Viceregal Visitors.

This afternoon, Fredericton will have the pleasure for the first time of receiv ing a visit from Lord Lansdowne, Gov ernor General of Canada and his amiable lady the Marchioness of Lansdowne.

a mere holiday trip. Lady Landsdowne is a niece of Lord Russell, Commanderin-Chief of the British garrison at Hali fax, and with her husband, has been visiting her relative in that city. It was on the invitation of Governor Wilmot, we believe, that they consented to pay Fredericton a flying visit, and accordance with their own wishes, no public demonstration, except social an civic courtesies, has been planned.

His Excellency and suite, will arrive at 5 o'clock this afternoon by special at the Railway Station by a guard of honor of one hundred men from the Infantry School Corps, under command of Major Gordon, and led by the Band of the Corps. The party will be driven to Government House, where they will be guests during their stay in this city. In guests, including prominent political, civic, church and military dignitaries, Lord Lansdowne in 1869, was mar ried to Lady Maud Evelyn Hamilton youngest daughter of the Duke of Abercorn, and has two sons and two daugh ters living. His eldest child is a daughter; his eldest son is Henry William Esmond, known as the Earl of Kerry, and is twelve years of age. Allied to the Duke of Abercorn, the head of the noble house of Hamilton, by marriage with the present Duke, Lord Lansdowne is connected with the highest of Island Britain's aristocracy, and is regarded as a young peer of great promise. He was appointed to the Governor Generalship of Canada, August 18th, 1883, and arrived at Quebec, October, 22nd, one year ago to-day, where he was sworn in the following day. SCISSORED SELECTIONS.

An American naval officer, who had spent some considerable time in China, narrates an amusing experience of the ignorance of the Chinese maidens of the custom of kissing. Wishing to complete a conquest he had made of a young mel jin (beautiful lady) he invited her-using English words-to give him a kiss. Finding her comprehension of the request somewhat obscured he suited the action to the word and took a delicate kiss. The girl ran away in another room, thoroughly alarmed, exclaiming: "Terrible man-eater. I shall be devoured." But in a moment, finding herself uninjured, she returned to him saying: "I would learn more of your strange rite. Kee-es me." He knew it wasn't quite right, but he kept on instructing her in the rite of "kess-es me," until she knew how to do it like a native Yankee girl. And after that she suggested a second course remarking, "Kec-ss me some more, seen jine Mee-lee-kee!' (Angliee American) and the lesson went on until her mamma's voice rudely awakened them from their delicious dreams. - Boston Herald.
