Since Christmas have been quite completed, and anybody walking up or down Queen Street, in particular, cannot fail in admiring the tasteful arrangement of goods made by our leading dry goods, grocery, fancy goods, and book and stationery merchants. Our remarks last week brought us as far as the fine establishment of S. F. Shute, in Sharkey's Block and at this point we shall begin our article for this issue.

In the Boot and Shoe trade, Mr. Paniel Lucy does a thriving business and gives good satisfaction. His imported stock, as well as tion of the University students was held tothat gotten up on the premises is cheap and well selected. Now that leather is going up Institution until after the holidays.

so fast, we expect to see Mr. Lucy's shop crowded every ay. The "Golden Fleece" is known far and wide as one of the most fashionable dry goods establishments in the city. Its genial proprietor, Mr. John McDonald, has had a most extended experience in the trade and of patrons. At this season of the year his the popular lesee and manager of the skating
