CHAPTER XXXVI. The next morning Elspeth went out in search of lodgings, and returned in good spirits, announcing her complete success. Her countrywoman, Mrs. Douglas, had been glad to see her, and had offered her a parlor and two bedrooms, newly furnished, which chanced to be vacant, upon very reasonable terms. She had engaged the rooms, and they would be ready for occupancy at any moment. "I told her to make a fire immediately," said Elspeth, "and to air and warm the beds. And I told her to have a pot of tea on the hob, and some toasted ing to see me. I did not tell her where I had been, nor did I mention Lord St. Maur's name. But I did tell her that I was in the service of a young lady who had been a companion of Miss MacKinloch. She had never even heard of you, prietorship, which she was too deeply was accompanied by a plate of hot toasted muffins. Mrs. Douglas refused to sit at retired life—very retired. She has several lodgers, and has only one little maid to help her. She never goes out, except to market or kirk. She never reads anything, but just works and works. But she is a guid woman, and hae a love still for the Highlands."

"We are to go this evening? "The sooner the better," said old Elspeth, sensibly. "I have a cab at the door for the boxes, which I packed early this morning. The sairvants think that they are to be taken to the milliner's, but the cabby has his private orders to take them to Rollingham Row, to Mrs.

The three walked along Halkin street to Grosvenor Place. In the shadow of St. George's Hospital they found their cab waiting. The driver got down sleepily smiled at his anecdotes and sallies of wit, and old Elspeth and Mrs. Douglas regarded him with a sort of fond Melcombe had aroused him with the pride and wonder.

But, linger as he would, he could not Douglas. I hear the men in the hall

She passed into the dressing room, Lord St. Maur had gone out; Mrs. Ifolly was busy giving orders to the maids, and the trunks were carried down and deposited upon the cab without any suspicion or especial notice being excited. In fact, no one except the footmen and the hall-porter were aware of the removal of the boxes. The cabman, whose number Elspeth had wisely taken, departed without being questioned, and the inci-Lord St. Maur had gone out; Mrs. Holly without being questioned, and the incident was speedily forgotten by the footmen, or it was deemed too trivial for

"The worst is done," said Elspeth, delighted with her own diplomacy. "All

A servant knocked on the door, and see Miss Wynn in the morning room.

Dolores descended at once. Gifford Melcombe arose and came forward to meet thing, and that your judgment coincided with hers." "And do you know everything, Mr.

doing so. I have been looking for lodg-

"You have [acted promptly. Miss Earle desired me to find lodgings for you, Melcombe wrote down the address. "When did you leave St. Maur House?"

he asked, carefully concealing his exulta-"This evening, about nine o'clock." Melcombe's heart swelled with his delight and triumph.

cort you to your new lodgings," he said, gently. "The hour will be too late for you to be out, attended only by old Elsneth." "Does Lord St. Maur know that you are going?" asked Melcombe.

"No. He has absolutely refused to allow me to leave him. If I go, I must go was a low fire in the grate. in secret and leave my income in his her a stab to the heart—a pain worse than death!" said Melcombe, mournfully.

The girl looked remorseful

The girl

how I have suffered: her own sufferings Douglas very well—he never forgot any Melcombe did not remain long, but win her adherents to his interests. If he showed throughout his visit the most delihad searched all London over he could situation as governess. But you and I cate kindness and consideration for both not have found a place so well suited to will not be separated, if we can keep tomother and daughter. When he left, he his purpose as this—as a refuge for Do- gether." reiterated his promise to be on hand to lores.

After his departure, Dolores visited the portrait-gallery and studied for the last pletely lost to them—as completely as if time the picture of her father. In the she were dead and buried." afternoon, Sir Basil Nugent called, but Elspeth claimed her countrywoman's not even to him did Dolores mention her attention. intended departure. But she kissed him "My young mistress is tired," she said. If you could only say yes to his wooing, good-by with a tenderness and solemnity "Is her room ready? If so, we'll gang wiss Dolly, he could gie you a beautiful that haunted him long afterwards. The directly up stairs." girl meant that caress for a last farewell.

girl. She visited Mrs. Holly and found low me, and I'll show you the way." occasion to thank her for her kindness She went upstairs, the visitors followwithout exciting suspicion. She was ing. The rooms prepared for Dolores' every hair of your bright little head?" in the drawing-room punctually at the hour for dinner, and Lord St. Maur took her in. He was very gay during the re-he exclaimed. "You don't know how you frightened me with your talk of leaving me. But it's all right now. You love me so dearly that you will never comprised the furniture.

Couple of tables, and a little clock—these "My life is a riddle which I cannot solve. I shall never see Lord St. Many nor Basil sorrowfully up-stairs. Elspeth was wait of sadness and regret than might have combe. I have an odd superstition that ing for her. It took but a minute to put been expected. on hats and wraps. Elspeth took up her Mrs. Douglas took up the moderator Gifford Melcombe-that in resisting his mistress' hand bag, and they cautiously lamp that stood in the centre of the table claim I am fighting against fate. Ah, if descended the great stair. The footman and flashed its light into the inner room this be so, I would rather die to-night!

CHAPTER XXXVII. PRIMROSE VILLA.

rain was falling, the gas-lamps flickered a low, undraped white bed, with frilled faintly through the wet gloom, and a pillows. An atmosphere of perfect cleanfeeling of homelessness and desolation liness pervaded the room, and the young seized upon both Dolores and old Elspeth girl expressed her perfect pleasure and as the door of St. Maur house closed soft- satisfaction at the arrangements that had ly behind them, and they descended the been made for her comfort. sters to the pavement. They paused "I have prepared a little supper for ing blight upon her own. the falling rain. The pair had not taken dilemma. "I cannot entertain a gentlescones, at nine o'clock this evening, and a dozen steps when a man started out of the shadow of adjacent area railings and guests this evening."

The falling rain. The pair had not taken a man, but you can do so. We are all your guests this evening."

The falling rain. The pair had not taken a man, but you can do so. We are all your guests this evening." MacKinlock death, and had been expect- accosted them. The man was Gifford Mrs. Douglas rang the bell, and gave Melcombe, and she recognized him upon orders to her handmaid when the latter the moment, old Elspeth with an ejacula-tion of relief and satisfaction. appeared. An extra cover was placed on the table. The tea was made. A chafinghis quietly and with a little air of pro. with well-cooked mutton-chops, and it tance," he said. "I went to Euston so by her young mistress, and the land-Square in one cab, and there took an- lady waited upon them.

point of his umbrella-and opened the But, linger as he would, he could not changed greetings.

"I received a letter from Miss Earle this morning," he said presently, in a confidential tone. "She begged me to secure lodgings for you, Miss Dolly. She said it was not possible that you should remain here, that she had told you everything, and that your judgment coincided been dictated by the floral fancy of Miss MacKinlech's denunciations of her grand-nephew and her nunciations of her grand-nephew and her suspicions that he had attempted her murder Elspeth believed in him, and desired to restore to him at least a portion of the wealth of which she believed he had been unjustly deprived.

The exect leastion of No. 2 measures in which the had been unjustly deprived.

The exect leastion of No. 2 measures in which the had attempted her nunciations of her grand-nephew and her suspicions that he had attempted her murder Elspeth believed in him, and desired to restore to him at least a portion of the wealth of which she believed he had been unjustly deprived.

Dolores, upon her return, inquired the price of the received for the respective of the received for the respective of the received for the restore to him at least a portion of the wealth of the had been unjustly deprived.

Dolores, upon her return, inquired the price of Miss MacKinlech's definition of her grand-nephew and her suspicions that he had attempted her murder Elspeth believed in him, and desired to restore to him at least a portion of the wealth of which she had been unjustly deprived.

little wax vesta burned long enough to for the night.

fearing that you might not procure suit-out upon the visitors.

streamed from the open door of the house news of you, she'd turn him away without invited them to enter. They did so. The taking his money or betraying you. She's door was closed and secured, and the a faithful woman, is Jean Douglas!"

exquisite neatness prevailed. The winters that kept in all the light, and there The new-comers had scarcely taken in

"I feel as if I were in the toils of some ful courtesy.

Douglas greeted with especially respect- comfortable, Miss Dolly."
They returned to the one—and he knew that he could easily ture Elspeth," said her young mistress. escort her that evening to her new lodg- "Lord St. Maur and Sir Basil Nugent will search for her." he thought, "but

"The room has been ready since the was temporarily absent from his post.

"This is Miss Wynn's bedroom," she But it is not—it shall not be so!" she and the two silently opened the door and said. "It's windows look out upon the added, with passionate protest. "Nothback yards of the neighbors. But as it ing-nothing can force me to marry him. And so the lawful heiress of the old wont be used much in the daytime, the Ah! our poor little Dolores could not Earl of St. Maur, of whose existence he view won't matter. There's plenty of was ignorant, passed out from beneath fresh air, you see, and that's the chief read the future! her grandfather's roof-to what destiny? consideration." (To be continued.)

Dolores saw that the bedroom was simply but neatly furnished, with crimson carpet, two chairs, a chest of drawers, a The night was dark, a tine drizzling toilet stand, flowing chintz curtains, and and looked back at the lighted windows, you, Miss," said the landlady, restoring ington, as Adam and Eve might have looked the lamp to its place on the table. "If bright and happy home. And Dolores had left all this forever, because her path lay not in sunny places, but among the shadows. The wrong that had darkened her mother's life had fallen with wither her mother's life had fallen with wither.

Clothing. Clothing, the most popular medicines for these complaints is Northrup & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites she concluded, remembering herself, "if Miss Wynn is pleased to have him stay."

Miss Wynn is pleased to have him stay."

Who shall take too with us as your gist, Dunville, writes: "It gives general coats, Vests and Pants seprately." "He shall take tea with us as your satisfaction and sells splendidly. With a sigh, the girl, clinging to her guest, Mrs. Douglas," said Dolores, taking old serving woman, moved forward into the most direct way out of the little Melcombe drew Dolores' arm within dish was brought up from below filled "I have a cab waiting at a little dis- the table, but Elspeth was forced to do otner, which is waiting now for us. Every effort will be made to trace you, Dolty. I know Lord St. Maur will not consent to let you disappear so easily, but I defy and wealth through her, this was the him or his assistants to discover you, after most memorable feast of his life. He the precautions I have taken." lingered over it, he drank a second and the three walked along Halkin street third cup of tea and exerted himself to

now. I'll send off the trunks now, Miss Elspeth followed, and Melcombe gave his leave. The hour was growing late. Dolly, lest Lord St. Maur should possibly order in a low tone—High street, Camden signal from him Dolores accompanied him Town. He then entered the vehicle, the cabman remounted, and the fugitives "I wrote to day to Miss Earle of your giving admittance to two stout footmen. were borne rapidly away through the purposed change of residence," he said, have not left one single clew to our pro- to go out unvailed. There will be a great search for you. Advise Elspeth to remain A brisk walk brought them to Maxwell in the house. I will inform you of affairs Road. Here were detached houses, set at St. Maur House, and will have the in tiny gardens, and shut off from the pleasure of calling upon you to morrow we have to do to-night is to walk out and broken bottles. A further walk of several with the latest advices." minutes brought them to Rollingham | He bade her good night with a low and Dolores sighed heavily. It was very hard to be driven out of this Eden, after row or block of houses, but the houses in and descended the stairs. Dolores re-Rollingham Row were all detached and turned to her parlor. During her brief announced that Mr. Melcombe desired to garden and by high walls. The Row con admiration of Miss Wynn and had insisted of ten houses, which bare collect-vely the name of the capitalist whose To this old Elspeth had replied in the money had built them, but each house affirmative, declaring her hope that her He shook hands with her, and ex- had also its individual name, which had young mistress would eventually marry been dictated by the floral fancy of Miss him. In spite of Miss MacKinloch's de-

The exact location of No. 9 was ascer- price of the rooms in which she had been tained by counting the houses, which installed, and paid a month's rent in ad-"Yes, she has confided all her story to me. She writes that she had promised to write you to-day, but that she must defer doing so. I have been looking for the distribution of Elspeth under-ple cookery they two would require, but Dolores stipulated that Mrs. Douglas should do her small marketing. The arithmetical operation old Elspeth under- vance. Elspeth was to perform the sim-Melcombe drew out his pocket match-safe and struck a light. The flickering was cleared, and Mrs. Douglas withdrew

"I will not trouble you to look further.

I have rooms engaged. Elspeth, my servant, has a countrywoman who lets lodgvant, has a countrywoman who lets lodgThe next minute a clattering tread was

"This is quite a home-coming, Elspeth," said the young girl, dropping easily into a chair on the hearth-rug. "I am very ings, and our trunks are on their way heard upon the walk within, bars, bolts, glad, upon your account, that you have thither."

Miss a country would be next minute a clattering tread was a chair on the learning tread was a chair on the learnin was opened cautiously to the extent of can talk of Glen Kinloch and the mounthree or four inches, while a face peered tains and castle and the people you knew. "Jean Douglas is an old friend and "It is I-Elspeth," said the old Scots fellow-sairvent of mine," said Elspeth, bly. Where are you going?"

woman, impatiently, "Open the dure and she's a sort of kinswoman too, so Dinna keep us out here in the wet all that we hae fallen into safe hands, Miss Dolly. I told her that you wished to keep This adjuration was evidently re-assur-ing. The door opened wide, and a trim you can depend on her silence. If Lord little housemaid, whose appearance could St. Maur were to come to the dure tobarely be discerned in the light that morrow and offer her ten pounds for Taking up the lamp, Elspeth made a close examination of the adjoining rooms. A neat little entry, with oil-clothed floor and dark-papered walls was travercline his proffered escort. If her mother trusted him, so might she.

sed, and the visitors were shown into a pleasant room, where a lamp shed a cheerful glow upon the simple furnishing. An There was no carpet on the spotlessly clean floor, but a rug was placed before dows were covered with green rush shut. the small iron bedstead, and the remaining accommodations elicited Elspeth's "This maun hae been a dressing-room hese details, when Mrs. Douglas, the for former lodgers," she exclaimed. "And "That need not matter!" Melcombe was about to add that his purse was at her service, but judged it wiser to leave the words unsaid. "Shall you confide in was evidently sensible and kind-hearted."

The three details, when Mrs. Douglas, the lor former lougers. She exclaimed. And here is my box, Miss Dolly, and there is my box, Mis The girl's perfect features contracted to Dolores and to Melcombe, whom Mrs tish dialect, as she was wont at times. They returned to the sitting-room.

passionate outburst. "I must hide from those I love beat. I must give up what I hold most dear. It is hard—terrible. Sometimes I feel that I cannot bear it."

"It is well your mother cannot hear those words. Every syllable would be to her a stab to the heart—a pain worse of the passionate outburst. "I mind Mr. Melcombe well!" she extracted and Elspeth brought out her young mistress's night-to-the down the country of the doors were locked and Elspeth brought out her young mistress's night-to-the is Miss MacKinloch's heir, and her grand nevy. I was servant at Castle Kinloch many years ago, Mr. Melcombe, and many years ago, Mr. Melcombe, and many years ago, Mr. Melcombe, and many's the tip you gave me in the old ible even in the firelight and lamplight, and brushed the thick, waving mass with "When will I learn to bear my burdens meekly?" she murmured. I love dens meekly?" she murmured. I love Melcombe shook hands with her, despeth chattered of her former mistress, and her. For her sake, I can bear everything. lighted that fate had played so cleverly of Glen Kinloch, of Mr. Melcombe, and into his hands. He remembered Mrs. of the future.

"I have given little thought to the fu-"We will keep together. It's a burning shame if Miss Joe's money is not to you see that he adores the very ground you walk on? He has money o' his ain. He can keep you like the leddy you are. good-by with a tenderness and solemnity "Is her room ready? If so, we'll gang home, wi' sarvents to wait upon you, and he'd get you back your ain fortune, and The day dragged slowly to the young morning," replied Mrs. Douglas. "Fol- you'd hae frienes and luxuries. This nun sort o' life can't last forever. Dear Miss Dolly, hear to an auld woman that loves "One would think that everything de-past, and it was nine o'clock when he confitted up as a bedroom, and a rear hall is driving me in that direction. Can it be ducted her back to the drawing-room. bedroom, which was intended for Els that he holds my fate in his hands? I ducted her back to the drawing-room.

"I am sorry to leave you this evening, my dear," he said, "but I have an engagement at my club with two of the leading political members of my party. Can you amuse yourself, little one? Call in Mrs. Holly, or practice your new music, or work on your drawings. You shall soon have a chaperon, and these lonely hours will be prevented."

He kissed her tenderly. For a moment, with an impulse she could not resist, an instinct of love too strong to be overborne, Dolores clung to Lord St. Maur, kissing him again and again. He leaded for Els peth's use, and which was connected with the larger bedroom by an open door.

The parlor of this little suite occupied the entire front of the house, and possess and curtained, but which commanded a view of the street. As Elspeth had said, were very cheerful and cosy in their aspect. The traditional black hair-cloth sofa was conspicuous by its absence. The loging house cheffonier, with its inevitable silken panels was not to be seen. The furniture was simple and inexpensive, but its freshness made amends for the down and party him, for I would die sooner than marry a man I could not love. Don't speak to me again of him, or I shall get tired of his name. What can be the reason that every one is urging me to marry him?"

She disrobed leisurely, and went to bed. Elspeth followed her example. But when her old servant gave token by her breathing that she was sound asleep. Dolores slipped from her bed and knelt don't love him, Elspeth, I don't love leave me, my precious little Dolly!"

He held her to him closely for a moment, then released her, adding:

"I shall be out till late, so I will say good night now, little one. To-morrow we will have that chaperon."

comprised the furniture.

A fire burned redly behind the polished bars of the grate. A little tea-kettle was singing on the hob. A table was drawn up near the nearth, spread with spotless linen and quaint pink dishes, presenting a hospitable appearance. The room we will have that chaperon."

a hospitable appearance. The room and love each other more and more. She looked homelike and inviting, and Doshall find comfort in me. But even she lores laid off her hat and cloak with less seemed to advise me to marry Vr. Mel. I am to be driven into a marriage with Burdock Blood Bitters give more general satisfaction than any blood purifier in the market.

Highly Satisfactory.

Impure blood and low vitality are th great sources of most diseases for which Burdock Blood Bitters is the specific. S.

Perrin, Druggist, of Lindsay, writes that Guiteau's head and face are preserved in alcohol in the Medial Museum, Wash-back upon their lost Eden. Behind that Mr. Melcombe should choose to remain a neglected cold—how necessary then Goods, plate-glass, and those curtains of costly there is quite enough for three. The that we should at once get the best cure MILLINERY-Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, silk and lace, were safely from the rude night is so cold and chilly a cup of tea for Coughs, Colds, Laryngitis, and all the harsh world, plenty, comfort, affection, a would do him no hurt," she added, her diseases of the throat and Lung—some of Ladie's Night Dresses and Chemises, nice bright and happy home. And Dolores old liking for "the young master" causthe most popular medicines for these goods and very cheap.

> A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN. [From the Boston Globe.]

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pink ham of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zeriously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a ife-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large corresponder which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burder o suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this. On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says. "It works like a charm and saves much pain. A will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhœa, irregular and painful Menstr ation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Meration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to tne Change of Life." f permeates every portion of the system, and gives nev. life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system. It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect nealth by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass. For Ki'ney Complaint of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as abundant testimonials show. "Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Billowsness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Pur"fer works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity. All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.

Farmers Please Consider This. THE PERRY DAVIS PAIN KILLER acts with wenterful rapidity and never fails, when taken at the commencement of an Cholera, Cholera Morbus, as well as all summer complaints of a simi-

For Trothache, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, &c. the PAIN KALLER will be found a willing play control y and able to relieve your suffering when a delay, and at a very insignificant cost. for Colle, Cramps, Dysentery in Horses, parallel has no equal, and it has a real name of filto effect a cure in a real name. It is used in some of the real name of t The PAIN KILLER is for sale by Francist Apothecaries, Grooms and Medicine believe throughout the world.

The Great American Remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LOSS OF VOICE, HOARSENESS AND THROAT AFFECTIONS. * Prepared from the finest Red Spruce Gum. (Delicious Flavor.) Balsamic, Soothing, Expectorant and Tonic. Superior to any medicine offered for all the above complaints. A scientific combination of the Gum which exudes from the Red Spruce tree—without doubt the most valuable native Gum for Medicinal purposes.

Every one , has heard SYRUP separates, and all its anti-spasmodic, expectorant. fects of the RED SPRUCE order them to drink GUM.

almost specific effect in curing obstinate hacking Coughs, is now well known to the public at large. Sold by all respectable chemists. Price, 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

The words "Syrup of Red Spruce Gum" constitute our Registered Trade Mark, and our wrapper and labels are also registered. KERRY, WATSON & CO., Wholesale Druggists, Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers, Montreal.

Its remarkable power in relieving certain forms of Bronchitis, and its

CAUTION EACH PLUC OF THE

IS MARKED

IN BRONZE LETTERS. NONE OTHER GENUINE

Lawn Mowers. UST received, 15 LAWN MOWERS. JAMES S. NEILL.

MARSONS Original anti-corrosion Paint. For sale by JAMES S. NEILL.

Just received at Geo. Hatt & ons. '00 Packages Tea, in 6, 10, and 22 lb. Boxes, from 25 cents per lb. upwards. June 27

SPRING 1883 JAS. R. HOWIE

GOODS! SPRING AND SUMMER

Consumption is a disease contracted by Tweeds, and all kinds of Staple and Fancy Dry Clothing. Clothing. A choice lot of Men's Clothing, in Sults, also

Boys' Clothing. A beautiful assortment of Boy's Clothing, Hats and Caps-All kinds, for Men Boys

Trunks, Valises and Satchels, a very large stock, best make, prices very low. Room Papers, 10,000 Rolls Wall Papers, also Bordering and

The above with a variety of other Goods will INSPECTION INVITED.

Corner Wilmot's Avenue, Queen Street, Fredericton,

May 2, 1883.

CHEAP! CHEAP!! CHEAP!!!

RUBBERS & OVERSHOES.

The finest and best assortment of Ladies Gents, and Misses' RUBBERS and OVER-SHOES ever brought into this city.

RUBBER GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. READY MADE CLOTHING

A LARGE STOCK OF Ulaters, Reefers, and Overcoats. Bedroom Setts, MEN and BOYS' CLOTHING. BOOTS and SHOES.

Our stock of Boots and Shoes will be found to All of the above goods will be sold at prices which defy competition. Purchasers will find this out by giving us a call and examining FRANCIS DOHERTY WATCHES! Gold, Silver and Nickol.

KEY AND STEM WINDERS. AND UPWARDS.

CLOCKS From $1.25 upwards.

American Express Company. TTENTION is called to the following RE-DUCED RATES for carrying MONEY and ARCELS between any of the Offices of the MONEY.—$20 and less, 15 cents; larger sums proportionally smaller. MERCHANDISE.—71bs. and less, 25 cents to $1.00, according to the distance. Rates between Fredericton and St. John.-30 lbs. and less, 25 cents; 100 lbs, 50 cents. The Company has 4,000 agencies in the States and Canada. They guarantee to their patrons QUICK TIME, PROMPT DELIVERY, AND POSITIVE

Further information will be cheerfully given by application to WHITTIER & HOOPER, AMES EGGLESTON, Gen'l Superintendent, Boston.

Fredericton, June 15, 1882

AYER'S PILLS. cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AVER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly apon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indiges-tion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profes-These Pills are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers.

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro."

Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882. "I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine.
FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable.
J. T. HAYES."

Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The REV. FRANCIS B. HABLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER's PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health." AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass, Sold by all Druggists. YOUNG, | All experience the wonderful beneficial effects of OLD, AND MIDDLE- Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

AGED. Children with Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, or any scrofulous or syphilitic taint, may be made healthy and strong by its use. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $3 and respectfully invites the inspection of cus-tomers to his large and well selected British and Canadnia

CLOTHS

TWEEDS. Diagonals,

BROAD CLOTHS, DOESKINS, Etc.

GENTLEMEN'S

Wedding and Mourning Outfits A SPECIALTY The Furnishing Department

is the Largest in the City. JAS. R. HOWIE,

QUEEN ST., FREDERICTON. May 11, 18821 FURNITURE

County Court House Square.

Now that the time has approached, it is neces-

HOUSE AND FURNITURE FIRE put in order for the coming season WE HAVE FOR SALE

Bureaus, Sideboards, Desks, Tables, Lounges, Perforated, Cane and Wood Seat Chairs, etc. We also Repair, Reupholster, and Repolish Furniture. Window Poles and Cornices made to Measurement.

UNDERTAKING. We have every facility for carrying on this CASKETS & COFFINS from the Iplainest to the most elaborate.

Robes, Gloves, Crape & Hat Bands. JACKSON ADAMS

Established 1819.

County Court House Square. Fredericton, April 18, 1883 Great Bargains

The Subscriber intending to Close his Business -AT THE-

Lower tore, TUESDAY, Jan. 2nd, 1883

ALLOW A Discount of 12 1-2 Per Cent.

Fredericton, Jan. I, 1883

An Exhibition will be held in ST. JOHN, NEW BRUNSWICK, Commencing on Oct. 2nd, 1883, open to Exhibitors from every part of the

THE Dominion Government, the Provincial Government, and the City of St. John, have all promised liberal Grants of Money towards the Exhibition, and the erection of Splendid Permanent Buildings in addition to those already on the ground, and for the general success of the Exhibition. The Exhibition will be open for all kinds of Agricultural Products, Live Stock, Dairy Produce, Machinery, and Manufactures in Metals, Wood and Textile Fabrics, Domestic Manufactures, and the Fine Arts.

Freight will be carried at reduced rates. Space in the Buildings and Stalls for Stock This will be the largest and most thoroughly representative Exhibition ever held in the MARITIME PROVINCES, and will be an excellent opportunity for the Manufacturers of the Dominion to show their productions to the people of the Lower Provinces. Premium Lists and Circulars, giving full particulars, will be ready shortly, and sent everywhere free, on ap-JULIUS L. INCHES,

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 3, 1883

Is a Sure, Prompt, and Effectual Remedy for Norvousness in ALL its stages, Weak Memory Loss of Brain Power. Sexual Prestration, Night Sweats. Spermatorrhæa, Seminal Weakness and Geneval Loss of Power It repairs Nervous Waste, Rejuvenates the Jaded Intellect, Strengthens the Enfeebled Brain and Restores Surprising Tone and Vigor to the Exhausted Generative Organs. The experience of thousands prove it an invaluable remedy. The medicine is pleasant to the taste, and each box contains sufficient for two weeks medication, and is the cheapest and best. medication, and is the cheapest and best.
Full particulars in our phamplet, which we destre to mail free to any address. Mack's Magnetic Medicine is sold t Druggists at 50 cents per box, or 12 boxes for $5 or will be mailed free of postage, on receipt of the money, by addressing MACE'S MAGNETIC MEDICINE Co., Windsor, Ont., Canada SOLD IN FREDERICTON BY

GEORGE H. DAVIS and all Druggists everywhere.

NOTICE

THE firm of FRASER, WETMORE & WINS-LOW having been dissolved by the appoint-ment of The Honorable John J. Fraser as a Judge of the Supreme Court, the undersigned will carry on a co-partnership business as BARRISTERS. ATTORNEYS, &C., under the name of WETMORE & WINSLOW. December 30th, 1882 EDWARD L. WETMORE, E. BYRON WINSLOW.

Acme Pulverizing Harrow. TUST received, 3 of the above for sale cheap to close out the lot. JAS. S. NEILL May 30.

J. C. RISTEEN & CO.,

DOORS, SASHES, AND BLINDS,

FURNITURE.

Moulding, Jig Sawing, Planing and Turning done to order. Dressed Clapboards, Flooring and Sheathing constantly on hand Corner Queen and Smythe Streets Fredericton, N. B.

THE undersigned is agent for the following Insurance Companies which have Capital and assets amounting to fully $100,000,000, affording the most perfect security possibe, LONDON & LANCASHIRE

INSURE AGAINST

These Companies are well known for the honorable, liberal, and straight-forward manner in which their business is conducted.

All kinds of insurable property insured at moderate rates. Detached Dwelling Houses and contents insured for three years at lowest rates.

Losses promptly settled and no unnecessary trouble given.

The Office on Queen Street, opposite the CITY HALL, where every information can be

JULIUS. L. INCHES

INSURANCE. Companies representing a capital of OVER FORTY MILLION OF DOLLARS, ($40,000,000.00.)

Large deposits at Ottawa for benefit of Policy Holders. All kinds of Insurance effected in any of the following Companies at best rates :-Imperial, of London, England. Established 1803. Capital, $8,000,000.00

Ætna, of Hartford, Conn. Capital, $3,000,000,00 Assets, $7,424,073.72 Hartford, of Hartford, Conn.

Capital, $1,250,000.00 Established 1809. Assets, $3,761,379.47 Northern, of London, England. Fire Association of London, England, Capital, $5,000,000.0

The City of London, England. Detached Residences in town and country insured for 3 years at lowest rates. ALL: LOSSES PROMPTLY PAID.

JOHN BLACK,

Office with RAINSFORD & BLACK, Barristers, Carleton Street, Fredericton

T. G. O'CONNOR

IMPORTER OF British and Foreign Woollen Manufactures, &c.

Now in stock, a large and varied assortment of GENTS' SUMMER SUITINGS, WORSTED COATINGS. SCOTCH TWEEDS, SERGE SUITINGS, MELTONS, CHEVIOTS, SAXONY TWEEDS, &c., &c., &c.

WEST OF ENGLAND BROADS, CANADA TWEEDS. WEST OF ENGLAND CASSIMERES, HARVEY HOMESPUNS. WEST OF ENGLAND DOESKINS, OXFORD HOMESPUNS Gents' Furnishings, &c.

For cash, on delivery of Goods, on all sums from First Class Cutter, Frist Class Suits, Lowest Hard-pan Prices. Goods sold from the Piece or Made to Order as may be desired.

> T. G. O'CONNOR, Next below Barker House, Queen St., Fredericton THE KEY TO HEALTH. New Tin Shop.

A. N. LAFOREST BEGS to inform the public that he has opened up a shop, one door above Hatt & Sons, Queen Street, for the manufacture of Unlocks all the clogged avenues of the Bowels, Kidneys and Liver. carrying Tinware of every Description, off gradually without weakening the system, all the impurities and foul humors of the and is also prepared to execute orders for GAL-VANIZED IRON WORK, and in fact anything secretions; at the same time Correcting Acidity of the Stomach, curing Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Dizziness, Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scrofula Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness and General Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of BURDOCK PLOOD PUTTERS Special Attention given to Tin Roofing and Hot Air Furnaces.

of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

Sample Bottles 10c; Regular size $1.

For sale by all dealers.

T. MILBURY & CO., Proprietors, Toronto

ATTENTION

DRUGGISTS and DEALERS.

THE GREAT

Cough Balsam,

For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and

all Lung Troubles,

PLUMBING.

GAS FITTING!

ESTABLISHMENT.

THIS establishment now having two thor-

I oughly PRACTICAL PLUMBERS and Gs Fir-TERS in their employ, are prepared to attend to all work entrusted to them in a thorough

Parties desiring to have their houses fitted with all the modern improvements in the above business, would do well to apply to us

A variety of GLOBES and PATENT GAS RURN-

GAS, STEAM and HOT WATER FITTINGS, al

Orders for Tin Roofing promptly attended to. Tinsmiths Work of every discription, and Prices to suit the times.

J. & J. O'BRIEN.

Queen Street, Fredericton, N. B of the best material manufactured to order for estimates before going elsewhere.

the premises at shortest notice.

workmanlike manner.

ERS for sale cheap.

ways in stock.

IS MADE IN ST. STEPHEN,

F'ton, June 22, 1882 FREDERICTON MONUMENTAL WORK! Queen St., just above Reform Club Rooms.

GIVE HIM A CALL.

A. N. LAFOREST.

THE Subscriber begs to inform the Public that he is prepared to execute all sorts of PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL ADAMSON'S MONUMENTS, TABLETS, > FENCE STONES & POSTS. First Class Material and Workmanship guar-Fton, Feb. 3 JOHN MOORE.

Fredericton Leather Company HEMLOCK BARK HIDES and TALLOW.

CASH STREET, FREDERICTON ISAAC W. SIMMONS.

VALUABLE LAND,

Blacksmith's Coal. 600 CHALDRONS Genuine Blacksmith's arrive during the summer. For sale by ontracts made for THIS PAPE, which is kept on file at office of LORD & T. OMAS.

McCormick block, Chicago, Ill

And is offered to all Dealers at One Dollar a Bozen Cheaper than ever. WANTED GANONG BROTHERS, ST. STEPHEN, Selling F. W. KINSMAN & CO. Augusta, Me., and St. Stephen, F. B., Proprietors. Price, $2.75 per doz., carriage paid; $3.00 from St. Stephen, N. B. RETAIL PRICE 35 cts. PRACTICAL for which the HIGHEST MARKET PRICES will be AT THEIR TANNERY, HEAD OF KING

FOR SALE.

HE subscribers are authorized to Sell several Farms near Fredericion. Prices moderate and terms easy. RAINSFORD & BLACK _ept, 1, 1881_tf.

JAS. S. NEILL. ADVERTISING