Everybody knows who have tried, and those who have not, should cal at once and be convinced that we sell "better goods" for "less money than any house in this vicinity. We have enlarged our premises by taking in the store lately occupied by Mr. AKERLY, York Street, making connection with both buildings by an entrance or passage, so that one can enter by Queen Street and pass through to York Street. By so doing giving us the largest and most commodious establishment in thecity.

CLOTHING

There never was a time when it was more to your interest to buy

CLOTHING,

Custom and Ready-Made, HATS, CAPS,

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

Trunks, Portmanteaux, Valises, Men's Boots and Shoes

at our store than now. We have an immense stock of elegant and serviceable

Fall and Winter Goods,

ALBION HOUSE.

September 13th.

Lumbermen's Outfits

Etoffe Pants, Homespun Pants, Homespun Shirts, Homespun Jumpers, Duck Jumpers, Horse Blankets, Grey Blankets, Rubber Coats. Storm Coats.

Reefer Jackets, Cardigan Jackets, Heavy Web Cloth, Plaid Etoffe. Tweed Suits, Knitted Mufflers, Knitted Jerseys, Buck Mitts, Domestic Socks

Domestic Mitts, Domestic Oversocks, Flannel Shirts, Ribbed Undershirts, Ribbed Drawers, Plush Caps, Fur Caps, Felt Hats.

CAMP BLANKETING, people of St. John sufficient interest in the management of the Exhibition, the Board

EXTRA VALUE.

Trunks, Valises, Grain Bags, Carpet Satchels, Seamless Bags, Etc., Etc., Etc.

The above goods can be hap in any quantity from present date forward through the season, at prices that must give satisfaction to every and to be, for all Exhibition purposes, equa

Wholesale and Retail.

EDCECOMBE,

Queen St., Fredericton,

Branch Store: St. Mary's Ferry

Fredericton, Sept. 13, 1882

Maritime Farmer.

FREDERICTON, N. B., November 8, 1882.

Thanksgiving Day.

dition with that of any people on the earth,

they will have no cause to abate their due exciting, nor is business on so great a scale

as in many places; large incomes are not seems, to some, so slow that they are eager to leave the country, but here, people, though they may grumble at the increasing dearness of living, and increasing burden of taxation, are free from many of the perplexities, anxieties, and dangers, that worry, beset, and affright the peoples of old countries. If the country, of which the Province is a part, is

The Exhibition.

son to suppose was on the list of the Finance

We confess, that we are too obtuse t understand what the Board had to do with all that the Globe would like to mix it up with. The citizens had a perfect right to just such little bilious tempests.

Let us repeat so that there may be no mis-

What does the Globe mean by misreprethan the Editor of the Globe.

committee.

be profoundly thankful.

readily made, and the process of getting of gratitude. External life here is not

Yesterday the election to fill the vacancy in the representation of King's County, i In accordance with annual and decent cus- the House of Commons, caused by the untom, a day has been set apart, by order of seating of Prof. Foster, resulted in the reelecthe Lieut.-Governor, to return thanks for the tion of that gentleman by a largely increased bounties and mercies of the year, and to- majority over his old opponent, Mr. James morrow will be held as a holy-day and holi- Domville.

KINGS COUNTY ELECTION.

Majority.

day throughout the Province. The people | The returns from all the parishes except of New Brunswick have good cause to return Kars and Havelock No. 2 give Foster a hanks to a benificent Providence. They majority of 259, which will be increased to are at peace and fairly prosperous, and the over 300 His majority in the general elec-labors of the husbandmen have been bountifully rewarded. If they contrast their con-

Liberal-Conservative Catholic Protest

Marmion" from the school curriculum, and pression of the complicated working of brain mony: brought down a storm of condemnation ridi- and heart of man, the daily record of his divided into parties and the strife between them for power and office is hot and often bitter, the warfare, after all, is merely wordy and an exercise of wits-its people fear war neither domestic or foreign. For all their blessings, actual and implied, they ought to The Globe says we misrepresent its views man, who when lying on his deathbed, "fast ambitions, its iconoclastic attitude to old he then arranged his plans. His brother and position on the Exhibition, and also that shuffling off the stage," comforted himself faiths and ancient creeds; for its daring in but at a family dinner, on the confirmation we are not very quick witted, and that our by thinking that though he had been the doubting the wisdom of its ancestors, and of one of Marin's children (Gabrielle herself most voluminous author of his day, he had even gainsaying the dicta of sacred writ; for took the communion that day), he urged him what feeling has governed it, in its persist- wish blotted. Board. On the 1st inst., it says, "If in- controversy over "Marmion," the factions is wonderful for what it has done, and for the table to-day. A hammer, scissors, and a Queen Victoria thanking her for the interest justice is done to Mr. Inches, the Globe has engaged were not in reality fighting for or what it dares attempt to do. What it will sucnot done it." We say the Globe has done against the moral or immoral tendency of the ceed in doing who can tell, but we doubt Gabrielle accompanying her husband in religious freedom they enjoy in England.

meet in the Institute or anywhere else, and was perpetrated on Friday morning at Easton, a small hamlet near Fort Fairfield, in the pass any resolution they chose, or appoint ing upon his wife cut her throat from ear to ear, as quickly slashed his own throat, and would be quite as patriotic to help along a great work like this instead of caviling at every supposed grievance. But when did the Globe help anything that was for the public good? Its every effort is to obstruct and pull down. When it finds it cannot succeed in delaying or stopping this great effort of our people to advance and elevate our same hellish design. She escaped, however, agriculture and manufactures, it goes to work and her younger brother ran out to alarm a and does all it can to create jealousies and neighbor near by. When he returned with hard feeling by telling the most ridiculous assistance he saw his mother leaning against stuff as to what Mr. Inches has said or done, the outside wall of the house, with both gentleman, not belenging to St. John passed which was flooring her life blood. On seea string of ridiculous resolutions about the Exhibition and offered to sell the right to when they entered they were shocked to find our people for $7,500! We tell the Globe husband and wife stretched on the floor of efforts any better than it has done heretowounds in both cases soon proved fatal, and substitute. fore in trying to create trouble by raising the jury in the coroner's inquest the same afternoon rendered a verdict of murder and suicide against the unfortunate maniac. The Board intend to hold a Dominion Exhibition, and while the members of the Board reside in districts widely apart, they have associated with themselves as a general and Customs Office combined "a la Freder-Managing Committee the six gentlamen seicton. It has just purchased a new steam-fire lected by the citizens as a Finance Committee: engine at a cost of $3,775, and as if that were they have also appointed the Building Comnot a sufficient preservative against the atmittee selected by the citizens as the Building tacks of the devouring elements, the towns-Committee, and as if this was not giving the people have under consideration the introducpeople of St. John sufficient interest in the resolved that all the committees named by the citizens be asked to co-operate with the Board of Agriculture in assisting to carry tion of Water Works. Improved plans for the first were received from Ottawa last first chapters of Mary Hallock Foote's novel not a candidate for any office. Now there week by Hon. Mr. Lindsay, and the report of the Boston Engineers on the latter has been published, and is commented upon by the Frank R. Stockton, entitled "The Lady and Carleton Sentinel, that seems to incline to the Tiger," which is in his most quiet and the scheme of pumping up water directly from the St. John, on the same principle as is being carried out here. Its cost is estimated at $55,000, entailing an annual expense for interest and running expenses of ed in Woodstock, and the necessity for Water nance Committee, to join with the Board. Miss Nightingale says the mental state of the dying depends on their physical condi-The Board appoint the same men that the citizens selected as a Building Committee, tion. As a rule, in acute cases interest in and intrust to them all matters relating to their own danger is rarely felt. Indifference, excepting with regard to bodily suffer-The Board appoint the same men, on all

ing, or to some duty the dying man desires to perform, is the far more usual state. But sipation that prevails among the young men, patients who die of consumption very fre- and old ones, too. When in that city a few other committees, that the citizens appointed, and ask them to do the same work that The Board place all the money received from or promised by the Dominion Government, the Local Government, the city of lacerates. Dull and sallow-Eyes and skin denote senting this matter. We have stated the simple facts and if there is a citizen in St. John a torpid Liver, and weak Digestion, headache or Portland who can ask more, we will put and restless sleep arise from same cause. him down as a greater enemy of our country Remove them with Zopesa now, before you Kidney and Urinary Complaints, cured by Kendall's celebrated book on the "Horse and Blood Bitters is the most perfect regulator of than the Editor of the Globe.

Kidney and Urinary Complaints, cured by K get worse. A few doses will do it.

Can the Egyptian Skin be Changed?

All ages are wonderful, but the present Prof. Foster re-elected by a rousing age, dating back fifty years, to use a fami- a murder of which jealousy was the cause, liar phrase, savoring of slang, "takes the which took place in Paris. For cold-blooded cake." It is wonderful for its manifold deliberativeness it has seldom been paralleled. inventions, its discoveries, its searching The three accomplices were tried last month, labors, for its mighty wars fought with arms thin, and has an agreeable and manly look. of precision and brought suddenly to a close; His hands are nervous, but not wanting in for its stupendous engineering operations delicacy. His beard is black and thick, his gotten up in New York. The now notorious, if not historic, contro- rage to annihilate distances, and bring the well chiselled, and his eye, though at all versy in Ontario, over "Marmion," is not ends of the world together on instantaneous times full of resolution, has at others a sad yet closed. It was commenced by Arch- speaking terms, to force a way through the and gentle expression. His wife Gabrielle

the Mowatt Government to the fact that the centralmost jungle of "the dark conti- pretty, though careworn, and expresses her then, the half of ye's come up here." Catholic children in the Grammar Schools nent." It is wonderful for its curiosity, irreproachably. Lucien, the brother of Marin, were required to use a book, which, in his philosophical; scientific and impertinent for is insignificant, was a mere tool in the hands pinion, contained matter offensive to them, its keen desire to penetrate the secret of the of the man and his wife. and to the pastors of their church. Mr. origin of the human race, and to inquire into | Marin when interrogated by the judge said Crooks, Minister of Education, yielded to the most trival incidents in the lives of men he did not at first credit his wife's infidelity. Mayo, Ireland, has turned Queen's evidence. the pressure of the Archbishop, and excluded in communities; for its press which is the ex- We quote from the Times a part of his testiadmirers of Sir Walter Scott, "pride of all or as whispered in secret revolutionary con- prohibition, his wife visited there. This was thinks we may look for the return of the dignation at the charge of immorality, the and frauds, his good deeds and charities, his return he struck and threatened her. He before the close of the year. first after a lapse of over 70 years from its crimes sins and sorrows, of moving accidents said he had picked up a letter which was publication, preferred againts the greatest by flood and field, and on board of car and of his poetical works. Such a charge was steamer. It is wonderful for its cheap liter- my vengeance, I will wipe out the past; if dishonoring to "the mighty dead," and ature and its spread of knowledge of good not I will kill first the children and then was like dirt cast fon the grave of a good and evil. It is wonderful for its aims and you." She promised implicit obedience, and

But, keen as was the critical and ethical it when it seeks to forecast the weather. It sumed name which he bore at Chatou.

purchased from all the lending Americans and the control of the owner of the control of the cont

An Insane Man Murders His Wife and Commits Suicide.

Its second year under the new name. Pictorially, the November number shows that the Century is as ambitious as ever for the reputation of American wood-engraving, as witness the frontispiece portrait of Florence Nightengale and the full-page portrait of Henry James, Jr., by Cole, and other fine was perpetrated on Friday morning at Easton, a small hamlet near Fort Fairfield, in the Though the art side of the November.

Its second year under the new name. Pictorially its second year under the new name of photography in natural colours and the process for enlarging such photographic with the process for enlarging such photographic with the process for enlarging value in the process for enlarging value in the process for enlarging value in committees of any number, but surely their doing so did not take away the Board's right to proceed with the work specially delegated to it by the Legislature. The Globe has got so muddled over this matter in trying to obstruct and hinder the Exhibition that goods, suitable for

Though the art side of the November CAMP SUPPLIES

State of Maine. Fred. Hutchison, who had removed there in June from Dover with his wife and family of three children, the eldest agirl fifteen years of age, had been subject to fits, which usually left him in a state of severe mental depression. Recently he grew worse but his family and friends regarded him as entirely harmless. On Friday morn Debagai to mittees of any number, but surely their removed there in June from Dover with his wife and family of three children, the eldest offer striking proof of a tendency to make the literary side of the magazine paramount and of the greatest possible excellence and importance, in travel, biography, fiction, poetry, criticism, and in the discussion of the foremost public questions. In earnest of this tendency, the November Centurery presents a paper on "Venice" (profusely illustrated) by Henry James, Jr., who treats the subject CENTURY is so conspicuous, the contents end. him as entirely harmless. On Friday morn- by Henry James, Jr., who treats the subjec ing, however, just before the family were to in a charming, unconventional manner with sit down to breakfast, and after the mother that might be expected from such a subject had finished reading the scriptures, which in the hands of a brillant novelist; a paper formed part of the family worship, Hut- on Henry James, Jr., himself, by W. D. chinson suddenly produced a razor, and spring- Howells, whose generous and acute judgment cities. Emory Storrs, in a lecture in which of his fellow novelist cannot fail to interest a wide circle of readers; a remarkably able and entertaining article on "Victor Hugo then made a rush at his daughter with the (written expressly for the CENTURY,) by same hellish design. She escaped, however, the celebrated French novelist, Alphonse Daudet, who describes his personal intercourse with the poet and paints a wordportrait of Victor Hugo which will become historical-a forcible essay by Charles Dudley Warner on the sources of the material and and that the Board composed of half a dozen hands grasping the wound in her throat from intellectual prominence of England, and the literary indebtedness of the United States ing her son and the neighbor approach she to the mother country, as also the growing recovered herself and ran into the house, and literary independence of the United States and a strong argument in the negative to the ripe question "Is the Jury System a Failthat it will not succeed in its unpatriotic the same room, side by side, and in a great ure?" by Albert Stickney, who argues for pool of blood, drawing their last breath. The

Other prominent features of the number are Edward Eggleston's description of "The Beginning of a Nation." The Rev. Dr Washington Gladden's opening chapters in trated paper on "A New Profession for Women," in which Franklin H. North describes the Bellevue Training School for the new and important discoveries.

The fiction of the number comprises the reader into new and subterranean fields of Burnett's "Through one Administration" A clever satire on Mr. Walt Whitman and Mr. Oscar Wilde, is by Helen Gray Cone. The more serious editorial departments treat The Board ask the five gentlemen specially $5,750. A new post office is very much need-Works is at least as great there as it is here, able and spacious rooms in which the maga-

Life in Winnipeg.

An exchange writing on life in the Prairie quently die in a state of seraphic joy and peace; the countenance almost expresses former respectable residents of Ontario carelessly dressed and "seedy "looking generationitis, etc., on the contrary, often die in a ally. From personal observation we consci-St. John, the town of Portland, or at the state approaching despair. In dysentery, entiously state that Winnipeg is a dangerous place for admission, or from any other source, diarrhoza, or fever, the patient often dies in a place for young men to go unless their only between three and four hundred out of the General Managing state of indifference. On the battle field the habits are firmly fixed. The condition of the condition. Committee, composed of 12 members on which St. John has 5 of her citizens and one of the other 7 members is the representative of St. John at the Board which in the dead by sword have a calmer look.

State of indifference. On the battle field the dead of good quality. Three or four hundred absolutely poisonous died of gun-shot wounds in one of agony, which says, "we are informed upon the most substances, such as sugar of lead and sultable and Laycock upon their own waters, as well while the dead by sword have a calmer look. ative of St. John at the Board, which in A rapid death by steel is almost painless, the reliable authority that one prominent bar and phuric acid. One half the brandy tested as to give a series of exhibitions in Austrareality is giving St. John one half of the nerves are divided so quickly, while a bullet billard hall on Main Street cleared over $10,- was reckoned bad, as being made from in- lia. 000 net profit during the past three months." sufficiently rectified spirit produced from

CATARRH OF THE BLADDER.

The Sensational Murder in Paris.

Some time ago we gave a short account of criticisms, its doubts; for its rush of travel, the two principles being condemned to pena its lightening expresses, its magnificent servitude for life, the other acquitted. Marocean going steamers, for the magic skill in | Fenayrou, druggist, who conceived the with which it has brought the lightening diabolical scheme to avenge himself on Auto do its bidding, and Ariel like to put a gir- bert his wife's paramour is thus described, as those in ordinary use.

dle round the earth in forty minutes. It is seen by the London Times correspondent at wonderful for the magnitude of its deeds and the trial. He is of middle height, rather piercing continents and making waterways by brow broad and well shaped, and his mouth which the commercial navies of the world is devoid of all traces of a violent or malevocan quickly pass from ocean to ocean; for its lent character. His nose is straight firm and bishop Lynch, who called the attention of ice around the poles and to penetrate into is a brunette, with black hair and eyes. Still cule, and obloquy on his head. Readers and political action acted in the open face of day, told him that Aubert's sister lived in the Rue Pigalle, and that notwithstanding his If you will entrap Aubert, and help me in rather than to malice; we wish we could say tried to unsettle no man's faith, to corrupt the grand scientific prescience with which it to comply, and he at last agreed. On the as much for the Globe, for if it has not been no man's principles, and that he had written fortells the movements of the heavenly bodactuated by malice, we would like to know nothing, which, on his deathbed, he should ies, and traces out the erratic pathways of accepted the assignation at Chatou. Marin comets, and for the disability which falls upon then bought a perambulator under the as- away for twenty years or more, and which was sent thither by rail, and was placed on these purchases, and everything was taken to

It is confessed by observing American tourists in Great Britain and on the conti- rolment for active work marks a distinct and better governed that the great American he compared them was greatly applauded by driven backward and forward by small his Chicago audience, he said-

I do not think that there is any of the cit- by an automatic arrangement. The ignition ies that I have named that is not superior to is effected by the motion of the piston, which us in merely municipal government. I do draws in a flame of gas or spirit, the access not believe there is a city on the continent, or an English city, from which, so far as its open outlets for the escape of the gases of government is concerned, we have not much | combustion. to learn, but very little to teach and a great deal to imitate. That is the truth about it. have concentrated over one hundred thousand In those cities that I have visited are the men near Kischineff, in Bessarabia. It is ficent a vista of magnificent palatial business places as on Madison and Washington streets in Chicago; and in no city in the world impossible to trace its origin, but also the would the extent of street disfigurement be natural hair is constantly changing while the permitted which is permitted on those two dead hair retains its color. By the use of The lively town of Woodstock is progresshis story—with a purpose looking to his story—with a purpose looking to Christian cooperation—entitled "The Chrisfares. There is no city in the world, I am color of the hair is rendered natural and pained to say, where the comfort of the indi- always beautiful glossy and a venerable vidual citizen is smoked and dusted out of crown of glory, every lady should use it, and him as it is from mouths of chimneys and furnaces in the city of Chicago. In no city Nurses; and Mrs. Lucy M. Mitchell's illus- in all of Europe is there so little attention Great Pergamen Altar," which are among paid to the protection and the security and comfort of the citizen as in this city. Now that is the Lord's truth about it-and I am "The Led Horse claim,', which carries the are plenty of men on this platform who will into the street-not one. They do not dare to do it, for the drunken man is arrested, and ense is revoked-and it is not revoked upon the application of any known committee. In no city in Europe-these are despotisms that I am talking about now, effete monarchiesthere anything like the records of the assaults and homicides that you find in Chicago. It bears no comparison to it. In no city in Euis a man going home late at night so insecure as he is here and in New York. I am not One great drawback to Winipeg is the dis- singling out Chicago-I am speaking of the misgovernment of American cities. The N. E. Farmer says :- " How muc some substitute for grape.'

CURRENT COIN.

The railways in the United States employ The immigrants to the United States during the month of September numbered 49,-

The Austrian army is to have a railroad rigade familiar with putting up and destroy-A Dresden watchmaker has made a paper watch which is said to be as serviceable as Eight lawyers of Nevada are employed as counsel in a lawsuit about the ownership of a like number of hogs. A grand six-day professional bicycling race

Partridges are unusually plentiful in Maine this fall. Over 500 were put on board one Twelve hundred head of sheep sold in England lately for $16.850, the highest rice on record at a large sale "How many are there ov ye's down there?" houted an Irish overseer. "Five," "Well, George Littlewood, of Sheffield, England, has issued a challenge to walk any man in the world a six-day race for £100 a side. It is understood that one of the men charged with the murder of the Joyce family in Remember $1 will secure the MARITIME FARMER for one year, and also a copy of Dr. Kendall's celebrated book on the " Horse and Scotchmen," were startled and roused to in- clave, of his great commercial enterprises a flash of lightning for him. On his wife's great comet in a very short time, perhaps THEY ALL DO IT .- Everybody uses "TEA-BERRY" for the teeth and breath, the newest, brightest, cosiest little toilet gem extant. As early as 1733 the sale and consumption of whiskey was prohibited in Georgia, then a colony under British rule. The Act, how-On the 11,000 grain mills in Holland, 10,-

A miserly farmer recently died in Ohio

Splinters from the floor whereon Jesse James was shot are sold on the premises for 25 cents a piece, and several hard mises for

As the first number of a new volume, the November Century gives promise of even increased excellence for the magazine during ayrou dropped down into his seat, but in a few minutes resumed:—"Gabrielle went to the its second year under the new name. Pictoriman sat down. His interrogatory was at an spring started for the woods at the head of Moose Lake, Maine, has been discovered with both hands caught in a bear trap. He had jaws of the trap, and, being unable to remove It is not generally known that the British volunteer force performed service as an integral part of the Imperal army during the Egyptain campaign. Bodies of post-office and rendered good service. Their brief ennent, that the great cities there are much important step towards a fuller development of the military strength of the empire. A patent has just been taken out in Ger-

charges of gunpowder supplied at each end streets like those in Chicago and New York? | stated that Russian army cantractors have Not one. They are clean in Europe; they been buying large quantities of wheat and are not here. In no city in Europe do private corporations appropriate the public high way. In every city in America they do. In no city in Europe—and I looked up and down it through the rain to-day—is there as magnification of the empire. The news is causing some alarm in South-Eastern Europe.

And Custom Shirt Makers.

Fredericton, Oct. 4, 1882 THE USE OF FALSE HAIR by ladies is a to gentlemen whose hair is growing thin, it GEO. H. DAVIS, Esq., Land-hunger has led an English company to make the extraordinary offer of carrying away the waters of Lake Leman, provided own case, I deem it my duty to give its lowest depths a tunnel-like canal to a point some 20 miles distant, where the water of the lake can be made to run into the River Rhone. The bed of the Rhone is the cities of Chicago and New York. In no and it has been properly taken care of, this > bustion throughout. An Honest Opinion. John Taylor, of Toronto, says he has tried very known remedy for rheumatism, and can honestly recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as the best of all; he has been a sufferer

Hanlan leaves next week for Australia, ac-from rheumatic pains for years.

Never Allow it.

Never allow the bowels to remain in a Remember $1 will secure the MARITIME | torpid condition, as it leads to serious results, STINGING irritation, inflammation, all FARMER for one year, and also a copy of Dr. and ill health is sure to follow. Burdeck

John J. Weddall. DEVER BROS.

NEW GOODS.

CAMBRICS,

for Autumn wear.

VELVETEENS.

SWANSDOWNS.

Berlin Wools.

WHITE DRESS SHIRTS.

UNDERWEAR, both hands caught in a bear trap. He had evidently in some way got his hands in the condense way got his han

BRACES. TIES, ETC.

Cents' Furnishers,

Gladstone, Sunbury Co., September 17, 1882 DEAR SIR,—Having felt the benefit of your Quinine, Iron & Wine in my they can have the land thus laid dry. They some testimonial to the public of its sunot only ask for no subsidy, but are willing perior merits as an invigorating tonic. o pay 5,000,000f. for the privilege of doing Last winter through overwork and ex the work. Their plan is to construct from posure in the woods, my system became completely run down, and I began to fear a breaking up of my constitution. My weight was much reduced, and my River Rhone. The bed of the Rhone is appetite very poor, in fact I was so much there about 250 feet below the level of the appetite very poor, in fact I was so much LOTTIMER'S Some tobaccos spurt up in the pipe while usual spring work on the farm. Through smoking, with little crackling explosions. a lucky chance I was induced to try This is caused by the addition of foreign your Quinine, Iron & Wine, and after in no city in Europe is there a tithe of the matter to assist the combustion. When the taking but a few bottles I found my in no city in Europe is there a tithe of the district to assect the constant tampered with health completely restored, and now, city in Europe of the same population is combustible foreign matter is wholly un- though somewhat advanced in years, necessary. For in that case it burns at a am as strong and vigorous as ever in my lower temperature than almost anything. life before. Under these circumstances Nothing of this kind is seen in smoking the I have no hesitation, and I take the "Myrtle Navy." It burns with steady com- greatest pleasure, in recommending your invaluable tonic to all who may be afflicted as I was.

> Yours Gratefully, ALEX. HOYT.

DAVIS' QUININE IRON AND WINE

IS PREPARED ONLY BY Geo. H. Davis Cor. Queen and Regent Streets.

Price, 50 cts. per bottle; 6 bottles for $2.50

Fredericton, July 12

NEW GOODS! 3 CASES CAMBRICS.

1 Case of Dark Hosiery.

1 CASE UNDERWEAR

Ladies and Childrens' Sizes. 20 DOZEN HOOP SKIRTS.

25 Dozen

Rubber Aprons,

WANTED:

Dever Brothers. Fredericton, August 23, 1882

JUST RECEIVED: BURDOCK

WYETH'S

BEEF, WINE, AND RON!

FELLOW'S

Syrup Hypoph oshites PUTNER'S

SYRUP HYPOPHOSPHITES

Fredericton, Nov. 1

NEW (FALL)(GOODS.)

75 CASES

LOTTIMER'S

Fashionable Shoe Store, And more still to arrive.

PERSONS IN WANT OF

m the city to select from at

SHOE STORE.

Orders by Mail or otherwise promptly attended to.

A. LOTTIMER,

Queen Street.

RUBBERS, LATELY RECEIVED AT