Communications.

To the Editor of the Maritime Farmer.

I would almost propose that it should be adopted as part of the National Policy.

JOHN D. WILMOT, Belmont, Dec. 3, 1881.

Maritime Farmer.

The Citizens' Ball.

"Time flies," Christmas will soon be reached, the New Year entered upon, and then in a little over a month the legislative assembly will be heard in Fredericton.

The new Legislative Buildings is to be celebrated by a grand festival, and that the festival should take the shape of a Ball.

September 15th, 1881.

Now that it is known that H. R. H. the Princess Louise will return with His Excellency in January, there is an unusual demand for rooms and furnished houses for persons and families desiring to spend the Court season at Ottawa.

A certain New York gentleman recently wrote a letter to a well-known publishing house in Boston, calling their attention to some omissions in one of their publications.

A few days later the gentleman received a letter from the publishers, in which they said:—"If there are any omissions in the book, they must have crept in by mistake."

Serjt. Cowley, of the Second Durham (Seaham Harbour) volunteers, who won the Queen's prize at the late Shoburness artillery meeting, died recently of inflammation of the lungs.

The Imperial Parliament has been prorogued the 7th February, when it will meet for the despatch of business.

Lieut-Governor Cauchon has sold his farm of 500 acres in the suburbs of Winnipeg to the Syndicate for $100,000.

Sir Leonard Tilley and Sir Hector Langevin will address the citizens of Brockville in the opera house in that city to-morrow.

A New York divine says the depletion of the churches is due to dancing. He never knew an intellectual man who was a good dancer.

Mark Twain, lecturing on the Fiji Islands, offered to show how the cannibals ate their food if any lady would lend him a baby.

"Were you ever in an engagement?" inquired an innocent rustic of a great city militiaman. "Yes, one," replied that son of Mars; "but she went back on me."

Mr. Beecher characterized the Guitteau trial as the spectacle of an "imbecile judge at one end of the bench and a vagrant fool at the other." Guitteau subsequently sneered at Beecher.

Dr. M. S. Leslie, of Lexington, Ky., says that the best remedy in ordinary hiccup is about twenty-five grains of common table salt, placed in the mouth and swallowed with a sip of water.

The Bank of Montreal has already sold $200,000 worth of the Canada Pacific land grant bonds, and applications are pouring in for more from all parts of Canada and the United States.

It is stated that Mr. Sackville West has been instructed to draw the attention of the Government at Washington to the tone and conduct of certain Irish organs published in the United States.

Steps are being taken to open an institution for the theological training of native missionaries in India, to be supported by the whole of the Presbyterian churches represented in that field.

Woodstock, in four years has lost by fire property valued at from $400,000 to $600,000. Yet it is likely the old style wooden structures will be generally adopted in rebuilding the burnt portions.

The London Telegraph has a circulation of 225,000 copies daily; the Standard 210,000; the Daily News 130,000; the Times about 70,000; Lloyd's Weekly, one penny, has a circulation of 600,000 of each issue.

"Will you please insert this obituary notice?" asked an old gentleman of a Binghamton editor. "I made bold to ask it because the deceased had a great many friends about here, who'd be glad to hear of his death."

Mr. John Morley, in writing of Cobden's natural style, says that classical training is more aptly calculated to destroy the qualities of good writing and fine speaking than any other system that could have been contrived.

At Olesse the other day Sara Bernhardt's carriage was stoned by a mob of anti-Jewish fanatics, on the ground that the artist is of Israelitic extraction. They also stoned her hotel and also stopped the performance at the theatre.

It is said the first time Sitting Bull attended a white man's party he made a break for the door the moment a waltz was struck up. He afterwards explained that he supposed an alarm of fire had been given, and that each brave was trying to carry out a squaw.

P. G. Sherlock, of the Fenian old guard, said at Chicago the other day:—"Fenianism has had its field day and can retire on its laurels." It was a bad field day that the Fenians had on the Canadian frontier when they were compelled to retreat with few laurels.

The Japanese go in for the "real thing" when instructing their soldiers in the "arts protective." During their recent autumn manoeuvres they fired a village, burned outlying houses, and devastated the country generally. It was expensive, but they don't care for that.

General Sherman recommends that the United States army be increased to 25,000 enlisted men and 3,750 of a non-combatant force—in all 30,440. He says the army is overworked, and wants each company to be composed of sixty-two enlisted men and three officers.

It is understood that Drs. Agnew, Hamilton, and Bliss "will consider twenty-five thousand dollars apiece, a fair compensation for their work in President Garfield's case." It is not known what amount Guitteau will consider a fair remuneration for his share in the same case.

Frederick Douglass is now in a comfortable and well-salaried office at Washington. He has become popular in person and affluent in capital, his fortune being over $100,000. He writes a fine, round, clear hand, and may in all respects be counted the first colored gentleman of the time.

Guitteau puzzles the insanity experts because they cannot very well prove him insane, and he bothers the reporters because he speaks so quickly they can't "take" him. The permission given to one accused of murder to take the stand in his own behalf is said to be unprecedented.

Dr. Thomas, of Chicago, who has just been deposed from the Methodist ministry for heresy, says his new congregation consists chiefly of those who had no previous church connection. All the chairs are leased for a year, at from $5 to $25. The pastor receives a salary of $3,000.

The Marquis de Lorne and the Princess Louise made their first public appearance together since His Excellency's arrival in England at the ceremonial attending the opening of the exhibition of smoke-purifying apparatus and smokeless fuel at Kensington Museum, on the 29th ult.

Young man, don't turn up your elegant nose at your mother, if she does make a little mistake in your cigarette-smoking, innate ways. She has watched you very closely from the day the light was too bright for your eyes, and it pains her heart to see you blooming out into a small idiot.
