The members of victoria Ledge, I. O. O. F., celebrated the 66th anniversary of their Order, very successfully Monday night. They marched in procession to the Methodist Church, headed by the Band of the Infantry School Corps at 7.30 p. M., where Rev. J. W. Wadman of Carleton, St. John, himself an Oddfellow, preached an eloquent sermon. On returning to their own hall, a pleasant programme was presented. Mr. C. A. Sampson delivered an address on the Order. Coffective and and music selections were given by Mrs. John Black, Aiss Annie Lugrin, Mr. A. J. F. Parker and Mr. W. Adams. The Hall was densely packed with people, and the brethren of the mystic tie, did their best to render the evening pleasant in which they succeeded admirably. Prof. Rivet, N. G., was master of ceremonies.
