THE OLD HOME.

"Return, return," the voice cried,
To your old valley, far away;
For, softly on the river-side,

TEMPTATION:

The Lady of Ashurst.

The next morning Bessie walked out after breakfast was over. Frank had gone over to the Oaks to consult with Rufus Welby concerning his arrangements hundred yards of the grave-yard, though it was concealed from view by a belt of young trees, and on arriving at this point Mr. Ashley insisted on descending from the carriage and visiting his own monu-

"And she told you that I maltreated your mother; that was why you defied me yesterday. Oh, Bessie, I love you Eva with the first passion of my life, and most over-turned the old man as he ran full tilt against him.

"O, how, old blackamoor, what are you standing in the way for? If you
