Maritime Farmer.

FREDERICTON, N. B., August 6, 1884. Three Mails to St. John. The FARMER is able to announce to-day, that, hereafter, three mails will be despatched daily from Fredericton to St. John, one at 7 A. M., one at 1.40 P. M., and the third at P. M. Up to the present time, business mer, and others, who have occasion to use th mails constantly, have found it impossible to answer correspondence received by the morning mail, on the same day, as the last mail for St. John closed at 1 P. M., or almost immediately after the opening of the incoming Dr. Jenkins were therefore declared elected, mail. If the mails received were heavy Postmaster McPeake and his willing staff, could not get them sorted even before the others had to be despatched, so there was inconvenience all around. The additional mail the Rev. Dr. Jenkins, a retired Episcopalian therefore, will be a great boon, and the action of the postal authorities in the matter, will be duly appreciated. The FARMER, which did its share in bring- connected with an English regiment in the ing the desirability of the change, before Crimean war, and is an attractive and forcible Survival of the Fittest.

The Freeman, Hon. John Costigan's old enemy is dead, and its former editor and proprietor, Mr. Anglin, is shrouded in obscurity. The Freeman's crusade against Mr. Costigan, was as insane, as it was bitter, and only served to raise that gentleman higher in the estimation and esteem of his coreligionists and fellow countrymen. While the Freeman expires, and Mr. Anglin's political career is ended without any expression of regret, Mr. Costigan continues to worthily hold the high position of a Minister of the Crown, trusted and respected by the people of Canada.

The Fiction Factory.

The Grit press are again spreading absurd rumours respecting the Dominion Cabinet changes. They also presume to assert who is to succeed Governor Wilmot in New Brunswick. The public ought not to be deceived by these canards. The Grit press don't know what changes are in contemplation, and they run their fiction factories, to satisfy the demand for political news, which just now is scarce. When the Dominien Government want to reconstruct, or Grits, two seats, Messrs. Fielding and Power appoint a Governor for New Brunswick, the for the local. There has been a Dominion Grit press and party will likely be the last | Election in Halifax since that time, however.

General Middleton, after his inspection at Kingston, left for Quebec and St. John, so the despatches say, and will come to Fredericton to have a look at Col. Maunsell's command, and we feel assured that he will be surprised, as well as delighted, at the condition of the new Infantry School and Corps here. Col. Maunsell has had all the obstacles common to new organizations, to contend with, but from the rawest material, he and his capable staff, have produced a body of well drilled, and well disciplined soldiers, who are a credit to the force in Canada.

Prefers New Brunswick.

Mr. John Gregory, who is a son of the lat Dr. Gregory, of this city, and a worthy young man, advertises elsewhere in the FARMER, for a farm suitable for stock raising. Mr. Gregory, has had a thorough course of training at the Guelph, Ontario, Agricultural College, where he finished his studies some two years ago. Since that time, he has been in Manitoba and the North-West, and we believe at one time, intended settling permanently in that country. But after observation and travel, he has conclud-ed that he would prefer farming in New $1,000, (although the salaries of teachers are $1,000, (although the salaries of teachers are Congestion and all Throat and Lung dis-Brunswick to taking up land in a new coun-Brunswick than in Nova Scotia.) The Pending Elections.

There are to be two elections held in Maritime Provinces during the present month, one in Queen's County, P. E. Island, and the other in Halifax on the 20th, where the new Provincial Secretary, Mr. Fielding, seeks re-election. Both are to be warmly contested.

The candidates in Queens County, are Dr. Jenkins, Conservative, and Mr. Wm. Welsh, Grit. Both gentlemen have been heard of the seeks in the Seeks in the Queen's Prize, this representative of the Dominion was fortunate enough to obtain a place in the first sixty.

In the Alexandra Plate, Lord Shaftesbury says there are 300,000 more women in England than there ought to be, and he wants to have them shipped over to America.

Mr. Davis and and the Doctor took his seat in the House of Commons, but through a technicality, he was allowed to occupy it only a few days, a recount which had been appealed from, giving it to Mr. Brecken. Dr. Jenkins is a son of clergyman of Charlottetown. He is about fifty-five years of age, and occupies a leading position in the practice of his profession at Charlottetown. He served as a Surgeon the proper authorities, will hereafter reach speaker. The contest between him and Mr. Welsh, no doubt will be close.

> is opposed by Mr. John Y. Payzant, a business man of means and reputation. The advantage of being Premier, and holding the Provincial Secretaryship, will of course tell in Mr. Fieldings' favor, but if the election is fought out on Dominion party lines, as we presume it will be, Mr. Payzant, the Conservative stands a fair chance of being elected. Halifax city and county send two members to the House of Commons, and three to the Local Assembly. Both elections are generally run on strict party lines. In the general local and Dominion elections of 1882, which were held on the same day, Messrs. Daly and Richey, Conservatives for the Commons, defeated Mesers. Jones and Fuller, by the following vote: Daly 2,811, Richey, 2,785, Jones, 2,720, Fuller, 2,563. In the local elections, the candidates were Messrs. Harrington, Parsons and Pugh, Conservatives and Messrs. Fielding, Power and Foster, Grits. The election resulted in the return of Harrington, Conservative, and Fielding and Power, Grits, by the following vote: Harrington, 2,737, Power, 2,581, Fielding, 2,554, Foster, 2543, Pugh, 2,508, Parsons 2,475. Of the five seats for Dominion and Local, the Conservatives carried three men, Messrs. Daly and Richey, for the Commons, and Mr. Harrington for the local, and the Last summer Mr. Richey was appointed to the Governorship, and Mr. Stairs, a Conservative, secured the vacant seat by acclamation, the Grit party failing to put up a man against him.
