A Gross Outrage.

The Editor of the Maritime Farmer: Dear Sir—I dip my pen again to arouse public attention to the unfair treatment given Capt. Cropley in the Guard of Honor business.

THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE

To-morrow, at 3 p.m., the faithful Lord and Commons of New Brunswick, will be convened in Parliament with all the pomp, solemnity, and circumstances of a golden jubilee.

A Survivor's Story.

Some of the New York paper reporters got hold of some of the survivors of the Combra wreck when they arrived at that port last week in one of the steamers of the Hamburg American Line, and the following is the story of one of them, Frank Pliska, a sturdy, good looking young fellow from Trischan, Bohemia, told:—

I was asleep in the steerage of the Combra when she was run into by the English vessel. The shock threw us out of our beds, and we found the water pouring in upon us. In the darkness and confusion our terror when the water came in was awful. I rushed up on deck and held on by the mast.
