A NEW VOLUME.

The FARMER, with its present issue enters upon its eighth volume, but does not propose referring lengthily to its anniversary. It may not be out of place to remark, however, and it gives the FARMER and its proprietor great satisfaction to be able to do so, that no newspaper ever published in Fredericton, has met with the same degree of success, in such a comparatively short time, as has the FARMER. Its circulation has steadily increased since its first issue, without any special effort by its management, the paper itself challenging and receiving the cordial support of the public. As an evidence of how well the FARMER is regarded in business circles, we need but point to its advertising columns, the value of which is recognized in a practical way by our business men.

For all the considerations the FARMER has received from a public ready award its favors where best deserved the FARMER is thankful, and it hopes, that during the new year upon which it enters to-day, to still further merit the confidence, support and patronage, of its
