

Balkan

CHRISTMAS GOODS AT

Babbitt's.

A splendid lot of SILVER- supreme a delight Christmas was to them-WARE just received. Ele-Watches, Fancy Goods, etc. Prices low.

Fredericton, Dec. 11, 1879.

Albion House

December 11th. CREAT

ease them of their cash, which at no time, address and bale of cloth. That eagerness and least of all at this particular season, do must have been strung up to a very high- and apt to become enthusiastic over a new they find superfluous. But though the joy- pitch, when hundreds of Scotchmen were machine or principle and about business in ous feelings connected with the festival of found willing to give as much as fifteen dol- general. It has resulted that building and Xmas, may have faded from the minds of lars for a seat in a hall in Edinburgh, with enlarging at a time of very great and long many who are in the midst of the hard strug- the privilege of listening to an exposition of continued depression, the firm of L. Cossitu gle of practical life, and immersed in its the financial policy of the government by & Son (formed less than a year ago by the cares and anxieties, there will be few who that great master of finance. will not assume a jollity though they feel it Judging from the tenor of his speech, Mr. not, for the sake of the generation growing Gladstone has progressed in his liberalism ; around them. They will remember how if he is not far enough advanced to please the radical section of the party, he is ahead selves, a quarter a century ago or more: of the moderates. how extreme was the eagerness with which Should the liberal party gain the ascendthey looked forward to the joyous morning; ency after next election, and should he be how long before break of day, they woke to the moving spirit if not the leader of a liberal gant VASES, etc. Jewelry, grope for the gifts that Santa Claus, and the overnment, measures would be introduced good fairies of the house had hung up by > their cots; how when they issued forth new light, seemed to shine upon the earth seem revolutionary; an assault would brighter more hopeful and genial than the nade on the foundation of aristocracy and light of common day. They will not grudge privilege, by changing the laws of entail and to their children the pleasures, which, when settlement and tenure of land, and encouragechildren themselves they so keenly relished. ment would be given to the land agitators in To be sure, a quarter of a century or more ago, Ireland, and the Home Rulers, for Mr. Gladthere was more sentimentality over Christstone has distinctly stated that he is in favor mas, than there is at the present time. Then of relieving the overburdened Imperial Par-Charles Dickens who, was the embodiement liament, and giving the power of local govof the genius of the season in literature, was ernment not to Ireland only, but to Scotland, delighting the English speaking and reading Wales, and even parts of England; local world, with his Christmas Carols and Cricket option with regard to the regulation of the on the Hearth, with his delightful pictures of liquor traffic, would be accorded to districts : Christmas, in merry England, on the fine old and all heresies of reciprocity and protection fashioned farm of the jovial and hospitable would be frowned down. For Mr. Gladstone Wardle. "The papers" were then still fresh s pronounced in his adherence to free trade. and people enjoyed the genial humors and He might probably be counted upon to lend mishaps of Mr. Pickwick and his rare body his influence to disestablish the church of servant, Sam Weller, the cool, the saucy, the England, and the church of Scotland. It is faithful, they sympathised with the old not perhaps strange that the Tory party gentlemen, when the party from the Manor- think of the return of Gladstone to power house, gathered on the frozen pond after with a kind of horror, and that the upper church time on Christmas morning, and the section of the liberal party feel a sinking of grew indignant with the humbug Winkle for the heart at the idea. Gladstone "the peopretending he could skate, and ignominiously ple's William" is in fact "un enfant terrible" failing; they laughed when he, in attempting in politics. His personal greatness, his con-

> to slide broke through the ice and got a duck- scientious independence his outspokenness ing, and they smiled when he kissed the old make him a man per se. By the Tories he is lady his host's mother under the miseltoe detested by the cold and timid of his own and led her down the country dance, old party he is feared, and for the radical he is "Sir Roger de Coverley." There is no not ultra enough, but he is strong in the supdenying that Christmas in literature, and port of great non-conformist, independent Christmas literature, have been rather over- middle class, the practical brain of the lone. They have lost spontaneity and fresh- country.

The Local Government.

though his books live it is impossible to re-The report that Robert Marshall, Esq., M. vive the delight, and genial feelings with P. P., for the City of St. John, was appointed which they were first received, Christma still survives to bring pleasure and hope to

at the present time. He evidently could and was in substance as follows :-ind little or no comfort in viewing the situ-A TERRIBLE CRIME.

L. Cossitt is over sanguine in temperament admission of his eldest son) have been un able to meet their obligations in full and havemade an assignment within the last week

Beyond the mere exchange of patterns the purchase of a few articles by one firm from the other, Messrs. G. M. Cossitt Bro., and L. Cossitt or L. Cossitt & So have not been connected in business since 1858. The one firm is not on the paper of which in a country like England which the other and aside from the interest which tands so staunchly on the "old ways" would the brothers always have had in each others prosperity, the one firm are not, nor will in any way effected by the failure of the > G. M. Cossitt & Bro. kept on at Smith' Falls until 1871, when the town of Brockville, having offered them a bonus of several acres of land adjacent to the G. T. R. freight house, and free taxes for ten years, and the ocation of the town upon the river St Lawrence, and as a railway centre being then much better for their increased business they sold out at Smith's Falls and built and paid cash for the work as it progressed, factory which bas no superior in Canada The buildings and machinery are worth $75,-000 and there is not a mortgage, lien or claim against them, nor has there been since they were completed. At no time in the history of the firm of G. M. Cossitt & Bro. have they ever been pecuniarily embarrassed and their credit ranks very high everywhere. Cautious and conservative in the conduct o their business to a marked degree, there is every probability that their past uniform success will continue as long as they live and Eastern Roumelia......A cattle dealer of keep on manufacturing mowers, reapers and horse hay rakes.

THE WORKSHOP COWPANION .- A Collec lection of Useful and Reliable Recipes Rules, Processes, Methods, Wrinkles and Practical Hints for the Household and the York on Sunday. They are authorized to Shop. Price, 35 cents. New York: The Industrial Publication Company.

There is, probably, not a single reader this notice that has not at some time or other felt the want of some item of information contained in this book, and would gladly have given the price of the volume for one the recipes. The book covers a very wide range of subjects, there being no less than member of the local Executive, took, we ninety main articles, some of which contain

On the 5th of last October an apothecary ation and prospects of St. John, and perhaps named Lagrange, a young man of estimable of New Brunswick and therefore he cast his character, was found murdered in his cellar. eyes to the Eldorado of the North West to With him lived a servant, a bonne, named develop which as speedily as possible he held Zelilie Gillott. She, too, was found dead by ught to be the first policy of a patriotic her master's side. The crime was traced, as communication states, to an assistant overnment. By all means let the North othecary, an apprentice, one Arnold Wal-West be developed, but not to the injury er, a Swiss. Information was received that and neglect of the provinces by the sea. after the crime he fled to this country. Accompanying the package were photographs of the suspected murderer. One of these was Cloths, Jackets, Shawls, It is to be hoped that the Dominion Governnent will modify the tariff in favor of the aken when he was quite a young man; the New Brunswick ship building interests, and other represents him as he looked at the time uch of its manufacturers as suffer most by of his flight. He is twenty-three years of that it will subsidize a line of steamers. age, and is respectably connected ; has a high prominent forehead, black moustache, and which will develop a direct trade in cattle cattering dark thin beard. and agricultural produce between St. John SCENE OF THE TRAGEDY. and England, and a foreign trade in lumber The apothecary Lagrange had his chemist's and salt fish, etc., with South America and hop in the Place Beauvais, at the corner of the West Indies ...... If the Emperor of the Rue Miromenil. Here for a long time ustria's word is to be implicitly relied he carried on his business possessing the conpon, 18th inst., Europe is guaranteed by fidence and respect of all who knew him. On the morning of the 5th October the shutters he treaty between Germany and his Empire f his shop remained closed. Later in the a time of universal tranquillity, and the day, however, the shutters were forced open, Peninsula is promised perfect and access was thereby gained to the store eace by the cautious carrying out search revealed the two corpses lying side v side in the cellar. A careful investigation provisions of the Berlin Treaty howed that the several rooms were stained the world relies but little now with blood, and other evidences of a protractsuch pacific assurance ...... The preed struggle were visible. A heavy iron ent winter is like to be a very hard one pestle of great size was found smeared with several countries; in Silesia the Prusblood. This implement was evidently used a the assault which deprived the two unforsian Polisb peasants are suffering; in Rome unate victims of life. It was also ascertainand Campagna, it is said there is much want; d that robbery was the motive for the crime. n some parts of Persia, and among the Tur-The drawers had been pried open and ranomans there is something very like famine acked of their contents. When life was Ireland a few deaths from famine have extinct the bodies were dragged into the ellar for the purpose, it would appear, of occurred, and in several parts of the country temporary concealment. here is great dearth of food and fuel. The SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES. lestitution will not be nearly so great, let

The simultaneous disappearance of the aphe worse come to the worst, as it was in rentice, Arnold Walder, attracted suspicion 1845, when even the Turk sent its dole of to him as the murderer. He had been in charity to famine stricken Ireland. This year employ of M. Lagrange for some months receding the tragedy. The most energetic the Porte will have enough to do to relieve neasures on the part of the Parisian police the distress among the refugee Mussalmans have so far failed in the detection of the in Philipopolis, Rustchuk, and other parts of alleged criminal. He managed, as is supposed, to make his escape from France, and t is claimed that he is now sojourning in Peoria, Ill., levanted lately, leaving behind this city. Since its occurrence the tragedy him liabilities amonnting to $400,000 ... has been the talk of Paris, and has caused a H. R. H. Princess Louise will sail for Canada profound sensation. About five o'block on on the 22nd of January, 1880 ...... Parnell the afternoon of the tragedy Walder was seen looking over an account book in the and Dillon sailed from Queenstown for New shop in the company of his master, M. Lagrange. Half an hour afterward the latter receive assistance for the relief of the dis- suddenly disappeared, and nothing was seen of him till the following day, when his corpse was found in the cellar. This fact is clearly bers of Waddington Ministry handed in the r established by the testimony of a nephew resignation to President Grevy on Sunday. leceased, who called at the house about six M. De Frey Cinet has been called upon to o'clock to keep an appointment to dine with form a new Government......The Repubdeceased. He was met at the door by Walder, who remarked, 'You have come at a licans in the State of Maine are in a state of very bad time, as M. Lagrange has just gone owing to the depressed state of trade and scarcity of money, latent rebellion and active execration, against out to dine with a friend." Walder proposed is compelled to have a dare say many by surprise. They may not as many as sixty sub-headings. The pages the Governor in Council for their action in that he act as host, and offered to give the bons, Laces, &c.

STAPLE

IOW.

Flannels, Blankets, &c.

INSPECTION INVITED.

Fredericton, Dec. 4, 1879

and Pastry always on hand.

Fredericton, Dec. 18, 1879. 2

A. A. MILLER & CO

LUNCHES.

W. CROTHERS.

AKE AND PASTRY BAKFR, opposite Banl

of British North America, Queen street, begs t

Lunches, Hot Tea and Coffee, &c. at all hours,

WEDDING CAKE.

A GRAND VOCAL AND DRAMATIC EN TERTAINMENT, under the auspices of Victoria Lodge, No. 13, I.O.O.F., will be held in the CITY HALL, TUESDAY EVENING, 30th inst., A choice assortmen onsisting of Quartettes, Duetts, Solos, &c., for Benefit of the Ladies' Circle in connection with of Dress Goods and Black the above Lodge.

Also,

On which occasion, also, will be produced the Frand CHRISTMAS DRAMA, in Two Acts, Goods, prime value, Mantle by Chas. Somerset, Esq., entitled

THE MISTLETOE BOUCH, Or, The Fatal Chest ! Fur Muffs and Caps, MUSIC by Prof. Cadwallader's Orchestra, Flowers, Feathers, Rib-PRICE OF ADMISSION > to all parts of the Hall, 25 cents TICKETS may be had at the Drug Stores of fessis. Davis & J ibblee, J. M. Wiley, and G. H Davis, at the Railway Ticket Office of John Richards, and at the door on the evening of the Ter For further particulars concerning Cast of Characters, &c., see Programmes. A complete stock of Fredericton, Dec. 23, 1879.

"The Lady of the Aroostook," which will begin in January and run through six or more num-Serial Stories by T. B. ALDRICH and HENRY JAMES, Jr.; Short Stories of the highest and most entertaining character; and Poetry, Es. says, Criticisms, Travel Sketches, and articles on important topics in Education, Politics. Industry, Social Science, and whatever interests American readers, by the ablest and most engaging writers HOT TEA, COFFEE, &c.

A FINE PORTRAIT OF DR. HOLMES has been prepared for Atlantic subscribers

TERMS :- $4.00 a year, in advance, postage free; with superb life-size portrait of Holmes, Low-II. Whittier, Bryant or Longiellow, $5.0°; with two portraits, $6.00; three portraits, $7.00; four portraits, $8.00; with all five portraits, $9.00. Remittances should be made by money order, inform the public that he is prepared to furnish draft, or registered letter, to HOUGTON, OSGCOD & CO. BOSTON.

DIAMOND DUST POLISH. MADE TO ORDER, and various kinds of Cak CLARK'S improved Diamond Dust Polish for

Gold Silver, Nickel and Glass. W. CROTHERS. For sale by Opposite Bank of British North America JAMES S. NEILL Dec. 18.

DRY GOODS.

special importations for this season, is prepared to offer

BARGAINS

to all who may favor him with a call.

has also made the ALBION HOUSE his depository for

CHRISTMAS CIFTS.

and the prices are extremely low to suit the times.

WHOLESALE and RETAIL.

Opp. Normal School. Queen Street. F'ton, Dec, 11,

The spirit of Christmas is immortal; it is unfathomable. It is high as heaven, deep as ell, extended as the earth. It has two aseets a heavenly and an earthly. There will ever come a time when the season wherein seat has gone to St. John, as that constituour Saviour's birth is celebrated, will not be kept as a holyday, and a holiday. The The subscriber, having made earthly aspect of the day may change, people nay abandon the superstition of Santa Claus, and give up stocking filling, present giving, and affected joviality, but the heavenly will ndure, as long as faith in the divine mission of Christ servives, and belief in the doctrines accession f christianity sustains men in the conflict with "the world, the flesh, and the devil;

ness. But though the Christmas as described by Dickens has lost much of its charms, and young and old.

stands as follows :as long as its spirit subdues the natural selfish-Attorney General-Hon. J. J. Fraser. ness and hardness of the human heart. In keeping Christmas, we celebrate the most Young. momentous event in the history of mankind : Provincial Secretary-Hon. W. Wedderone which from the time the babe lay in the burn. Chief Commissioner Public Works-Hon. and that she had been carried a short distance nanger, has influenced the course of human P. A. Landry. vents through all the ages, and which while Surveyor General-Hon. M. Adams. Solicitor General-Hon. J. H. Crawford. opening up an immortal future to mankind Members of Executive without officehas gradually impressed on their government Hon. Messrs. W. E. Perley, D. L. Hanington laws and manners, the spirit of mercy, and Robert Marshall. quality, justice, courtesy, and benevolence.

The spirit of Christianity, we must believe, The "North American Review," for Januwill continue to work as long as the v rld endures, bringing nations and individels ary lies upon our table. The articles are of more and more into subjection to its perfect law, overruling the passions of pride ambiion. desire for domination, which lead to unjust wars, bloodshed, and untold miseries, templated Canal across the Isthmus, which is and subduing the selfishness, jealousy, envy views of the author upon the great underand malice, which make man hard bitter and taking against the views of the United distrustful towards his fellows, and which di- States engineers, as for the insight it gives vide society, and utterly spoil life. The spirit of of the author himself. We quote a remark vide society, and utterly spoil life. The spirit of christianity has a great work to perform, and it never had in any age of the world, greater distribution in the man, "My dear Lesseps, "A Mystic LADY.—A strange case oc-curred in Rehoboth, Mass., last week. Mr. Wetherell watched with Mrs. Kent, an in-out of type and home, yet the plucky pro- ber. The second part of Jas. Anthony Froude's prietor has found means to re-establish his article upon Romanism and the Irish Race raised $900 worth of apples in one orchard. | works of Bayard Taylor.

Acadien.

are of good size and closely printed in very have remembered that there was a vacancy in the ranks of the government, or if they But no one will be surprised that the vacant tical, everyday information.

A STRANGE RAILROAD ACCIDENT .--- A ency has usually had two members in the singular railroad accident occurred on the local government. Mr. Marshall was sworn evening of the 15th inst., on the Atlantic in at a meeting of the Executive, at which express train just as it was reaching Clyde, all the members, saving the Solicitor General, N. Y. "Down breaks" had been whistled. but the speed of the train was not much Hon. Mr. Crawford, were present, which was diminished, when a young woman who had held on Saturday evening, and, no doubt, the apparently been asleep, started up, grasped government has been strengthened by his her bundle, ran to the platform of the car, and, without waiting for information, jump-ed from the train. Her body rolled and The government as at present composed, tumbled over and over, and the bundle in her hand was cut in two beneath the wheels. Half a dozen sleeping cars passed her as she President of the Council-Hon. Robert lay just outside the rails upon the ends of the ies. She was found to be badly bruised. but not seriously injured. She supposed that the train had made the halt at Clyde beyond her stopping-place. She refused to ell her name.

A YOUNG SUICIDE.- A Paris school girl, left to the jury. The majority of the court the daughter of a baker, was extremely studious, and had been working hard in order to pass an examination. Her parents tirely satisfactory to him. The case against insisted upon her following their trade-a Sir Francis is thus quashed, and only remains ourse to which she was averse--and told for him as a disagreeable reminiscence...... her that she could not go to school any Despatches of the date of 22nd inst., state the usual high standard, which has always characterised this Review. De Lesseps arose suddenly in school and asked the Government, and in the event of Waddingopens its pages with an article upon the con- lady-principal to kiss her, as she was going ton's not acceding to the request of President away. The teacher told her to remain until Grevy and retaining his position and re-orthe close of school, but the girl persisted in gaing. Half an hour afterward she was gaing. Half an hour afterward she was upon......The stronghold of the Chief found in a closet, shot through the heart, Secveni has been captured, with seeming with a revolver lying by her side.

obstacles to overcome than in the present you are very young, and I give you this coun- valid. The sick lady aroused herself and to the St. John poor, accompanied by a letter day of weak faith in the supernatural and sel, which you will find useful in your future said: "Something dreadfull has happened." flattering to the pluck that the St. John spiritual, and supreme belief in the practical and the material. So, when you have anything and the material. So, when you have anything important to accomplish, that if there are two of you, there is one too many." Francis Park-interval and the door is the door in the door is the man returns to the "Woman Question was opened and a messenger announced to solved the problem of subdividing the elec-Again," and forcibly replies to the champions Mr. Wetherell that his mother, whom he tric light so that it can be used, as gas is, for Although the Moniteur Acadien has passed of Female Suffrage who occupied the pages left in usual health, died suddenly about store and house illumination, and that patents through the experience of being twice burned of the "North American" in a previous num- the time of Mrs. Kent's mysterious disclosure. have been secared for Montreal and Ottawa.

KILLED BY AN AREOLITE.-It is not often General Grant has attained to the supreme in the United States, deserves the serious that a man is killed by a meteor. David position of being "a problem." The question paper, and we find it again amongst our ex- reading of every public man, and every Meisenthaler, stockman, of Whitestone, with his countrymen now is, ', what shall we changes. There is a large French element citizen who takes or should take an interest Kansas, lately, while driving his cows to do with him?" A number of his friends on the North Shore to which such a well in public affairs. Henry James Jr., pens an the barn early in the morning, was struck desire that he should retire from the political edited paper as the above must prove of article upon some correspondence of Sainte by an areolite and instantly killed. The field, and abandon the idea of a third term, edited paper as the above must prove of great value. It is to be hoped success will ander Winchell writes of The Metaphysics of Common water-bucket, and it was formed and it be assured to the future of the Monitenr Science; Cuthbert Mills continues his re- of iron pyrites. The man was fearfully Canal Company. But whilst a number wish marks upon The Permanence of Political For- mutilated. ces and Richard Henry Stoddard, criticises

A WATERY GRAVE.-London, Dec. 23. cans who desire to nominate him for Presi- Trees, and some Leasehold Property. the recent poetical works of Edwin Arnold, A farmer of Wolfville, N. S., this season, aised $900 worth of apples in one orchard. works of Bayard Taylor. It is believed that nearly all of the passen-works of Bayard Taylor. It is believed that nearly all of the passen-gers and crew of the Borussia have perished. which will be held next year at Chicago. Gibson, Dec. 24, 1879.

unting the Democrats and Greenbackers, nephew a share of his dinner. He stated clear type, so that 164 of them contain an or the Fusionists as they are called, so as to that inasmuch as the proprietor had taken unusual amount of matter. The subjects are give them a majority in the Senate and the away the keys of the cellar, they would be did, they may have expected that the lot arranged alphabetically, the work thus form- House of 26 on the joint ballot. As the returns obliged to sup on marsala. After the repast would have fallen on another gentleman. ing an almost complete encyclopædia of prac- stood when submitted to the scrutiny of the they remained in conversation for a time, the Governor and Council the Republicans claim | nephew taking his departure at seven o'clock that they had a majority on the joint ballot p. m. of 36, and they accuse the Council of showing extraordinary favor to the Fusionists. Evidently the Republicans of Maine have One theory favours the general belief that the victims were called separately to their been afforded a rare opportunity to exercise rooms for some ostensible business and there the virtues of self restraint and patience, murdered, their bodies being subsequently which, however, they are not disposed to take removed to the cellar. The police, however, of his whole stock of advantage of. Indignation meetings are being maintain that M. Lagrange was called into held in the State, which may make Governor the cellar by the assistant and there murder-Garcelon tremble in his shoes. Perhaps el. Immediately afterward, they claim, that means may yet be devised to prevent the con- the servant was assassinated in the kitchen. sumation of what appears to be an act of rank The body was then conveyed to the cellar. injustice......On Saturday the Hon. Justice The criminal subsequently robbed the safe of Ramsay, in the Court of Appeal, Montreal, 2,000f. It has been ascertained that he left delivered judgment in the case of Sir Francis the St. Lazare Railway terminus, in the Hinks who was indicted and convicted of willfully making false and deceptive bank returns. He differed from Justice Monk who presided in the case and held that questions such as whether certain loans to other distinctly announced his intention of murderbanks represented in the returns as "other ing M. Lagrange and possessing himself of deposits payable after notice, or on a fixed his property. day," was a correct entry, were mixed questions of fact and law, and should have been concurred with him, and Justice Monk though differing, said that the result was en-

CONFLICTING THEORIES

Deaths.

On Tuesday, the 23rd inst., of Diphtheria. Florence, dearly beloved daughter of Alex. A. and Sarah Sterling, aged five years and ten months.

ease. He was the last of the native chiefs A FIRST-CLASS COOK and a HOUSEMAID. of South Africa who held out. If the Boers Aged persons desired. For information apply do not rise, tranquility may be expected to at the Maritime Farmer Office. reign there ......... The Governor-General has Fredericton, Dec. 24, 1879. 2 [Rep. and Star.

The Annual Meeting of York County Agricul tural Scciety will be held in Temperance Hall on THURSDAY, January 15th, at 3 o'clock, P. M. J. H. REID, President.

VALUABLE PROPERTY This report will require confirmation ...... FOR SALE.

Fredericton, Dec. 24, 1879. 2

The subscriber offers for sale his Property in Gibson (opposite Fredericton), consisting of a experienced Milliners. Farm containing about Two Hundred and Fifty Acres of Land, the tillage portion of which is under a high state of cultivation, with a good Dwelling House and Barns. There are also One to see him out of the way in honorable ob-Single and Two Double Tenement Houses, an scurity, he has a party among the Republiextensive Garden with a lot of valuable Fruit

Grand Clearing Sale

direction of Havre, about eleven p. m. Cir-cumstantial evidences of guilt have been cor-roborated by a letter written by the murderer which must be cleared out by the TWELFTH OF JANUARY, to the widow of the apothecary, in which he MATERIAL, Black Merinos and Cashmeres, Col'd Merinos and Cashmeres, Black Alpacas and Lustres. Special lines in those Goods, from 15 cts. up.

The whole stock of Plain and Fancy DRESS WINCEYS have been reduced to prices which cannot fail to effect ready sales.

The whole stock of FURS (warranted new and fresh) have also been reduced to such extremely low prices as ought to satisfy the most fastidious.

MILLINERY. MILLINERY.

One of the largest stocks of MILLINERY in Fredericton is now to be cleaned out at prices regardless of cost.

MILLINERY WORK done on the premises by

INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Fredericton, Dec. 4, 1879,

FURS.

