The Queen of Spades.

The weeks passed by pleasantly, for we were gay enough at home in the winter; but as time went on, and the date approached when we might confidently expect to hear of Walter's arrival in Tasmania, a feeling of grave anxiety took possession of me, and the words of the old dame at Grimwood dwelt in my recollection with a marvellous persistence.

Again and again I endeavoured to laugh our credulity too much, dear." away the recollection of her foreboding words, but it was in vain; and when the Australian mail arrived, bringing neither a letter from Walter nor news of the Sirins in which he sailed, my anxiety increased to such an extent as seriously to affect my health.

is it you have upon your mind, sweet prophetess?" Then, altering her tone, she seats herself on a stool at Adela's feet ful surprise drive all the blood to her my health.

Others were equally anxious with myself; and many an eager eye beside mine daily scanned the column of shipping intelligence in the Times in the hope of reading reassuring news of the missing ship.

It was in vain, I will spare you an analysis of my feelings as day after day hope grew fainter, even though those last words tion. he spoke to me at Grimwood gave me a superstitious belief that he was still alive. Presently came tidings hard to bear. Certain fragments of wreckage had been picked up, which undoubtedly had formed a portion of the ill-fated Sirins; and after another month of weary waiting, it seemed settled beyond a doubt that the unfortunate vessel from some unknown dow on the wintry landscape. "I have cause had gone down in mid-ocean with long since lost sight of the road, and in girls. See! Her Majesty of Diamonds is

And yet I still believe that Walter lives, though fifteen months have passed since he pressed his lips to mine, and bade me adiew in the old house on the bank of the Thames. Yes, Walter lives; I am sure of it, not only for the reason I have already given, but for another, which, though the strong-minded may laugh at it, brought joy and hope to a heart sinking beneath the weight of sorrow and des-

Was it a dream? I cannot say. We will believe it was. I had gone to bed—it was a year ago this very night—even more sad and dispirited than usual. In the middle of the night I woke, or seemed to wake, and as my 'eyes unclosed they rested on a shadowy figure standing at the foot of my is shadowy figure standing at the foot of my is shadowy figure standing at the foot of my is shadowy figure standing at the foot of my is shadowy figure at that favour me with their presence at Haughton Towers.' Then, turning to Rosie, she whispers, "I suppose, dear, they are not all yours. May I ask which is the favoured knight?" cries Rosie, "I have no shadowy figure standing at the foot of my is the same are also as a shadow of the same are also as a shad I had gone to bed—it was a year ago this very night—even more sad and disshadowy figure standing at the foot of my bed. I was not frightened, but gazed steadily upon it, and as I looked the fea-tures grew more and more distinct, until smile, which seemed te speak to me of hope. Then the figure slowly, slowly faded from my bed-foot, and in the place of Lady Diana there gradually grew a picsemblance of a bare precipitous rock rising from a deep blue sea, with the whitecrested waves lapping its base, and on that rock were eight human beings, and one of them was Walter!

the party were engaged in fishing, others in collecting seabird's eggs, and a couple were fetching water from a clear stream that sprang, to all appearance, from the Table, but as mistress of Haughton Towers

This was my vision. Call it credulity if you will, but in my own mind I have not a doubt that what I saw-or dreamt-was a reality, and that at that very moment those eight men were employed in fact as my vision showed them to me. Do not think I should attach so great an importwas, but for a certain confirmation it received in a most unexpected manner.

George Marston-he is a commander in the navy, and has passed half his life between England and Australia—was spending a day or two with us, and one evening was idly turning over the leaves of my sketch-book, in which I had drawn from remembrance the scene I have just described.

"Miss Charlton," he exclaimed in as "Miss Charlton," he exclaimed in as-forget it: it is Despair Island, lying far out of the track of any vessels, and which I suppose, has not been visited by a dozen ships in twice as many years. I landed on it ten years ago, when I was cruising in those latitudes in the surveying ship Hellebore: but how you can have obtained.

Hellebore: but how you can have obtained.

Rosalind cannot keep away from the window, and presently she utters a great window, and presently she utters a great cry of pleasure. "You're right Addie! says Walter, "so didn't have too much of you're right," she cries, clapping her palms together. "Here they come! here they are!"

"Who come?" asks Sibyl: and here cumstance that we were all to a certain Hellebore; but how you can have obtained so accurate a drawing of it, astonishes where all the surveying ship in the surveying ship "Who come?" asks Sibyl; and her cumstance that we were all, to a certain extent, companions in misfortune. When the sait, will find this preparation just what "I have never even heard of it before,'

"The only mistake you have made. Miss Charlton," continued Captain Mars. Hearts. ton, "is putting inhabitants upon it. It

"Those men are there, Captain Mars

I believe the captain and my father thought I had gone mad, and in truth this sudden indentification of the spot so excited my imagination with here the computer the one where the captain and my father at a considerable distance. The color leaves Adela's cheek, and she strains her hair back as she strives with eager eyes to a portion of the wrecked crew of the Sirins had found a refuge on Despair Island. I was prepared to meet with any amount of opposition, if not ridicule, but to my surprise and joy I found Captain Marston listening to me with great attention, and when I concluded my story he

"It is quite possible, Miss Charlton, that you are right-though hardly prob-

To shorten my story, I will only add here. He can't possibly suppose I care ton Towers." that Captain Marston, when he returned to London, made all inquiries about the loss of the Sirins, and with his knowledge of the sea where that unfortunate vessel was supposed to have gone down, became more and more convinced of the likelihood of a boat's crew having succeeded in reaching Despair Island. H. M. S. Archimedes was about leaving

Plymouth for Melbourne, and he and my father exerting their joint influence at the Admiralty, succeeded in procuring instructions for the captain to diverge from his course, in order to call at Despair Island, on the chance of discovering the back into the cushions of her chair, cover-

Any day now I may hear the result, and no, no!" she sobs; "I cannot think it-I am as confident as I can be that Walter dare not believe it. There is no one for has been rescued by the Archimedes, and me-no one in the whole world! I am that ere long I shall see his dear face alone. You may laugh, you may ridicule, you cries Rosalind, as she waves a filmy pocketmay call me superstitious-foolish; but handkerchief.

Walter lives -I know it!

CONCLUSION.

the journey to reach them.

The stories have all been told.

mers Rosalind, utterly dismayed. Knaves or Kings? Sibyl crosses the room, without so much as a glance at the four visitors now rapidly approaching, and with sharp hand de-Twelve hours have passed since Adela Charlton concluded her story, and the cisively pulls down the blinds. "It is my house, Miss Grahame," she says severely; four ladies are again assembled in the "and you must obey the wishes of your breakfast-room of Haughton Towers. The morning is dull, the clouds are hostess. These gentlemen-whoever they may be-will not be admitted. My serleaden-hued; during the night there has vants have already their instructions in been a heavy fall of snow, and small white case of such an attempt being made." feathery flakes are still floating gently through the air. That view from the "Yes," says Estelle; "but when we breakfast-room window, so beautiful in agreed to be Knightesses, we didn't think summer, is sad and depressing, with that the gentlemen were on their way lowing particulars: nothing to relieve the long, long stretch home." of monotonous white but the weird and "Besides, you know," puts in Adela, sombre tree-trunks. The gloom outside blushing, "King Arthur was married." affects the spirits of the four Queens, who Sibyl turns away and rests her head speak little, but look wistfully over the wearily against the tall oakcarved chimsnow-clad moorland, across which they neypiece, her eyes bent wistfully upon cannot hope to venture for many days, the smouldering logs; and Rosalind takes all persons desirous of referring to it without perhaps weeks, to come, and over which the opportunity, with a roguish look at they dare not hope any stranger will risk her two friends, to open the door noiselessly and leave the room.

Estelle and Adela envy her her cour-Haughton Towers is surrounded by hill age, and look at each other silently, then and dale; and in the latter, Sibyl knows, at the door doubtingly; but Rosalind, a the snow lies many feet deep. They are spoilt girl, who fears nothing and dreads virtually prisoners and upprepared for pobody, is of a wholly different disposivirtually prisoners, and, unprepared for nobody, is of a wholly different disposisuch a catastrophe, they have foolishly tion to these others.

lavished the one source of amusement Sibyl remains motionless, and Estelle they possessed in themselves, in the nar- and Adela, their arms about each other's ration of the histories of their past lives, waists for sympathy, stand half-way beon the first four evenings after their en- tween the shaded window and the closed rolment as Ladies of the Round Table. door, listening eagerly for any sound J. B. GRIEVES, Proprietor.

but she need not have feared ridicule, for liers. even Rosalind Grahame, who shows but The snow deadens the sound of the scant respect to anything, has compune horses' hoofs, and they are thus unable to tions of conscience about teasing one hear what is passing outside. At last the whose sole happiness depends upon her suspense becomes unbearable, and with belief in the superstition of Grimwood. such glances as mischievous schoolgirls This morning she looks brighter; there is might throw at a nodding schoolmistress, REFRIGERATORS at a reduction at JAMES S. I an animation in her eyes which makes they cross the room on tiptoe.

them rival even those of the Queen of Sibyl sees them, but she has not the Hearts, and she alone is free from the heart to bid them stay. pervading gloom. "Poor things!" she mumurs, as the "What are we going to do?" asks Es- door closes behind them; and she speaks see a speedy end to our captivity?"

must be four feet deep."

-that Mr. Brandon."

moment, she turns away impatiently.

resolutely to refuse them admittance."

hame moans mutinously,- soldier?"

he looks!

for him.

she feels.

"You don't mean to persuade me," the others have ever been here."

"Here they come! here they are!"

"Pul! down the blind," cries Sibyl

"What-what-pull-what?" stam say so!" cries Rosie; "but why?"

"Lady Diana?" asks Estelle.

have visitors.

telle. "If the weather continues like with the experience of her terrible sorthis till to-morrow we shall be fairly sow. "Silly moths! they will singe their blocked in, and they will not even be wings. What girl ever yet condescended able to reach us from the village." to learn by the experience of others? "We are well victualled in case of such Well, at any rate, I have done all I could an emergency," replies the hostess. to shield them from the consequence of body to talk scandal about, and we shall some man, whose face is browned by exdie of ennui unless something happens." posure to tropical suns, gently crosses the "Perhaps something will," says Adela, room, the thick carpets deadening the sound of his footsteps as effectually as "What do you mean?" asks Sibyl. the snow outside had that of his horse's "What can happen? You mustn't try hoofs, and stands by Sibyl's side ere she was aware that any one had entered. "Speak, gracious Majesty of Spades," She rises with a shriek, and a colour-and takes her hand caressingly in her heart and seem to stop its beating. But own two. "Tell me, dear; do you fore- a strong arm is round her waist, and yielding without a struggle, the Queen of Dia-Then Sibyl interrupts sternly, "We monds, the Foundress of the new Order, Ladies of the Round Table are expected to be content with each other's society, clasp her, and hides her face, now sufand to seek no other. Rosalind, you are fused with rosy blushes, on the shoulder unfaithful to your yow. Am I not right?" of the man she loves.

She turns to the other two for confirma- They are both so intent on the enjoyment of their new-found happiness, that "Certainly,' says Estelle slowly, and they are neither conscious they are no with a long-drawn sign—"certainly." longer alone. Rosalind Grahame, lean-"Undoubtedly," chimes in Adela, with ing on the arm of Fred Brandon, whose considerable hesitation. "But, although good looks more than warrant the praises we may consent not to seek society, what's | bestowed on them by the Queen of Hearts steals up gently, and, with her face all smiles and blushes whispers to two other couples who press in behind her. says Rosalind, still gazing from the win-

"We have no need to ask absolution. the hollow by the oak-copse the drifts already in the toils! Ah, Sibyl, Sil! did you think yourself so much stronger "Still," says Adela, "I think we shall minded than all of us poor weak crea-"Oh, you dear! how good of you to The face that Sibyl turns to her friends is so bright with love, so full of pride in "I dreamt again last night," she re-plies timidly, as if deprecating ridicule. "We are all false to our vows," she "I dreamt again of that—that ancestress says, "and must pardan each other; but of mine, of whom I told you—she whose in the meantime," and she looks coquet-portrait hangs in the gallery of Grim- tishly at the bronzed and bearded men who stand before her, "meantime, I shall be glad to learn who these gentlemen are "Yes; it was she. Do you remember that favour me with their presence at horseback crossing a snow-covered moor knight; this is my Knave. Come, girls, -and-and the first of them was Wal- present your Knaves to Her Majesty.' And the men, entering into the spirit "Who were the other three?" cries of the thing, advance and do obeisance at I plainly recognized the face of Lady Diana,—the face of the picture at Grim Now were the other three. Of the fact of the Queen of Diamonds, who were two of them dark and two of them smiles most graciously on her new sub-Her expression was sad and pitying as she fixed her eyes upon me, but presently across her face there passed a soft sweet smile, which seemed to speak to me of smile, which seemed to speak to me of smile who of them dark and two of them dark an venture to come; but the others of course the group before her, "that no arrival were Edgar and Jack, and-oh, I suppose could have been more opportune than this, still, I think I am speaking for the Sibyl looks very wistfully from the win- other ladies as much as for myself when I ture which I can see at this moment as dow, as if in the expectation of seeing confess to a burning curiosity to know distinctly as at that time. It was the Adela's dream realized; but the next how it happens that you should all come together. "Ah, dears, when you learn how serious

"Report! report!' cries Rosie.a thing a husband is, you will not joke "Where is my Knave? Come here, sir; about your flirtations; besides," she con- explain yourself." They had built themselves a hut with portions of a wrecked vessel. Some of friends of any of friends, of any of our sisterhood, I should ma'am."

consider it my duty, not only as Foundress of the Order of Ladies of the Round "Bombay!" cries Rosalind contemptuously; "what took you to Bombay?" "I thought I wasn't appreciated in England," he says, with a sly glance at his A look of blank dismay comes over fair questioner; "so I went to shoot Adela Charlton's face, and Rosalind Gra- tigers. "You-you-shoot tigers!" cries Rosa "If Adela's vision is true," says Estelle lind clapping her hands; "I didn't think demurely, "there will be just one apiece, it was in you." for us. Addie, dear, did one look like a Then Arth Then Arthur Desmond steps forward with a military salute. "Just returned "The poor fellow's wounded," cries tion from the fire-glow hides her face be- Estelle.

but still-still-now you all know the coming home.'

tonishment, "from what did you copy this?" story of my life, you cannot expect me to dismiss a dream like that as one of those mond, "fellows always strike up hot "You know it?" I asked.

"Know it! None who have seen it can foolish brain-vagaries upon which one friendships on board those steamers, though they often end in quarrelling be-the chair. Her body is bent slightly for smoking our cigars and pacing the deck, they want. ward with eagerness, and yet she will not we naturally fell to talking of the friends I answered. You can imagine how my rise to go to the window. "Who are we should see in England, and then we with them in case of accident, found that we had each a very dear some-body from whom cruel Fate had separated us. Wasn't that so, Fred?" and he with them in case of accident.

In fact all who are in need of such an article should not fail to try a box and be convinced, as many have, that it is the best Plaster in use.

Price 25 cents. Sold by all druggists and deal-

She looks steadfastly through the frost- turns to Mr. Brandon. ed panes, while Estelle and Adela crowd "I believe it was," replies he. "We her on either side in their eagerness to opened our hearts to one another, and a ton," I cried excitedly, "and one of them view the cavaliers, who are ploughing common sorrow made our friendship the their way through the snow, and are still stronger."

"Do you mean to say you talked about leaves Adela's cheek, and she strains her me?" cries Rosalind. hair back as she strives with eager eyes to "I think we all talked about our recited my imagination with hope, while it convinced me of the vision I had seen, that I hardly knew what I was saying or doing. After a while, growing calmer, I narrated my dream—if dream it was—and recognize the one whom she longs to see. "It is, it is Walter!" she shrieks, "and the impudence actually to mention my name on board a common stermship?" she continues.

"I don't see Edgar, though," says Rosa-lind, "nor yet Jack;" and she pouts as "I suppose none of these ladies ever again expressed my firm conviction that she turns to Adela, and asks, "Do all spoke of her love disappointments," says these men come from your horrid is- Fred with a smile. And the four ladies colour and look "No, no!" cries Estelle joyfully, there conscious, thinking it will change the is Arthur Desmond; and how handsome subject.

"Of course," resumes Douglas, "our first act on getting ashore at Southampsays the Queen of Hearts, finishing, that ton was to telegraph each one to the lady there's no one at all for me? Oh, yes, there's that sulky thing lagging behind. Of course that's Fred—I mean Mr. Brannoon.

don. It's like his impertinence to come "Away from home, staying at Haugh-"I, who telegraphed to you here, re Sibyl has never left her seat by the ceived no answers at all. How was that, fire; she shows only by the quivering of |Sibyl?"

the muscles of her mouth the excitement "I refuse all letters and telegrams." "Come, Sib," cries Estelle kindly, as The explanations are not to long proshe lays her hand upon the other's arm. tracted, for eack Knave has so particular 'Here is yet a fourth—it must be Cousin | an account to give of himself to his Queen Douglas, or Sir Douglas Haughton, I sup- that the conversation very shortly ceases pose I should say. See, here they come, to be general, and resembles four separround the sweep, and he is pointing out ate and distinct cooing duets, which conthe track: who else can it be? None of tinue without intermission until the close of day-the dull, drear, dismal day that But Sibyl shudders and shrinks farther commenced so gloomily, whose waning back into the cushions of her chair, covering her face with her handkerchief. "No. prise at the rapid flight of time.

Gathered about the Round Table, with the bright lights burning and the ruddy hearth glowing, the four ladies meet their four knights at the altar so recently dedicated to the total remunciation of the male sex. Then and there the sisterhood, after a short and not particularly merry life of five days, is for ever dis-

And after all, they were not four Knaves but four Kings, and they took the four

THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE having F FARMs and other Real Estate in this Province of which the owners may be desirous of making sale. Parties wishing to avail themselves of this Registry are requested to address Extent, and Description of Soil; Buildings and general or special advantages; Price and terms of payment and when posses sion will be given.

JULIUS L. INCHES,

Office for Agriculture, F'ton, May, 1881

REGENT STREET, FREDERICTON, N. B.

and Steamboat Landing. Terms moderate. Stabling and yard accommodation of the very

REFRIGERATORS. JAMES S. NEILL'S. August 4, 1881

Blank Book Manufactory

I AM PREPARED TO MANUFACTURE "Yes, yes," cries Rosalind dolefully; their blind confidence."

"but food is not everything. What are we to do? We have all told our stories; Adela has read our fortunes; there is nodated talk confidence."

While Sibyl thus communes with her self, gazing still at the blazing fire, the door opens very softly, and a tall hand-some with the consequence of their blind confidence."

ACCOUNT BOOKS!

Blank Books

Full Calf, Russia Bands, Full and Half Bound, in Russic Calf, Vellum, Sheep, &c. Bil-heads, &c., Ruled to order.

RUSSIA, CALF, MOROCCO ANTIQU ROWAN, SHEEP, and CLOTH, Ber Gilt, Marble or Colored Edges. TEN Crests, Arms, Monograms, &c., &c.,

LETTER-PRESS BINDING.

N. B. JAMES Corner Queen and Regent Streets, OVER "CAPITAL" OFFICE, FREDERICTON, - - N. B.

May 29, 1881.

Stamped in Gold, Silver or Colors.

JAMES D. HANLON, Cabinet Maker, Upholsterer and

Undertaker,

UNDERTAKING.

Prompt attention given to Country Orders.

Wood Seat Hand-Made Chairs cheap for cash.

A lot of Children's French Bedsteads, finished in Ash and at low prices.

Furniture Neatly Repaired. Fredericton, Ju,ly 14

GATES' TS a PURELY VEGETABLE PREPARATION

from some of our most valuable roots, etc., possessing medicinal properties. An excellent remedy for strengthening the Back and Sides. For Pulmonary disease it would be advisable to put it between the shoulders. IT CURES

Lame Back, Oracked Hands, Lame Sides, Spinal Disease, Boils, Erysipelas, Cuts, Burns, CUTS ON HORSES AND CATTLE. Queen Street, of this and "Acadian Liniment" in the woods ers throughout the Maritime Provinces. C. GATES, SON & CO.,

Muddleton, N. S.

HENRY RUTTER, HARNESS MAKER

and dealer in English and American Saddlery. Also, a full stock of WHIPS, BRUSHES, CURRY COMBS, Collars, Saddles, Bridles, Girth and Rein Webs, Chamois Skins, Harness Soap, etc. All kinds of Interfering and Speed-Cu Repairing done with neatness and despatch. At the Old Stand, Opposite County Court House, Queen St., Fredericton.

HAYING TOOLS.

25 DOZ. Hay Rakes, 25 boxes Scythe Stones, 75 Grindstones, fine grit; cases Grindstone Hangings 2 barrels Barn Door Rollers;

2 cases Carriage Bolts; 2 " Tire and Stove Bolts; 75 kegs Cut Nails; cask Shut Zinc cases Wrought Iron Shutter Hinges; 3 cases General Hardware; 4 rolls Green and Fancy Window Shade case Cotton Sash Cord; 1 keg Nut Leads; 10 rolls Dry Sheathing Paper.

For sale as usual R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

ORGANS

Tuned and Repaired. E. CADWALLADER

SUNBURY STREET (beween Charlotte and George Sts). Nails and Oils.

KEGS Shingle Nails; 4 bbls. Paint Oil; 16 doz. Rim Locks; 16 doz. Mineral Knobs; 2 bbls. Wool Oil; 600 papers Lining Nails for Carriage Builders; 14 gross Odd Keys, alı kinds 7 doz. Nickel Plated Knobs, Just received and for sale as usual. R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA, THE BEST Two-Horse Thresher Cleaner IN THE MARKET.

WEIGHT ONLY 2,300 POUNDS. For prices and description write to SMALL & FISHER, Woodstock, N. B

A MONIH warranted. $5.00 a day at home. Our agents, men, omen, boys and girls are get-$5.00 premiums free to agents. Capital not required. Write at Adela's story occasions some discussion, which may tell of the arrival of the cavawork is light and pleasant, any one can do it. Write to us, you will never regret it. We can start you. One agent in Portland, Me., cleared $20 in one day.

J. M. SHAW & Co., Hallowell, Me 900 COMMON Chairs for sale cheap by

J. G. McNALLY.

BOYD'S BATTERIES,

Hop Bitters,

Do Men gather Grapes from Thorns, or Figs CAMPBELL'S QUININE WINE,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PUTNER'S FMULSION

VEGETINE,

SPONGES AND CHAMOIS, -AT-

Drug Store, KING STREET, FREDERICTON, N. B. Corner Queen and Regent Sts.

Fredericton, July 14

NEW CARPETS.

have just opened the largest assortment of BRUSSELS

TAPESTRY CARPETS ever offered in this city, with

RUGS TO MATCH.

ALSO: DUTCH

Walnut, on hand and for sale HEMP CARPETS.

JOHN M'DONALD.

CABINET MAKER

(near County Court House,) Fredericton.

Where may be found a stock of Furniture of al Descriptions, Also, a full line of

CASKETS AND COFFINS

Robes & Shrouds, Crapes & Cloves. Orders from the Town and Country will receive prompt and careful attention.

FITTING, GAS Plumbing, &c.

THE subscriber keeps on hand a large assort-TINWARE

He has engaged the services of M r. ILLIA M REID, who is thoroughly acquainted with Gas Fitting, Plumbing, well Boring, and putting in

ELLIS' Patent Burner He makes it a specialty to regulate the above when putting

SOLE AGENT

All orders promptly attended to, and work satisfactorily done. 4.5 Gas Fittings always in stock. A. LIMERICK,

SAVE YOUR MONEY Mr. W. H. Cetchell. that talented

G. W. SCHLEYER'S STUDIO in about 15 days, and will remain during the month of September only. Specialties made LARGE PANELS, LARGE HEADS, Cabinet, Card and Gem Photographs.

PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTIST.

PRICES MODERATE FOR GOOD WORK BABIES' PORTRAITS. Mr. Getchell cannot be surpassed in taking CHILDREN'S PICTURES. Engagements made cope," together with new Backgrounds, Chairs and other accessories, which are necessary to furnish good work, has been added to this estab-

For further particulars call at the Studio. August 4, 1881 First Premium Exhibition, 1878,

REED & REED WOULD respectfully call the attention of the GOOD HOUSEWIFE to the superior qualpronuc & wich faction guaranteed.

Bottom Prices. Wholesale or Retail. THURING M MIDLD Standard Weight and Imperial Measure. They manufacture an article not excelled by any in the market, either domestic or imported. MERCHANTS near the upper St. John wili wishes his customers to listen to the gentle promptings In the Morning Sow thy Seed, &e.

REED & REED

ELY PERKINS

GRASS SEED. Clover and Turnip Seed, Seed Wheat and Seed Oats.

on Thistles ?- No. The Tree is known by its Fruit.

HOME LESSONS

ELY PERKINS, AT HIS WHOLESALE AND RETAIL FLOUR STORE

desires to thank his first-class customers for their very bountiful patronage during the past year, and respectfully solicits a continuance of their favors for the future. In Store a large and varied assortment of SEEDS, pure and true to their kind; together with a fine stock of Dalmation Insect Powder Groceries, Flour, Meal, Pork, Dry Goods and Earthenware, which will be sold at reasonable rates.

> CARRIAGE and SLEIGH FACTORY! King St., - - Fredericton, N. B.

> > R. COLWELL, Proprietor.

Fredericton, May 12, 1881.

CARRIAGES, WACCONS, SLEIGHS and PUNGS Built to order in the latest and most durable styles.

MATERIAL and WORKMANSHIP of the BEST PARTICULAR ATTENTION GIVEN TO Painting, Trimming and Repairing Carriages, etc ON HAND:

A LARGE LOT OF IVERS,

PIANO BOX, TOP PHÆTONS, WAGON CONCORDS, GENERAL GRANDS

SLEIGHS AND PUNGS TO BE SOLD CHEAP. Terms to give satisfaction.

PRACTICAL

AND A LARGE LOT OF

PLUMBING GAS FITTING!

ESTABLISHMENT. THIS establishment now having two thor-L oughly PRACTICAL PLUMBERS and Gs FIT-TERS in their employ, are prepared to attend to all work entrusted to them in a thorough workmanlike manner.

Parties desiring to have their houses fitted with all the modern improvements in the above business, would do well to apply to us for estimates before going elsewhere.

A variety of GLOBES and PATENT GAS RURNERS for sale cheap.

GAS, STEAM and HOT WATER FITTINGS, al Orders for Tin Roofing promptly attended to. Tinsmiths Work of every discription, and of the best material manufactured to order on Prices to suit the times.

> J. & J. O'BRIEN, Queen Street, Fredericton, N. B.

UMBER. The subscriber begs to announce to the public that he has always on hand and for sale a good and varied stock of SPRUCE, PINE, AND HEMLOCK LUMBER, consisting of Dry Pine Plank, 11, 12, and 2 inch, thoroughly seasoned and planed; Dry Pine Boards, well [1881] seasoned, planed on one and both sides, and tongued and grooved. Also good Dry Laths and Cedar Rosewood, Walnut and Cloth Covered. Shingles of every quality; together with a stock of Hemlock Logs, from which we are prepared to saw to order at short notice!

BILLS OF SCANTLING of any dimensions. Merchant Tailor, A large quantity of REFUSE LUMBER All orders promptly delivered. Please call at my Yard, WEST END MILL.

RICHARD A. ESTEY. CEDAR SHINGLE STOCK WANTED, by the cord or otherwise.

FREDERICTON MONUMENTAL WORKS Queen t., just above Roform Cinh Rooms.

THE Subscriber begs to inform the Public that he is prepared to execute all sorts of PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL MONUMENTS, TABLETS, FENCE STONES & POSTS.

First Class Material and Workmanship guar-JOHN MOORE. F'ton, Feb. 3

Haying Tools.

JUST RECEIVED DIRECT : 45 Doz. Scythes, consisting of American Canadian Clippers, Razor Blade, Black Snake, Oshawa and Griffin Pattern; 47 doz. Hay Rakes; 10 " Scythe Sneaths; Scythe Stones; 15 " Hay Forks; Bush Scythes and Reaping Hooks. Cheaper than the Cheapest.

GRINDSTONES. 107 GRINDSTONES—best we ever had; bbls. Lard Oil;

Z. R. EVERETT.

3 bbls. Machine Oil; 5 bbls. Paint Oil 35 kegs Cut Nalls: 6 doz. Enamelled Preserve Kettles, assorted sizes; 50 lbs. Salmon Twine. Just to hand and for sale as usual.

CHOICE brands of Flour-Buda, Patent Pro-

Cess, Baker's Choice, Crown of Gold, Stand-

R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

JAMES S. NEILL.

ard, Pidgeon, and Tranquility; Graham Flour, Rye Flour; Oatmeal, Corn Meal, Buckwheat Meal; Scotch and Granulated Sugar; Choice Porto Rico and Barbadoes Molasses; A large stock of Choice English and American Extra Teas at very Low Prices; Real Java Coffee, Tobacco, Snuff, Kerosene Oil, Fruits and Canned Goods, &c., with a large Stock of general goods. For sale at Potatoe Diggers. and it especially advantageous to deal with them. All orders promptly filled, and satis-

August 4, 1881

McMURRAY & BURKHARDT, PHOTOGRAPHERS.

In the practice of Honesty, Truth and Virtue, will be found the only safe-guards against the ills of life.

Photgraphs and Ferrotypes Enlarged, and Copies made in First Class manner.

CHILDREN'S PHOTOGRAPHS A SPECIALTY!

FRAMES of all kinds made to order FREE. McMURRAY & BURKHARDT,

Opposite Stone Barracks, Queen Street, Fredericton.

T. G. O'CONNOR,

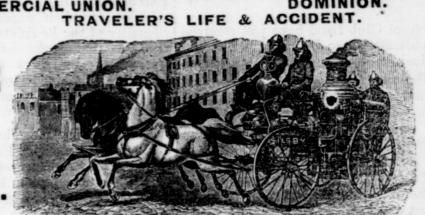

Now in stock, a large and varied assortment of GENTS' SUMMER SUITINGS, WORSTED COATINGS,

WEST OF ENGLAND BROADS, CANADA TWEEDS, WEST OF ENGLAND CASSIMERES, HARVEY HOMESPUNS. WEST OF ENGLAND DOESKINS, OXFORD HOMESPUNS.

Gents' Furnishings, &c.

Goods sold from the Piece or Made to Order as may be desired. T. G. O'CONNOR,

HE undersigned is agent for the following Insurance Companies which have Capital and assets amounting to fully $100,000,000, affording the most perfect security possibe, SCOTTISH COMMERCIAL NORTH BRITISH & MERCANTILE. LANCASHIRE. LIVERPOOL & LONDON & CLOBE. DOMINION. COMMERCIAL UNION.

These Companies are well known for the honorable, liberal, and straight-forward manner in

SCHOOL BOOKS, STATIONERY,

FANCY GOODS,

WM. JENNINGS,

has now open for inspection at his his Spring Stock, comprising

TWEEDS.

in great variety.

DIACONALS

Worsted Coatings.

BROADCLOTHS DOESKINS

Making it one of the most desirable Stock to

Gentlemen can always rely

WM. JENNINGS.

JOHN A. EDWARDS,

on getting the latest styles and first-

TO LET

THE DWELLING and OFFICES on Carleton

Street, known as the OLD POST OFFICE.

TO LET.

Apply at once to

TO LET

TWO Tenement Houses at west end of Queen

Axe Steel.

BECKWITH & JORDAN.

City Hall, F'ton.

FRASER, WETMORE & WINSLOW

class workmanship.

Fredericton, Feb. 24.

F'ton, May 19.

March 10, 1881.-tf.

Fredericton, July 14, 1881.

Queen Street, Fredericton.

BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Solicitors,

Notaries Public

IFREDERICTON.IN. B. Loans negotiated, and Agency business romptly attended to. Frederictn, Feb. 3.

PORWARDS Merchandise, Money and Packages of every description, collects bills, with Goods, Drafts, Notes and Accounts, English, Scotch and Canadian Opposite City Hall, - - Fredericton, G. W. DICKIE, Agent.

THE BEST REMEDY

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. AYERS

CHERRY

efficiency and uniform-

at hand in every household for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

knowing its composition, prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proven its absolute certain

Lowell, Mass. SOLD BY ALL DAUGGISTS EYERTWEENE.

British and Foreign Woollen Manufactures, &c.

SCOTCH TWEEDS, SERGE SUITINGS, MELTONS, CHEVIOTS, SAXONY TWEEDS, &c., &c., &c.

First Class Cutter, First Class Suits, Lowest Hard-pan Prices.

INSURANCE!

All kinds of insurable property insured at moderate rates. Detached Dwelling Houses and contents insured for three years at lowest rates. Losses promptly settled and no unnecessary trouble given.

Office on Queen Street, opposite the CITY HALL, where every information can be

JULIUS. L. INCHES

AGAINST

The Cheapest and best place in this City to buy

NEW BOOK STORE!

McMURRAY & FENETY'S,

CHEAP BOOK STORE!

(1881) BECKWITH & JORDAN,

Conveyancers. &c. IOFFICE-CITY:HALL BUILDING,

Tailoring Establishment, THE Cor Queen St & Wilmot's Alley, American Express Company

Running daily (Sunday excepted), to all points East and West.

Fredericton, May 5, 1881

monary organs a safe and reliable remedy is invaluable. AYER's CHERRY PECTORAL is the public. It is a scithe medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, of such power as to insure PECTORAL. ity of results. It strikes at the foundation of all oulmonary diseases, affording prompt relief and rapid cures, and is adapted to patients of and rapid cures, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily. In ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of Aver, Herry Pectoral are magical, and mutually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household for the pro-

Low prices are inducements to try some of the many mixtures, or syrups, made of cheap and ineffective ingredients, now offered, which, as they contain no curative qualities, can afford only temporary relief, and are sure to deceive and disappoint the patient Diseases of the throat and lungs demand active and effective treatment; and it is dangerous experimenting with unknown and cheap medicines, from the great hability that these diseases may, while so trified with, become deeply seated or incurable. Use AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and you may confidently expect the best results. It is a standard medical proposition of known and standard medical preparation, of known and acknowledged curative power, and is as cheap as its careful preparation and fine ingredients will allow. Eminent physicians, monary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists,

JUST received, direct, a large lot of FIRTH'S Extra Cast Steel for Axes. For sale low. Z. R. EVERETT

Next below Barker House, Queen St., Fredericton