A burglarous attempt was made upon the store of C. H. Burpee at Sheffield, the other night. A hole was cut by means of boring in the outside door of the back store. The object of this was to knock away a brace by which the door was fastened on the inside. In this the burglar succeeded, but as the door was otherwise secured an entrance was not effected and the attempt was abandoned. A milk room in the near neighborhood was robbed the same night.

The Scott Act, To the Editor of The Farmer. Sin:—I observe that the Dominion Church- 60 BARRELS Granulated, Brown, Powder-

man, the organ of the church of England in Canada, takes a strong position against the Churchman says :-"One delegate honestly admitted that the Act was an utter failure. Others declared that in spite of the Act "men in hotels asked for 'nothing' and got it, and it i.e., 'nothing' made them drunk." Others said that "the Act led to a very great deal of false swearing," which is worse then drunkenness admitted that the Act led to a very great deal of false swearing," which is worse than drunkenness as more likely to become a general habit. Others said that "men went across the border and came home drunk." Others that the law was "treated with utter contempt by the public." Others that "there was difficulty in getting people to act as spies on their neighbor." For this we are indeed thankful. The development of a spy system amongst neighbours who should live together in peace and good will would paoduce a state of social anarchy bordering upon civil war. We thank God earnestly, that our countrymen MAILS CLOSING ! on any person or persons caught practicing time, as follows:-

Continuing, the Churchman says :- " The law is thus made a provoker of crime, as all law must be which is the mere expression of fanatical prejudices, and not as all law having a moral aspect should be, the emodiment of, and drawing its real strength from agreement with the general conscience. From the reports of Scott Act advocates we get these as the results of this legislation. 1st, A fearful outbreak of lying and perjury. 2nd. Whole-sale defiance of the law by the classes usually most rigid observers of the law. 3rd. A systematic effort made to establish an odious, Woodill's German Baking Powder.

A new and terrible form of crime established in Woodill's German Baking Powder. tracy by threats of vengeance if they carry out the law. 5th. The demoralisation of the whole community by the sight of statue law being openly defied. 7th. The establish- Woodill's German Baking Powder. ment by youths and young men of private drinking clubs. These clubs are so utterly abominable in their very object, and so certain to produce infamous consequences, that we regard this new danger to morality and religion as in itself the most damning evidence possible of the evils of the Scott Act. It seeks to drive out Beelzebub by invoking legions of devils. We have had experience Woodill's German Baking Powder. of drinking clubs. We warn our clergy and all friends of decency, that one such place will do more to propagate drunkenness and licentiousness than a score of saloons which are under legal rule. Youths and young men who would be ashamed to enter a saloon will go to such a Club and learn habits of debauchery which are the ruin of body and soul. For such a result the Christian public are besought to become fanatically anxious! The Churchman concludes its able article, as follows:--" The world has seen the failure of such tyrannical legislation before. If those who wish to impose the law of prohibition knew history or human nature, they would give up agitating for legislation which is irrational, provocative of worse crimes than it seeks to suppress, a menace to civil liberty, a seeks to suppress, a menace to civil liberty, a demolisher of public sentiment, an inciter of civil strife, a generator of new forms of vice, a hinderer of the growth of temperance principles. Such legislation is true his contract of the stripe in the stripe is true his contract. ples. Such legislation is, we believe, a fee to religion most subtle and most potent." 5 00 Comment upon the above is unnecessary Coming from such a source, it is indeed a powerful argument in favor of the repeal of he Scott Act in Fredericton. REPEAL. Fredericton, Oct. 26, 1885.
