To the last exhibition that was held in Fredericton the City Council gave $4,000, and the citizens contributed by private subscription over $7,000. Given by this city for a much smaller exhibition than that proposed for next year. Now I propose that, as St. John is so dissatisfied, and the people think it not right to ask them for any money toward. The expenses, that a Committee, headed by John H. Reid, be appointed at once to ascertain how much this city will give towards the Exhibition of 1883, provided it is held in Fredericton, and that the Committee be prepared to make an offer to that effect to the Board of Agriculture at its annual meeting to be held during this month.

I think, Mr. Editor, if such an amount can be got for this purpose, that the Board of Agriculture will reconsider their decision and give us the Exhibition. Let us try.

An Ottawa despatch says :- A false report has been current to the effect that a forged letter had been sent to the Post Office Department which purported to be a resignation of C. L. Estabrooks postmaster at St. Mary's, N. B., and that a new man had been appointed, much to the surprise and disgust of the present incumbent. The facts of the case are that Mr. Estabrooks made a communication to the Post Office Department, which was worded in such a manner that the officials construed it into being a resignation of the office and it was accordingly accepted. In answer to the letter from the Department Mr. Estabrooks wrote informing that he had no intention of resigning. No successor has been appointed.
