Press Comments on the Incident.

In the House of Commons the other day, Mr. Blake took occasion to sneer in his usual way, at Hon. John Costigan, who however, pluckily turned on the leader of the opposition, and administered a well deserved rebuke to that gentleman, the substance of which with some press comments thereon, we reproduce. Said Mr. Costigan :-I thank the hon. gentleman for his very friendly suggestion. It is not the first time FREDERICTON, N. B. I have experienced his friendship. Why it is that he makes it a point to attempt to wound my feelings I cannot understand. Is it because I am of a quiet disposition and am not quick to resent his insults?
