

She advanced with the aid of her staff | ty, dimly-lighted hall, closing Miss Macinto the drawing-room, and confronted Kinloch's door behind her. Melcombe's them with those terrible, blazing eyes. door opened more widely, and he came Her guests seemed stricken dumb. forth with a light and noiseless step. "I have overheard your conversation," "One moment, Miss Wynn," he ex-A MONSTROUS WRONG! continued the old lady, in cold, stern claimed, in an agitated voice. "Let me tones, looking from one to the other. I have a moment's speech with you-" suppose that I ought not to be surprised "At this hour ?" asked Dolores, in sur-

"You would send me away in this teem. Melcombe led the way down the

"There is one thing more," she said in you will not think me premature in what spark of malice in her eyes. "I don't I am about to say."

CHAPTER XVII.

Elspeth opened the door and Miss Mac-Kinloch, staff in hand, went out into the am human, after all. I heard what I "Are you going away while Miss Mac-were exchanged.

draughty hall. Her heels clattered over the slippery floor like the tapping of a hammer. She began to descend the wide have done you no injustice. Are you going away while Miss Mac-Kinloch is ill and the weather is so stormy?' asked Dolores. Melcombe saw that she knew nothing staircase. As she neared the bottom a "Miss Joe-" began Miss Dougal, trem- of the affair of the afternoon, and drew a sudden impulse came to her to listen to blingly.

Melcombe saw that she knew nothing breath of relief.

Dolores hesitated. She supposed that Melcombe desired to give her some in-

"Sit down," he said, gently. "I will

His early love for Queenie Redburn dwarf-

"Silence !" flashed the old woman, "I must go," he replied hastily. "My the conversation of her guests, herself unseen. She would have scorned eaves. turning upon her like a tigress. "The aunt is recovering, and I must be in Engdropping at any other time, for she had a old beldaime is old, but she is not yet in land. Miss Wynn, the drawing room is nice sense of honor, but to-day she was her dotage. I heard your speculations lighted, and I see that you are shivering not quite herself. She was weak and ill; in regard to my death. I fear that I shall with the cold. Will you come down stairs she feared that she might have wronged her kinspeople, and she louged to over-hear such words of kindliness toward her-Melcombe, I shall put it out of your power her kinspeople, and she louged to over-hear such words of kindliness toward herself as should warrant her better feeling to prove my insanity or imbecility.' to say to you."

toward them. She moved along the " My dear aunt great hall, and passed the door of the Miss MacKinloch laughed hollowly.

"Spare me your hypocrisy !" she com- junctions in regard to her care of his aged drawing-room. In the rear of the latter apartment was a spacious room which manded. "After the revalation you heve relative, and after a moment's deliberaserved its owner as library, morning- unwittingly given me of your secret senti- tion assented. She had been told by Mrs. room, and private parlor. Here were her ments, you will not be surprised if I order Magruder that Melcombe was likely to books; here she settled accounts with the chariot to take you both to Callander. succeed Miss MacKinloch in the posses-Miss Dougal glanced towards the rain sion of her property, and this belief gave him an air of authority in the girl's esher bailiff and servants; and here, very irenched windows.

often, her meals were served to her. She opened the door and softly entered. The room was not half so large as the weather ?" she exclaimed. "It is so late stair and across the great hall, and she drawing-room, and was divided from the we would not reach the station to-day--" followed him. "You can stay over night, but you will They entered the drawing-room. latter by heavy velvet portieres. The three windows looked upon a gloomy leave MacKinloch Castle at daybreak, cluster of wax lights burned on the high both of you!' cried the old lady sternly. carved mantel-piece and another cluster plantation of firs, and were heavily curtained. The velvet carpet was like moss

I shall not see either of you again, either was upon the table. Melcombe closed while you remain under my roof or after. the door and pushed a low satin chair beunder the thread, a bright wood-fire burned on the hearth, and the general aspect of the chamber was bright and pleasant. ward. I hope never to see again your fore the hearth. false, hypocritical faces while I live!" "Sit down." She made a retrogade movement to-not detain you long. Our acquaintance has been brief, Miss Wynn, but I hope

Miss MacKinloch closed the door noise wards the reportiere. lessly and crossed the floor in the direc tion of the portiere. A high-backed easy-chair stood at one edge of the drapery mind telling you how near you have been There was a peculiar agitation in his The old lady sank down among its yield-ing cushions, and lifted a fold of the velto the prize you so highly esteem. 1 manner that surprised even himself. As made my will many years ago, and have he looked now upon the splendid young vet in her hand. Through the opening never taken the trouble to change it. As lovliness of this girl, as he gazed into the thus afforded, she obtained a very good it now exists you are named in it as my luminous depths of her sombre eyes, he view of the interior of the drawing-room. co-heirs. All my property was to have felt his whole being thrill with passion-been equally divided between you, as my ate admiration and love for her. She Miss Dougal was sitting before the hearth, her long thin curls hanging meanearest relatives. I say, was to have seemed to him the most magnificent grely down the sides of her long thin face been. I shall make a new will as soon as prize this world could bestow. Her dark a piece of Berlin embroudery in her hands her head raised coquettishly, and with an I can send for my solicitor, and I may say pale beauty stirred his imagination, rethat neither of you will be remembered minding him of tropical nights and great attempt at archness which sat oddly on her ancient and faded visage. She was in it beyond the value of a shilling. We golden stars shining from dusky settings. regarding Melcombe, who was pacing to melcombe, and we part forever. With the gods he had worshiped-were all of to-morrow's dawn, whatever the weather, small account and valueless beside her. was talking to her as he walked.

you will leave my house." The pair were on very friendly terms. Without another word, without allow- ed into insignificance beside this new and at least outwardly. The inclemency of at it. Yet, and she broke into a little, prise. bitter laugh, I came down stairs hoping "It is not to late, and I must speak to

The latest mathematical question runs to overhear some word of affection, some you now or not at all, since I leave at day. as follows: Two girls met three other girls and all kissed. How many kisses

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

Popularity.

From the Boston Globe.] 0

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may se truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zoniously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a ife-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistant, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burde: ) suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it,and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended an prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says. "It works like a charm and saves much pain. it will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrheea, irregular and painful fenstr stion, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Whoration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

I permeates every portion of the system, and gives net. life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently oured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect nealth by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kir vey Complaint of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as abundant testimonials show. " Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the care of Constipation, Bille and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Pur'fer works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity. All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole at least outwardly. The inclemency of the weather, which had confined Mel-combe to the house, and Miss MacKin-loch's indisposition, which had driven the couple to seek each other's society, had been valuable aids to the schemes of Miss Dougal. She had just been declaring to Melcombe as a great sector to the the Miss wiftly up the great stair.

Melcombe, as a great secret, that Miss MacKinloch had long since avowed an intention of making her-Miss Dougal-her heiress, and that a will to such effect was at that very moment in the hands of the old lady's Edinburgh solicitor. Melcombe had risen from his seat with some agitation, and began to pace the floor, while The gloomy September day, with its be hard and unsatisfying. You must driving gusts of wind and ceaseless, drizz-bave dreams of something different, of a ing that his next words would be a proffer ling mist, drew to a close. Darkness have dreams of something different, of a gathered early in the wild and lonely home of your own, of some one to love of marriage.

It was at this interesting juncture that glen. The loch and the distant mountain you, of a tender true, and faithful heart Miss MacKinloch, thirsting to hear some walls alike were blotted out. The North to stand between you and the world." kindly and generous word spoken of her- wind tore through the upper pass and self, made her appearance on the scene.

Unconscious of the proximity of any hostile host, crashing its way out at the listener, Melcombe took a few hasty turns lower gap between the hills, and leaving her soul with almost uncontrollable agihuskily:

"This is really true, then, Josepha? snug firesides, and pleasant companion-Aunt Joe has made her will, devising all ship. The former were not lacking at the ment wonderingly. Could it be that she her property to you ?"

"To me, absolutely," said Miss Dougal, there was nothing of the latter. Fires with a little air of exultation that went blazed in the great baronial hall, in the far to confirm her words in Melcombe's drawing-room and library, but no one not be reckoned by hours and days. I opinion. "All her money in the funds, lingered by their hearths. Miss Dougal her real estate in Edinburgh, and this was up stairs in her own chamber engag. you. Every minute since passed in your wretched old castle, with thousands of ed in packing her trunk. Whatever the acres attached, with the fishing and shoot- weather in the morning, it was settled I love you, Miss Wynn, with more than ing that you gentlemen think so valuable that she must go. Her eyes were red -everything comes to me, on account of and swollen with weeping; she was afraid once before; I expected to remain faithmy name, you know. I ought to have to go home, knowing that the reproaches some compensation for my name of Jose of her parents would be many and bitter, and that this new passion is, beside the pha," she added, with an affected little and her own self-reproaches were scarcely laugh. "I suppose that I shall have a more easy to bear. How near she had great many suitors when I come into pos-session of the MacKinloch property. The old woman has not used half her income, and her wealth is now immediate the set of the first freshless of a youthful kinloch's property would be a grand in-heritance. And she had forfeited it by Heritance in the first freshless of a youthful passion of my manhood. Will you accept it ?'' and her wealth is now immense." her folly-by her miserable, wretched day," retorted Miss Dougal, "and won- would stand, and I would still be an Joy. dered if she were going to live forever.

"You speak of her respectfully," said folly. Melcombe. with a little sneer.

said Melcombe, bitterly.

"If Aunt Joe has made any such will as you declare," he exclaimed, "I shall con-test it. I am her great-nephew, and have self, and was now cool and thoughtful. Can offer you. And as to the rest, Miss on her name caressingly, "as to the a greater right to inherit her property than you, who are only a cousin, several he asked himself. "It was not like me. not describe the half I have to offer. Will times removed. I will break up the will-" "On what ground?" asked Miss Dougal "On what ground?" asked Miss Dougal "On the ground of undue influence, in-competence to make a will, or general im-becility." creed Melcomba instable "I an usually so cautious that I cannot understand how I could the asked himself. "It was not like me. Of course, I could not suspect that the old woman would be listening. She had been confined to her bed for a week, and was supposed to be still too ill to leave her room. But I am usually so cautious that I cannot understand how I could "You-decline it !' Delores bewed her young head gravely becility," cried Melcombe, irritably. "I have been betrayed into such indesorecan bring forward her eccentricities and tion. So, Josepha was to have been ceprove her insane, and I will do it! The heir with me? The old girl began the companion, dependent upon the caprices wretched old beldame! She has asked trouble, and I am glad the heaviest loss me to visit her every autumn for twenty falls on her. She hasn't a penny of her jecting the position he offered her-it years, and I have martyred myself to this own, while I have a very tidy little in- seemed increaible. result! But you won't come so easily into come. I have counted on the MacKin possession, Josepha. If there's any law loch money. I shall hate to lose it. But in Great Britain, I'll have my rights !'' must I lose it?'' he asked himself, sud. impossible that I should win your love.

I cannot go with the words unspoken that fill my soul. You are a young girl of not half my years. You are fresh from school where you have lived as seeluded as a nun CHAPTER XVIII. in a convent. Your experience of life A DROPPED LETTER.

has been brief and narrow; nevertheless. you cennot look forward to an existence

Dolores's face flushed, then grew pale alf, made her appearance on the scene. Unconscious of the proximity of any hostile host, crashing its way out at the of young Sir Basil Nugent stood out dis-

> It was a night for home comforts, for tation. Gifford Melcombe watched her a moruined old castle of the MacKinlochs, but returned his love? He continued :

"I have known you but a few days, have loved you from the first hour I saw society has but served to rivet my bonds. the ardor of youth. I never loved but ful to that lost love until death, but I other, as the sun to the moon. I do not offer you the first freshness of a youthful

He devoured her face with his burning gaze. As she made a movement to answer, he hastened to interpose, seeing "I wish the old woman would die to "You called her the old crone yester- night!" she muttered. "Then the will perhaps that her surprise was not that of ered if she were going to live forever. heiress. If she makes another will, I had "I ought to tell you something more of "If you hope to make a great marriage" better be dead than living. We have myself," he said, "before demanding on the strength of your heirship, you may long been spending more than our your answer I am a gentleman by posihave to wait twenty years yet, and you income upon the strength of our 'expec-will be a veritable antique by that time," tations.' We shall have to move into a favorite in the best society. I count many smaller house, dismiss our servants, and titled people among my personal friends. "I shan't have to wait so long," said live like beggars, or with the most pinch- I have a good income, and can keep my Miss Dougal, composedly. "Miss Joe is failing rapidly. She is past eighty years of age. This cold of hers may deepen Gifford Melcombe had completed his wife in ease and luxury. I can indulge her in travel, in society, in dress, and in her fancies and caprices. I do not own a into something serious. I don't think she can last till spring." Melcombe's face flushed with his annoy-ance. "If A unt Loe has made approved million of the material advantages I

How could I have been such a donkey ? love and care and tenderness, words could Dolores bowed her young head gravely. Melcombe was astonished. A hired ambition is to do good to others. Philadelphia, Pa. (2) Mrs. 4 Factory at Stanstead, P. Q.,-Trade supplied by Wholesale Druggists.

•The Great American Remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LOSS OF VOICE, HOARSENESS AND THROAT AFFECTIONS. Prepared from the finest Red Spruce Gum. (Deli-cious Mavor.) Balsamic, Soothing, Expectorant and Tonic. Superior to any medicine offered for all the above complaints. A scientific combination of the Gum which exudes from the Red Spruce tree -without doubt the most valuable native Gum for Medicinal purposes. Every one has heard GRAY'S of the wonderful ef-fects of the Spruces SYRUP and the Pines in cases of Lung Disease. In France the physi-cians regu-larly sond their con-RED sumptive patients to the pine SPRUCE woods and order them to drink GUM. a tea made from the Spruce

Its remarkable power in relieving certain forms of Bronchitis, and its almost specific effect in curing obstinate hacking Coughs, is now well known to the public at large. Sold by all respectable chemists. Price, 25 and 50 cents a bottle. The words "Syrup of Red Spruce Gum" consti-tute our Registered Trade Mark, and our wrapper and labels are also registered. KERRY, WATSON & CO.,

Wholesale Druggists, Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers, Montreal.

BOLD BY ALL DEUGGISTS. Price 21.

KIPNEY-WORT

To the Patrons of Lemont's House Furnishing Store Built to order in the latest and most LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,-Mr. Martin Lemont's store was burned out in the big fire of 1850, on the site of Sharkey's Block; again burned out 1854, on Phoenix Square Block. He then moved down into Coy's Block, next above our present store. There we were burned out in Miss Dougal wondered if she had not denly. Is its loss an absolute necessity? carried her little fiction too far. Never-He took a few turns to and fro, his theless, she pursued her scheme to its brows heavily knitted. The wind made me, Mr. Melcombc, but I shall never intended termination.

"Of course," said she, in a low voice. old castle, the windows rattled, a chimney "Miss Jos can do as she likes with her fell with a dull racket, but he was too abown property, it not being entailed. But stracted to heed the storm or its effects. "If she could only die before she has I feel for your disappointment. I would not have a lawsuit for the world. You time to make another will," he thought. "She is weak and old-why should she have expected to inherited her estates. and so have I. She must be near her end. not die this very night? Her death tonight would double my income. And it Now, if we were to unite our claims-" might happen so easily."

"Unite them? How?"

Miss Dougal's head dropped affectedly. "What is it that the poet says ?" she asked. "'I'wo souls with but a single thought: two hearts that beat as one.' You know, of course, how our interests

An amused smile flitted over Mel- to strangers. Now she is not given to combe's cruel lips. He comprehended sentimentality. The asylum won't get her, and in spite of his irritation and deep much from her. She would never sink seated annoyance, could not help admir- the MacKinloch money into some great ing the audacity of the "old girl," as he corporation where it would be lost sight irreverently termed her in his thoughts. of. She would be far more likely to leave "I suppose you mean that we could be it to strangers. And who stands so good married?" he demanded, bluntly.

Miss Dougal gave a faint little scream young companion of hers-this beautiful of dismay, and appeared quite shocked at Miss Wynn? She has taken a wonderful such plain speaking; nevertheless, she fancy to this young girl. I believe she listened breathlessly to what should fol- | will make Miss Wynn her heir." low.

"This isn't leap year," said Melcombe. more it appeared to him probable. "but I suppose that you may possibly be an extreme advocate for woman's right--an extremist of the extreme, I might say. But I fear that we can't ' unite' our interests," and his tones were smooth and full of sarcasm. "When I marry I intend to do the wooing. And I have other views for myself, my dear [Josepha. 1] think I will trust to the law to secure to my soul. I never expected to be able to me my rights."

Miss Dougal's face reddened as it had love her as I loved Queenie, yet with the not done for years. She was mortified greater force and passion that come with and angry and could not conceal her agi- riper years. I wonder if she is in the old tation.

fend my case with spirit," she exclamed. and I'm to be expelled this Eden at day- Governor; why, then, should I stop my jaw "And remember that I shall be in pos- break. session, and that ' possession is nine points of the law.' I suppose that you will leave ores the castle at once ?"

"By no means. Aunt Joe is not dead chargeined and unhappy, Miss MacKinloch worthlessness of the large packs of horse recoiled before her. Her black, hard to open rebellion and remonstrance. the buying. eyes blazed like coals from out her yellow had brooded for hours over her griefs, re-face. She had been furious and angry fu-ing to see either of her guests, al. while listening to the conversation we though both had entreated to be admitted thirty-five young women to whom he was have described, but now she looked as to her presence. She had returned, un. giving diplomas, as graduates of the Philimplacable as fate, as hard and cold a pened a letter sent to her by Miss Dou- adelphia Woman's Medical College, "with stone. She had more than ever a weird. [24], and had sent an order to her coach. 'he fallacious reasoning that women may uncanny, witch-like look. Both Mel man to have the chariot at the door at combe and Miss Dougal knew instinctive. In the was keenly and terribly the study of the lily or the rose, the spider MONUMENTS, TABLETS, of an irritable and hard old woman, re-

"Can no pleadings of mine soften your heart to me ?" he asked quickly. "Is it Quite impossible, answered Dolores, flushing. I appreciate the honor you do a frantic dash around the angle of the marry.

"Never marry? Why, you are but eighteen, with a marvelous beauty that would set all London wild, if you were but properly introduced to society. Never marry! Miss Wynn have you already loved ?" he asked, with sudden suspicion. 2 The sombre eyes drooped, then were raised to his in a fearless expression. In A those velvety depths he read the story of her ill-fated love. (To be continued.)

will," he mused, pausing before his bright hearth, "to whom would she leave her BEP Millions of packages of the Diamoney? Not to the Dougals-not to me. mond Dyes have been sold without a could be combined. Do not compel me Not to her more distant kin, for she hates single complaint. Everywhere they are them. She would leave it to charities or the favorite Dyes. Ser.

In a lecture on gambling and gamblers' methods, Mr. J. H. Stanly said that $40, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, 000,000 was squandered annually in New York city on gambling games.

ANSWER THIS .- Is there a person living who ever saw a case of ague, billiousness, a chance of becoming her heir as this nervousness, or neuralgia, or any disease of the stomach, liver. or kidneys that Hop Bitters will not cure?

"You wouldn't take me for a married man, would you?" asked a student of a pounded it for the cure of those Nervous Dis-The more he considered this idea, the Cortland girl last Sunday night I rather eases existing in the regiment to which he was "I might win the whole estate through think I would if you should ask me," was to effect a positive enry in every case. Wherever the girl," he thought. "That would be the response. He bought a ring next it has been used according to directions, it has never failed to produce the most satisfactory rebetter than to divide it with Josepha Dou. day. gal. This Dolly Wynn is a splendid beauty. She would create a sensation in cough is draging you to consumption and a London drawing-room I loved Queenie the grave. Do not longer delay. Pro--poor lost Queenie Redburn-with all cure Adamson's Balsam at once. It is an unfailing remedy for coughs, colds, and love another woman, yet I do love this girl, and I mean to make her my wife. I Agents, St. Stephen. Gov. Butler, of Massachusetts, keeps on woman's room. I must see her to night, and justilies himself as follows :-"Gov. "You may rest assured that I shall de- since the old beldame's fiat has gone forth the opened his door to watch for Dol

He took a few other uneasy turns up

"If she should live to make another and down the spacious chamber.

We notice that agricultural newspapers If Melcombe and Miss Dougal were all over the country are now exposing the yet, and has therefore, time to make a was in scarcely happier mood. She had and cattle powders. We put the ball in new will. I will see her this very day-" returned to her room irritable and justly motion and claim the credit of it. Sher-"Miss Joe rose and held up the portiere incensed, and vertured her anger on Dol- dan's Cavalry Condition Powders are abso-

with her long, bony hand. Her guest- res and old Elspeth, driving the latter lut-ly pure, and are the only kind worth

"Away then," said Prof. Parish to the

May 1, 1871, we addre me i you with a circular. stating we would move into our present place of business on that fate. We again desire to in-form you that our Warerooms are nowfixtures, KIDNEY DISEASES. Does a lame back or a disordered write. Indicate that you are a visitm? TRIN DO NOTHISITATE; use KIDNEY-WORTA and after so many years, again we thank you for your patronage in the past, and desire a connce (druggists recommend it) and it will speedily overcome the disease and restore healthy action to all the organs. Lacies. For complaints peculiar and weaknesses, KLONEY-WORT is unsur-passed, as it will act promptly end safely. Either Bex. Incontinence, retention of urine, brick dust or ropy deposits, and dull dragging pains, all speedily yield to its our-ative power. (5) tinuance of the same. With the largest Store and Warerooms in the City, we have facilities for carrying on a whole-sale and Retail Trade second to none in the Pro-lince. There are three Showrooms eigty-three eet deep by twenty-three teet wide, and a cellar under all, giving a floor space of 7,636 feet, Be sides this we have other warehouses and back stores, with a work shop to have Furniture Made to Order, and an Upholsterer to finish. Our store is situated between the Queen Hotel and the Barker House, and is but four minutes easy walk from the City Hall. If you look up 1859, re-occupying the same stand again in 1860.

nere. On ligh, you will see our big sign, " Lemont's Furniure Warerooms," We have gone out of the Second-Hand Goods Department.

We buy our Goods direct from the manufacturers in England, France, Germany, Unite t States and Canada for CASH, and sell lower than iny other house in the trade. Parties going into housekeeping, and others wanting House Furnishing Goods, will find this he most reliable store to buy them in Frederic ton. The especial attention of the ladies in lesired.

We shall in the future, as in the past, keep the argest stock of goods, in New Household Fur niture, Parlor Suits in all kinds of coverings being a specialty, and a magnificent stock of furniture for every room in the house; White and Colored Stoneware; China; Cut and Pressed Table Glassware; Cutlery; Kitchen Wares; amps for Churches and Private Residences; Fancy Goods; Christmas Goods: Wcoden Ware; Household Hardware; Bohemian Vases; Cabillet Organs, of Celeorated Makers, on the instalment plan; Vases &c, Goods delivered, Respectfully yours,

Wm, LEMONT. M LEMONT. CHEAP! CHEAP!! CHEAP!!!

RUBBERS & OVERSHOES.

The finest and best assortment of Ladies, Gents, and Misses' RUBBERS and OVER-SHOES ever brought into this city.

RUBBER COODS

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

READY MADE CLOTHING.

A LARGE STOCK OF Ulsters, Reefers, and Overcoats. Druggusts and Apothecaries, MEN and BOYS' CLOTHING. BOOTS and SHOES. Our stock of Boots and Shoes will be found to be complete in every department. All of the above goods will be sold at prices which defy competition. Purchasers will find this out by giving us a call and examining WORK! FRANCIS DOHERT Nov. 15

PIANOS PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL

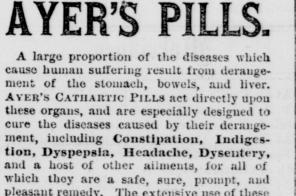

durable styles. MATERIAL and WORKMANSHIP of the BEST

PARTICULAR ATTENTION GIVEN TO

Painting, Trimming and Repairing Carriages, etc.

ON HAND :

FOR FALL AND WINTER TRADE

and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes : "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers. W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro." Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

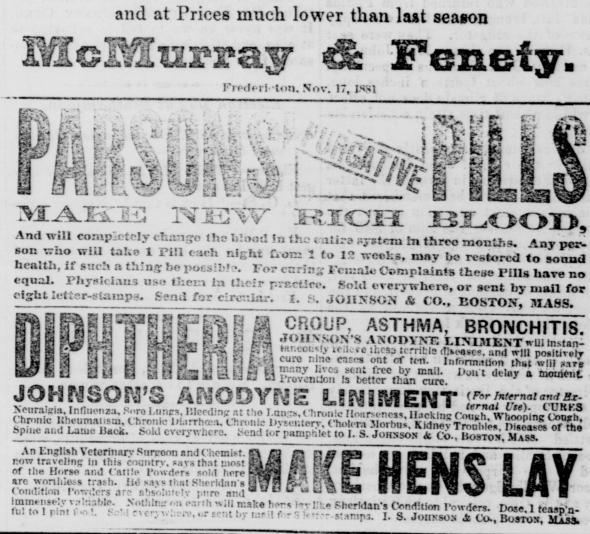

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in number-less instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable. Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medi-cines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggisis.

STATIONERY!

We are now opening our

STOCK OF STATIONERY

Personally selected from the leading manufactures of English, French, German, American and Canadian Makers.

WHICH FOR

Quantity, Quality, Style and Finish

SURPASSES ANYTHING BROUCHT TO THIS CITY, of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

Sample Bottles 10c; Regular size S1

A. N. LAFOREST. F'ton, June 22, 1883

From Boston and in Stock :

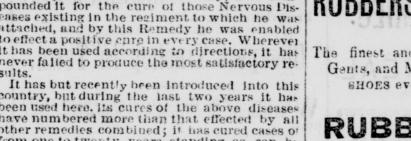

10 BARRELS Stockholm Tar; 10 barrets Wilmington Pitch; 15 bundles Navy Oakum; 10 bbls. Coal Tar;

JAS. S. NEJLL.

Just Received

20 kegs Wrought Ship Spikes; 500 lbs. Boat Nails-assorted.

For sale low by

It has but recently been introduced into this

AND SCIATICA.

IS ONE of the test preparations now before the public for the cure of those distressing mplaints that have baffled the skill of phy icians for ages past. It is perfectly safe and reliable, being prepared from the prescriptio

Kind friend, that nervous, hacking country, but during the last two years it has been used here. Its cures of the above diseases have numbered more than that effected by all other remedies combined; it has cured cases o from one to twenty years standing, as can be vouched for by the testimony of most reliable disinterested parties. lung disease. Ganong Brother's Selling Sold at all the principal Drug Stores in the

0

100

0

13

ADDRESS ALL ORDERS TO

attending to his extensive law practice, GEO, H, DAVIS OR J, M, WILEY, Talbot dil not stop his woollen mill when mill when I am Governor ?"

FREDERICTON, N. B.

March 14

Queen St., just above Reform Club Kooms

THE Subscriber begs to inform the Public that he is prepared to execute all sorts of ORGANS YOUNG, | All experience the wonderful For sale by all dealers. ly that she had overheard them, and was isappointed in her mercenary relatives or the beetle, but cannot study man the beneficial effects of T. TTTT CCO. Frerrietors, Teronte OLD, AND Tuned and Repaired. propared to wreak her vengeance upor and the idea of taking vengeance upon noblest work of God " Ayer's Sarsaparilla. FENCE STONES & POSTS, MIDDLE-ADVERTISING chem by leaving her property to strangers AGED. Ears, or any scrofulous or syph-illitic taint, may be made healthy and strong by its use. them. THAT HUSBAND OF MINE " uere is no time like the present," occupied her thoughts. First Class Material and Workmanship guar. E. CADWALLADER said the old lady, in a croaking voice. Dolores was not permited to read to is three times the man he was before he auteed. ntracts made for THIS PAPER, which is ept on file at office of "You can see me now, Mr. Gifford Mel- her, and was early dismissed to her room. began using "Wells' Health Renewer." SUNBURY STREET JOHN MOORE. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $3. LORD & THOMAS, As the girl emerged into the long, draugh- $1, Druggists, Ftop, Feb, $ (between Charlotte and George Ste. combe." Dec. 11-52. McCormick Block, Chicago, Ill * Fredericton, March 21