Gloucester.

Mr. Woodworth, one of the ablest of Nova Scotia's statesmen, although having just returned from a four years residence in Winnipeg, where he was badly defeated in 1880 in a contest for the Commons, has won over Mr. Woodworth by a large majority. Mr. Woodworth was a valuable acquisition to the Government speaking talent from N. S.

Ontario.

The Government in Ontario is slightly defeated, the most important defeat for the Opposition is that of Sir Richard Cartwright in Centre Wellington. Blake in West Durham, and McKenzie in East York, are elected by fair majorities. Sir John A. Macdonald carried two Counties, Carleton and Lennox, by large majorities. He will probably sit for Lennox, McKenzie's old constituency.

Quebec.

The Government has an increased majority in Quebec, as will be seen by the general vote for the Legislature. The most important Opposition vote was that of Mr. Huntington, who was here with Blake last summer, and LeFlamme, ex-Minister of Militia.

Mr. Peter Mitchell has been elected by acclamation. Snowball having retired from the contest.

Victoria and Madawaska.

Hon. John Costigan, Minister of Inland Revenue, is returned to represent these two Counties by acclamation.

New Brunswick Summary.

In the contest, the Government have made a gain of four seats in New Brunswick, Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland, and Westmorland, while all the seats before held by the Government, St. John City, Kent, and Victoria, are retained, giving the following net result:

GOVERNMENT.—Sir Leonard Tilley, Hon. J. G. Macdonald, Hon. Peter Mitchell, Wood, Foster, Girouard, Moffit, Burns—8

OPPOSITION.—Hon. Isaac Burpee, Weldon, Rogers, Pickard, Burpee (Sunbury) King, Gillmor, Irvine—8

Most prominent among the Government defeated are Hon. John J. Fraser and Hon. B. R. Stevenson, while the Opposition will lose of Smith and Anglin, their two ablest men. Such are the vicissitudes of political life.

P. E. Island.

The Government have lost three seats in P. E. Island, the successful candidates being Hon. A. H. Davies McLarty, Robertson and Perry opposition, Hackett and Jenkins, Government.

Nova Scotia.

The Government gain one seat in Nova Scotia, having elected fifteen supporters, and the Opposition six. Inverness and Lunenburg, Yarmouth, Kings, Victoria and Richmond, have gone Government, while Guysborough, Queens, Digby, and Annapolis have returned Opposition men.

The following are the members elect for the several Counties:—

Halifax.—Richey and Daly, Government, defeating Jones and Fuller, Opposition.

Shelburne.—Roberts, Government, defeating Keefe, Opposition.

Queens.—Dr. Forbes, Opposition, defeating Freeman, Government.

Sheburne.—Robertson, Government, defeating Hon. Mr. White, Government, defeated Kinlay, Opposition.

Cape Breton.—Macdonald and Dodd, Government, defeating McLeod, McDougall, do. No. 2.

Richmond.—Paint, Government, defeating Hon. E. P. Flynn, Government.

It is noteworthy that in Pictou, Mr. C. H. Tupper, who is the second son of Sir Chas. Tupper, led the poll, although this was his first contest, and he is a resident of Halifax. He and his colleague MacDunnell, who was his opponent, were probably under thirty. Mr. Tupper himself is undoubtedly the youngest member of the new House of Commons. He is a "chip off the old block," and will make his mark in political life. As a lawyer he has already distinguished himself.

That Cumberland and Pictou sent father and son to Parliament.

That the island of Cape Breton, which elects five members, has gone solid for the Government.

That Mr. Woodworth, one of the ablest of Nova Scotia's statesmen, although having just returned from a four years residence in Winnipeg, where he was badly defeated in 1880 in a contest for the Commons, has won over Mr. Woodworth by a large majority. Mr. Woodworth was a valuable acquisition to the Government speaking talent from N. S.
