conversazione last Saturday night in their Debating Hall, and during the evening were honored by the presence of a number of visitors, including Dr. Jack and Prof. Fletcher. The programme consisted of literary and musical selections and was most successfully carried out. Essays were read by G. S. Allan, '80, A. W. Wilkinson, '80, and J. McMillan, '80, which are spoken of a-fine efforts. Mr. W. Q. Ketchum, '82, read his "Imitation Sketches" to the great delight of the audience, and the instrumental music of Messrs.
